FOREWORD

OF the countless millions who have passed from the blackness of ignorance since the beginning of time, each one has played a role in the double scheme of existence. The two elements in this scheme are the teaching and the taught. All men are taught. Some go on to teach. Some few become great. This year ushered in the 200th anniversary of one of man's greatest teachers, JAMES WATT, the inventor of the steam engine. Of the great teachers of humanity, some, by rare genius, have moulded new forms of art, of literary expression, of jurisprudence, government, economics and of science. A picked group have changed the form of civilization. And, to this group, by every test of merit, belongs JAMES WATT. Hero of Alexandria in 120 B. C., first realized the power of steam. So did others through the years. But WATT saw more. He saw its tremendous meaning to civilization. It is to the life of WATT, the father of Modern Progress, that we go to find a theme for our book.

Dedication

As the editors have chosen from among the great natural teachers of humanity, James Watt, to furnish the theme of their annual, so they wish to dedicate their book to those, who follow in the footsteps of the Master, Jesus Christ, True God and True Man, the greatest of all teachers, both by reason of Who He is and what He taught. To the teaching Brothers and Sisters of the diocese of Brooklyn, this book is dedicated.

THE FEBRUARY CLASS OF 4B1

GRADUATION!—our thoughts and desires during the past few years have centered on this, our final official act at the Prep. We have been striving eagerly and impatiently to attain this goal. But now that we have reached our aim a note of sadness enters our joy.

Looking into the past we find ourselves in the midst of fond memories. The honor of 4B1 was ever upheld by the leaders of the school. Our roster included two captains, Gerry Maloney, basketball, and George Miles, baseball; the President of the Student Council, Harold Graves, was also in our midst. Joe Behan was Editor of the Blue Jug and Joe Catalano, Class President and chief student librarian. That's not all but space permits no more.

First Row—Stewart, Bukey, Madeo, Gallagher, Mr. McCabe, O'Reilly, Connolly, Stehman, Fitzpatrick.
Second Row—McEvoy, Mullin, Viscardi, Neil, Campbell, Collins, Ottavino, Oczko, Hildebrandt, Maher, Quinn.
Third Row—Wittschen, Menneg, Vollmerhausen, Shapiro, Courtney, Duffy, Sinnott, Westbrook.

THE FEBRUARY CLASS OF 4B2

AS the portals leading to graduation slowly close upon us, bringing a happy end to a still happier four years spent within the walls of Prep, we cannot help but retain a bright picture of our class in our minds and memories. When twenty-odd fellows have spent four of the happiest and most carefree years of their life together they cannot easily forget each other or the school where they first met.

In future years, as we look back and think of our old friends and classmates we will be able to note with satisfaction that we have left behind an enviable record both on the field and in the classroom. And since graduation does not permit us to say "Auf Wiedersehen" we must say a fond farewell.

THE JUNE CLASS OF 4B1

AN a bright September morn, four years ago, we entered Brooklyn Prep for the first time. Our goal since then has been graduation. But now that we have reached it, our joy is mixed with sorrow. For soon we shall part, perhaps forever,

Let's take a look at the fellows who have been outstanding in these four years. First we see Jerry Hogan gracing the stage of the Academy of Music. "Si" Titus and "Mal" McGarry are outstanding on the gridiron. Jim Coyle and Dan Carroll have been regulars on the swimming team for three years. However among the more serious element we find Norman Noble, Dick Moses, Bill Merolla and Tom Darby. Neither time nor space permits more, so now we part.

THE JUNE CLASS OF 4B2

AS our individual and collective careers at the Prep swiftly draw to a close, the four years we have spent in these halls seem to fade and dim in our memory like the pages of some long forgotten book. Those four years have wrought many changes both physical and spiritual. We now know, to a small degree, that it takes hard work to accomplish anything in this world, that we are pretty small fish after all, and that this world is no place to loaf.

In four years, working and playing together, each of us has come to know the others pretty well. The suspicion now dawns upon us that this is a fairly decent bunch after all, and that we are going to miss their company in days to come.

TURNING BACK

We well know that an editor's diary is hardly an innovation in a prep school annual. However, since it is important that the book of the Senior Class have some record of the year, which has meant so much to them, we do not feel that it should be omitted. So if you will but bear with us, the chronicle will be as brief and concise as history permits.

SEPTEMBER—The returning students find many changes at Prep, both in the faculty and the school itself. The new Student Chapel, built by Father Coffey, is praised by all. Father O'Conner, S.J., becomes Prefect of Discipline and Father Smith, S.J., is new Student Counsellor. Football practice begins with forty-five candidates answering Coach Shanahan's call. Ed McNulty runs wild in the Fall Tennis Tournament, defeating Hugh Duffy and John Courtney. Bob Dwyer wins Tournament for second year.

OCTOBER—Fr. Vincent De Paul Hayes, S.J., Student Counsellor of Canisius College, conducts annual retreat. Prep plays a public high school, Erasmus, for the first time in five years. We lose 6—0, but come back to defeat John Adams and Xavier. Tryouts are held and the cast is chosen for the annual play. This year it is "Oliver Twist." St. Pauls is beaten and Fordham tied in mid-season encounters. Bill Mullen, Erasmus Coach, is appointed swimming Coach for the coming season. During his ten years at Erasmus his teams have only lost four meets.

NOVEMBER—The jinx is banished! The spell broken! Prep defeats Poly for first time since '27. The Sodality under Fr. Smith holds its first social, over two hundred attending. George Miles, Harold Graves, and Joseph Catalano receive gold Student Council charms. Harriers win "Catholics'" and the La Salle Invitation Meet. Murt Lawrence stars in both events. The football squad loses two heart-breaking encounters, to St. Peter's and St. John's. Mr. Charles J. Goode, instructor at Prep, is appointed head of new Press Release Bureau. The cross country team wins national fame in Catholic School meet in Newark.

DECEMBER—Before a packed house the Prep Players present "Oliver Twist." Phillip McFarland, Jerry Hogan, and Bob Murphy shine in Dickens' immortal classic. The cast broadcasts over WOR. The Senior Debaters defeat St. Peters but go down before Fordham's splendid team. The Blue Book gets under way in the capable hands of Mr. Edward W. McCawley, S.J. The hoopsters start inauspiciously, trouncing Trinity and losing three in a row to Loughlin, St. Johns and McBurney. The swimming team loses dual meet championship to St. Francis.

JANUARY—Fathers Guild holds annual Card Party in auditorium. The natators capture Individual Championships, dethroning St. Francis after a two year reign. Joe Behan puts out his final issue of the Blue Jug. Joe thus completes a long and successful tenure of office. The basketball team drops decisions to Cathedral, Poly and St. Francis, then defeats Trinity and Loughlin. The first Musical Club is organized at Prep. The finals come and go, leaving in their wake a host of disappointed ones. The February grads depart for parts unknown.

FEBRUARY—Reorganization is the order of the day. Gerald Hogan takes over the reins of the Student Council. Jim Coyle becomes new editor of the Blue Jug. The hockey team defeats La Salle, ending a 27 game winning streak, and is mentioned as possible champions. The basketball team surges down the home stretch. We take St. Michaels, St. Augustines, and a strong Alumni squad. The annual Elocution Contest is under the capable direction of Mr. Charles Matthews, S.J. Dick Bennett '35 is chairman of the dance which his class will give in April.

MARCH—The hoopsters are eliminated from the K. of C. tournament by Good Council and lose the finals of the Jesuit Tournament to St. Peter's. An invitation is received to compete in the Eastern Catholic Championships. We accept and are defeated by St. Mary's of Dunkirk, New York. Father Wilfrid Parsons, S.J., addresses the Father's Guild on journalism. Baseball candidates flock to answer Mr. Shanahan's call. The swimmers close their season with a fifth place in the Private School's Championships. Ray Fullam '37 and John Albertine '40 are the winners of the Elocution Contest.

APRIL—Mr. Goode calls out tennis candidates. There is a lack of good material among the lower classes. The Easter Recess brings welcome relief to the laboring student body. The Class of '35 dance, held at the Biltmore is a great success. Over three hundred attend. Forty Prepsters entrain for Washington, Friday, April 17, and return Sunday, April 19. All report a wonderful time visiting the Smithsonian Institute, Annapolis, and Woodstock.

MAY—The Fathers Guild holds its annual Parents night. Repetitions begin and all settle down to do some hard work. The outing brings together under-graduates and alumni for a glorious day at Indian Point.

JUNE—Examinations again bring woe to some. Senior Retreat and then that glorious 15th of June, Commencement at the Academy of Music.

AND THEN VACATION . . .

THE CLASS OF 4A1

SOME three years ago the present class of 4A1 entered the portals of Brooklyn Prep for the first time. Through the intervening period the coveted goal of every Prepster, senior year, stood forth as a beacon on a far-off shore. Now that the goal has been reached we begin to reflect. Suddenly there dawns upon us a realization that our prep school career is almost at an end and we ask ourselves what have we accomplished during these four long years.

Long after the present class of 4A1 is gone, we feel that every member of it will oft recall the good times we had in common and the friendships that we made at Prep. But most clearly of all will we remember our achievements both scholastic and athletic

“THERE'S nothing left for us but things that used to be—“among our souvenirs.”—
 To us seniors eagerly yet wistfully awaiting the rapidly approaching day which will terminate our stay here at the Prep . . . this seems to be our theme song. The things that used to be!—What memories—what mixed emotions they arouse. Often we've wondered while in our lower classes just what it would be like when we reached this much coveted pinnacle of Senior Year—now we know.

But soon all will be finished—goodbyes said. Brooklyn Prep . . . you have given us a priceless heritage . . . you have given us ideals, a fine Catholic training, a firm foundation on which to build our lives. We thank you again . . . Brooklyn Prep.

JUNIORS

THE CLASS OF 3B1

WE reminisce no more about our first entrance into Prep, we think no longer about our first fears and surprises. We are now seasoned Prepsters. We smile indulgently at the highpitched chatter of the freshmen. Perhaps we have been a bit too condescending toward them. No longer are we hard pressed by the authority of the upper classmen. Rather, now we feel on equal terms with them.

This is but one way of saying that we have at last come into our own; we are beginning to feel our strength, as we draw near the final aim of every Prep student, we pause to greet you. For it is but one more year and we shall have completed our last official act at Prep, Graduation.

AS our third year at Brooklyn Prep draws to a close we pause a moment and reflect on the events which have made our high school career a pleasant one. Included in our ranks are members of the swimming, basketball, track, and football teams. There are some examples of great minds in the class, though not too many. Two of us are greatly concerned with debating in all its aspects and are considered as experts in that field. All in all it is a representative group of Prepsters and a great bunch of fellows. Here you have a class that has succeeded thus far and entertains every hope of successfully hurdling senior year, so that when we meet you again next year, to a man, we shall have reached our goal in graduation.

THE demon "Blue Monday" cackles in glee as the weary, forlorn class of 3B3 sits in a classroom lazily glancing at half opened books. Then with light bound the Latin "prof" enters and cries out cheerily, "Surgite, omnes." As far as the recitations go, we can truthfully say that we try hard. Turning to sports, we find John Regan and John Redmond, both members of the basketball Varsity; and Brickfield, patrolling the outfield; and last but not least Dick Hayden, star quarter miler. The intellectuals of the class include "Big John" Nace, Gerra and Hume, the two star debaters. That we cannot mention every members of the class in this page is unfortunate but true, so we will now leave you for yet another year.

THE class of 3A1 is one of the finest groups of fellows at the Prep. It is a well-balanced unit with a full share of scholastic and athletic luminaries. We will have to omit a review of the qualities of each member, for we have neither the time nor the space to declaim on their merits.

So let it suffice to say that in a class with many noteworthy scholars we have four football lettermen, a varsity trackman, two varsity hockey players, and a J.V. basketball star. Also we number in our midst an assistant editor of the Blue Jug.

Many more have talents as yet uncovered, which, we are certain, time will bring to the fore, thus increasing the glory of Prep.

THE class of 3A2! Almost lost amid the wilds of the fourth floor we boast of one of the most active classes in the school. Evidence of the daily climb may be found in our plentiful representation among the ranks of the athletes.

Peter Callery, a member of the varsity relay, and Jimmy Finley, a cross country champ, are the principal exponents. Many other members of the class, too numerous to mention, also play an important part in the athletic life of the school.

But more than this, 3A2 ranks high in scholastic ability, represented by such eminent scholars as Ed Maher and Bill Neagle.

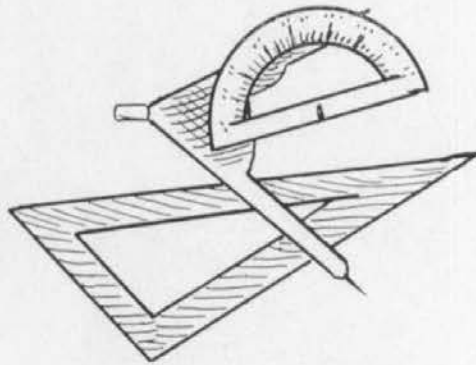

And so with hope for the future and satisfaction for the past we leave you not to say goodbye but rather a fond "au revoir."

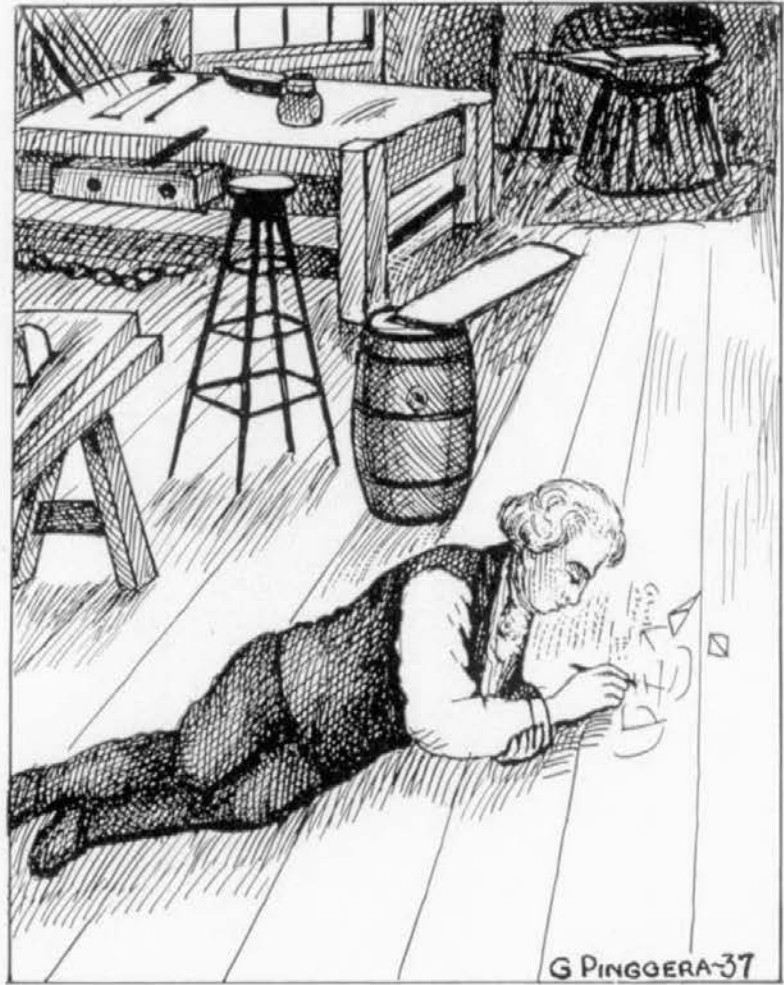

*Upper Left—Let the Meeting Come to Order.
Upper Right—Farewell to Corridors.
Lower Right—In the Stilly Night.*

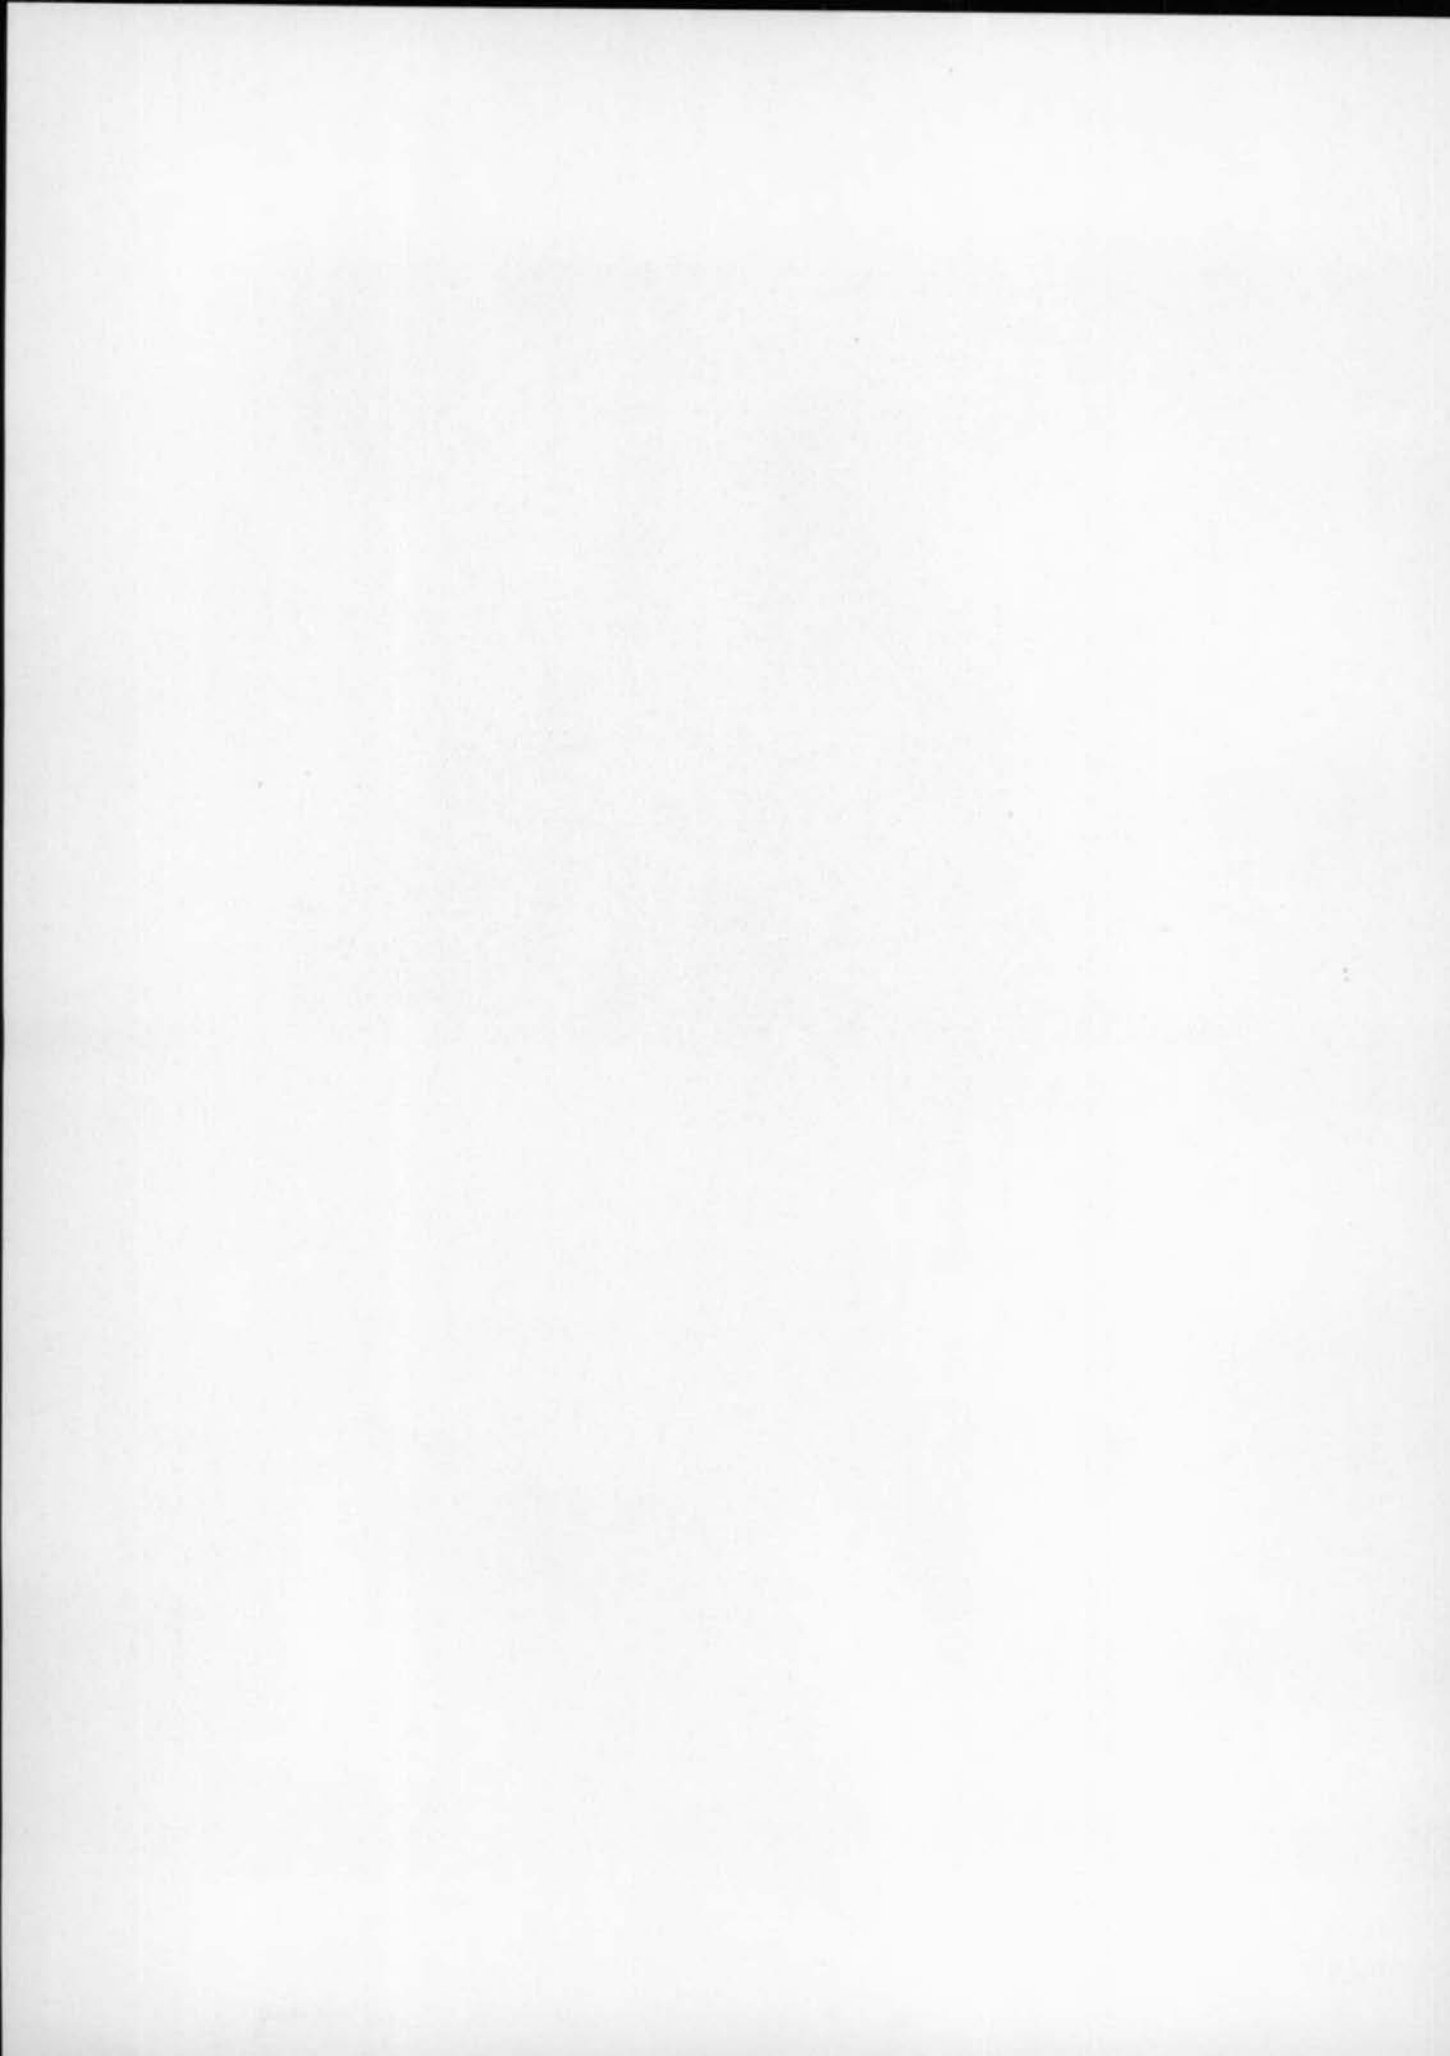

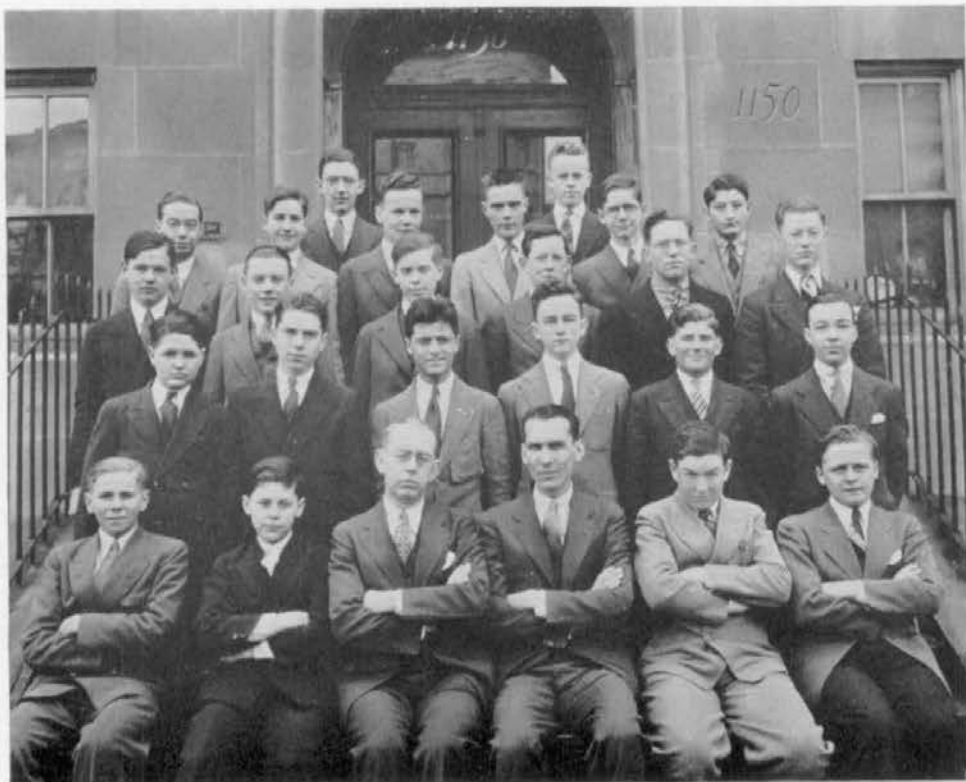

*Upper Left—Prep at West Point.
Upper Right—Good-by Snow—Hello Tennis.
Lower Left—Pits Are Made for Outdoor Track.

SOPHOMORES

THE CLASS OF 2B1

HOW do you do folks! This is the class of 2B1 of Brooklyn Preparatory. We have here a group of young men of wide and varied talent. In their ranks will be found men of letters, men of brawn, men of serious mien and men whose ever smiling faces show their cheery natures. But sad or glad, careful or carefree, athlete or aesthete, no finer, squarer group of boys ever sat in the same classroom. The heads of the departments in which we work are: Mr. McCabe, Latin; Mr. Quinn, Math; Mr. Wedder, Biology; Mr. Anthony Fitzgerald, English; Mr. Devlin, History and Civics.

This notice has come to you through the courtesy of the Blue Book, the informative historical volume which will keep forever green the memories of this year.

ANOTHER chapter in our class history is closed. Reviewing the events of this year we find many features which will bring back happy memories in years to come.

For example, how can we forget the well known triumvirate, or the Greek teacher telling one of the class orators that "there is no augment outside of the Indicative." The duet remarkable for Math and humor respectively, will claim a place in our memory along with our jovial president and capable beadle. The silent studious scholars too, will come in for their share of recognition, while the mischief makers have shown many times that they should not be remembered for that alone. Nor will we be able to forget our stars in chess, ping pong, track and basketball. But here we must close.

AS the late evening sun slowly moves toward its bed, a weary but happy group can be seen resting about a campfire, halfway across the plain of Learning. Less than thirty strong, they are equipped with text books for protection and teachers for guides. The travellers have advanced unceasingly and have steadily traversed for two years the winding and rugged trails of Latin, Biology, English and Math. They have always faced the rising sun and with hope in their hearts have struggled to gain the summit of senior year. This is not a saga of the ancients but a tale of modern youth striving to overcome that nemesis of so many youths, a prep school career. Whether or not they will succeed, time alone will tell.

WEIGH the anchor! — all hands on deck! — Set the sails! The good ship 2A1 is off, through the uncharted waters of Knowledge, to capture the "golden fleece" of graduation. We have just left our second port.

As our ship majestically plows the waters of Latin, Biology, and the other subjects, we see the officers and members of the crew gathered on her decks. The officers are Mr. King, S.J., captain in Latin and English; Mr. Wedder, instructor in Biology; Mr. Sullivan, first mate in charge of Math; and Mr. Lyne, who pilots us in History. The Bos'n or foremost member of the crew is Mr. Carroll, the president. The "log-keeper" is beadle, Clark. The rest of the crew is a group of spirited, intelligent, athletic young Americans.

IN 1960 a noted physician takes up a dusty old year book—his class book of 1936. The cover is dusty and the leather moldy. He anxiously thumbs through the pages to the class of 2A2. There are all the familiar faces. Here he recognizes the smart lads, there the athletes, the serious and the jovial. What a great bunch of fellows! He even recalls the class basketball team and how well represented the class was on the football team. And the teachers!—Mr. Diamond, S.J., for Latin; Mr. Matthews, S.J., for Greek; Mr. Lyne for History and Mr. Goode for Math.

What a grand class and what a good time they had. But that is all past. He sighs and then slowly turns back to his medical report.

A WHOLE year has gone by since our names were last revealed to you and now we greet you as dignified Sophomores instead of as uncivilized "Freshies."

The class of 2A3 has a remarkable record for a Sophomore class on the athletic field. "Denny" Barry and "Bill" LaRose were outstanding members of the Varsity football team, while Artie Herbert and Ray Smith tried their best and succeeded to make the grade as Varsity basketballers, and by the end of the basketball season they had proven their worth.

However athletics is not the only place in which our class members are mentioned. For in a far more important role, namely the Honor Roll, to which all aspire, we have our bright lights; among these might be found Arthur Saunders, John Schwartz, Robert Swett and "Teddy" O'Neil.

THE CLASS OF 1B1

SIX months ago the good ship 1B1 embarked on its voyage to the far distant shore of graduation. Already we have landed at the first port, without a man overboard, thus proving the mettle of the crew and its officers or teachers if you wish.

We are well represented, both in activities and athletics. Though but freshmen, a few of the boys are already hammering on the doors of varsity positions.

But that's not all. In studies we are represented by such eminent scholars, as Robert Gunther and William Harrington, to mention but a few.

And now the class of 1B1 after its first successful year at the Prep will say a fond "au revoir" until next year when we will be dignified sophomores.

First Row—Baxter, Burke, Mr. Lyons, S.J., Mr. Goode, Hallett, Tollner. Second Row—Coyle, Dolan, Conway, Powers, Meagher. Third Row—Quinn, Gallagher, Bridgetts, Kennedy. Fourth Row—McDonald, Janicula, Fenton, Melvin. Not Present—Albertine, Delaney, Shanahan.

ALL aboard! The 1B2 express limited is pulling out of the B. P. terminal headed for a long and difficult journey across the fields of higher learning. Our president enacts the role of chief engineer, little thatch haired "Tarzan" plays brakeman. Two of our scholars are garbed as conductors and our assembled group follows its chosen leaders over the complicated tracks of learning.

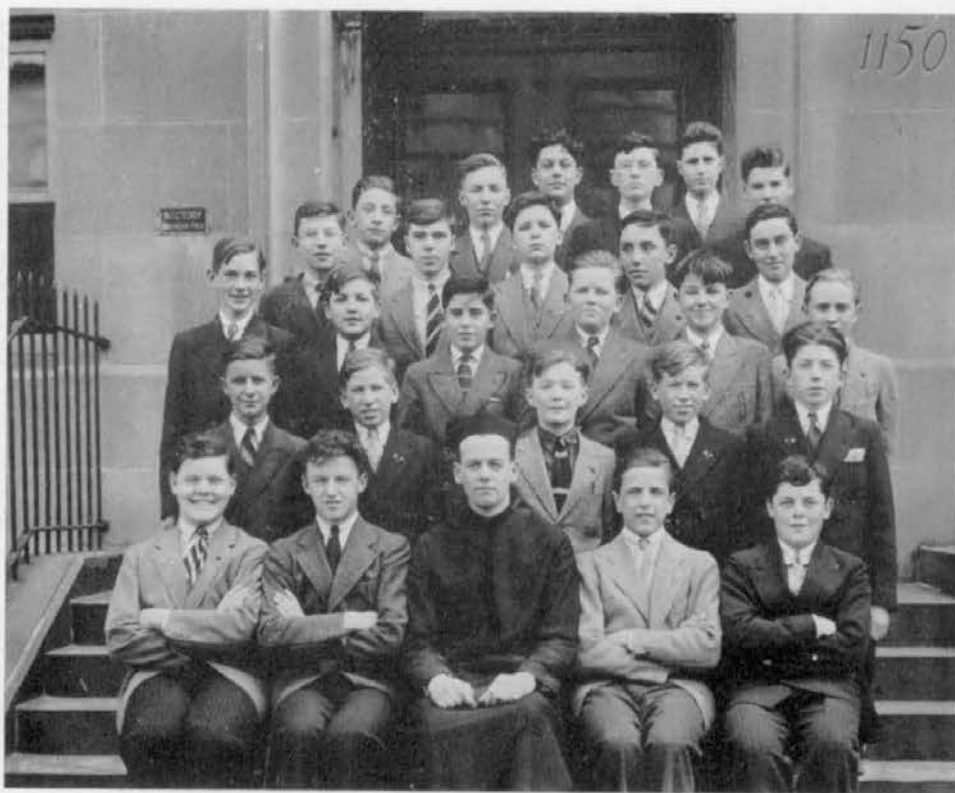

All are hopeful for a very successful journey. Some may fall by the wayside, others may find it extremely difficult, yet others will come through with flying colors. But when our limited arrives at its destination in three years, we are sure that our little band will be there representing 1B2. In full strength we shall leave either to continue our learning in college or to enter the business world.

THOUGH we are but freshmen we have already gained many honors as a class. In the interclass basketball we are the champions of both first and second years and to top this we also had five representatives on the undefeated freshman football team. This should not be construed to mean that we are lacking in men of mind. Witnesses to or against our scholastic ability are our teachers, Mr. Lahey, instructor for English and Latin; Mr. McMahon, expounder of Math; and Mr. Pfeiffer, S.J., teacher of History. These are the men who have made our short stay at Prep so pleasant and have begun the foundation of our pillar of learning and thus we bring to a close the first Blue Book notice given to 1B3.

THE curtain has risen, the play begun. The directors are Mr. McDonnell, S.J., instructor for Latin and English; Dr. FitzGerald, History; and Mr. Goode, teacher of Mathematics. The cast is composed of the members of 1A1.

The action mainly concerns itself with a class-room at Brooklyn Prep and the deeds of those therein. The stage is occupied by two diminutive figures engaged in a violent controversy, Madden and Schaefer, the two debaters. Breslin, the beadle, then enters from the left and inquires anxiously for Fr. O'Connor. Fogarty, class president, and Manning, honor man, are separating the debaters, whose argument has gone a bit too far. Mackey, the secretary, remains in the background. At this point the stage becomes so crowded that the management lowers the curtain in self defense.

FROM my seat of vantage in the centre, I can obtain an inclusive view of the class. My impression is a composite of young healthy intelligent American boys. Some of the noses are snub and some of the faces freckled, but they are all good fellows, so anything else matters little.

Our class is neither all brains nor all muscle. Some are striving for the honor role and others for high places in athletics. To be entirely truthful, however, all put forth their greatest effort during the most popular period of the day, the intermission for lunch. It is a wonderful sight to see 1A2 sweep down on the cafeteria bent on alleviating those pangs of hunger brought on by long hours of study.

THE long, hard grind of a stoker will never equal the grind, grind of "Bonus, bona, bonum," with which we freshmen are greeted every morning. On each succeeding day we gather from far and wide, from Flushing to Bay Ridge, to engage in combat with Latin, English, Math and History. These are our opponents in our mighty battle to succeed at Prep.

Commanded as we are by Messrs. Giegengack, O'Rourke, McMahon, and Lyons, S.J., we are sure of the best teaching and advice. However the combat has but begun and victory will come only after four long, hard years. Thus as freshmen we drink a toast to this period of struggle and to the culmination of all our efforts—Graduation.

ACTIVITIES

DUCES PIN

What makes a leader? First, strength of will. Knowledge without strong will-power is useless. Intelligence is imperative. His understanding of problems must be simple. He inspires respect; is without pettiness; punishes without ill-will. He is simple, not headstrong . . . a realist. He accepts the lessons taught by facts. Add physical courage and a spiritual devotion to commonplace toil.

André Maurois.

DUCES CLUB

AMONG the most important sections of the sodality here at Prep we find the Duces Club. Inaugurated this year by Father Smith, S.J., it is intended to mark with special distinction those men who are leaders not only in all the activities of the Sodality but also as scholars.

Their Sodality standing is rated on a basis of fifty points. Ten points are given for regular faithful attendance at K. B. S. Mass on Friday morning. Ten more points are given to members of the publicity section and ten for faithful attendance at the Guard of Honor, while twenty points are given to members of the Christian Doctrine Teaching Class. Having fulfilled all these requirements as far as the Sodality activities are concerned, the Duces aspirant must be able to hold consistently his place on the honor roll.

Since it is still young its ranks are small but we are confident that next year will see a great increase in membership.

The Knights of the Blessed Sacrament is a society dedicated to the greater love and reverence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The members pledge their word to approach at least once a week the table of The Bread of the Strong and the Wine that maketh Virgins.

KNIGHTS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AND GUARD OF HONOR

THIS branch of the Sodality is composed of the entire student body. Its main function is the reception of Holy Communion every Friday. Membership is not mandatory but the enthusiastic co-operation and prompt attendance on the part of at least ninety-eight per cent of the students is splendid evidence of the devotion of Brooklyn Prep boys for the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the fostering and maintaining of which is the chief purpose of the Knights of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Guard of Honor consists of senior and junior sodalists who devote ten minutes of their lunch period to guarding the Blessed Sacrament in the school chapel.

CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE SECTION AND STUDENTS' SPIRITUAL COUNCIL

THE largest and perhaps the most active section of the Sodality is the Catechism Teachers. It is composed of twenty-seven students and includes three parishes.

The students teach once each week and have their own special classes. To help foster interest in Catechism they distribute magazines, holy pictures, medals and the like which help to bring about very good attendance and very good results in the classes.

The governing body of the Sodality, the Students' Spiritual Council, is charged with admission of members, excusing of absentees, and the discussion of plans for the furtherance of the Sodality. In this way the true spirit of Catholic Action in the spread of devotion of Our Lady is fostered and the religious spirit of the Prep is a credit to all.

RECEPTION INTO THE SODALITY

"The Sodality of Our Lady is a religious body which aims at fostering in its members an ardent devotion, reverence and filial love toward the Blessed Virgin Mary, under whose protection and guidance, members might tend to the sanctification of themselves and of others and to defend the Church of Christ."

First Rule of Sodality, epitomized.

JUNIOR SODALITY AND RETREAT

IN line with an established custom the annual retreat was held at Prep in October. Father Vincent De Paul Hayes, S.J., Freshman Student Counselor of Canisius College, was the retreat master for second, third and fourth year, while Father Smith, our Student Counsellor, gave the retreat to the first year boys. The retreat lasted three days and was closed with Mass and Communion on Friday, October 18, 1935.

Although membership in the Sodality is not granted to anyone immediately upon entering Prep, a student may become a member as soon as he has proven himself to the

A student may become a member of the Sodality as soon as he has proved himself to the Student Spiritual Council and to the Student Counselor. If the aspirant is in first or second years he becomes a member of the Junior Sodality. Meetings are on Wednesdays in the Student Chapel.

SENIOR SODALITY

THE Senior Sodality of Brooklyn Prep has just completed a most successful year. Successful both in spiritual and material activities. Fr. William Smith, S.J., the Student Counselor and moderator of the Society, is directly responsible for this success. He was the moving spirit of the Society and his enthusiasm both in his conversation and in his talks fired all the members, for they went out from the weekly Tuesday morning meetings knowing better how to live as more perfect Catholics and as better Sodalists.

The Guard of Honor and Mission Section are but a few of its many activities. The Prefect for the spring term was Thomas Darby. His assistants were Russo, Butler, Bussell, and McGarry. This year saw an unprecedented leap in membership activity.

LIBRARY

THE Library affords a remarkable opportunity for the acquisition of knowledge because of the extensive scope of its six thousand volumes which adequately cover the fields of Philosophy, Biography, Religion, Sociology, Language, Science and the Arts. During the term, the biographical department has been enhanced by the famous reference work, "The Dictionary of American Biography," consisting of eighteen volumes. To the already numerous encyclopedias have been added "The Columbia Encyclopedia" and "The Cyclopedia of Horticulture" and also several new dictionaries. Besides these, "The Great Events of Famous Historians" have been given prominence in the Library. These twenty beautiful volumes bear bindings which are facsimilies of originals in famous world libraries. At present the Library subscribes to over sixty different periodicals. The Library is also well represented in the field of fiction, possessing the works of the masters, past and present. All in all the Library has gained more than five hundred new books since the last edition of the Blue Book.

Mindful of the fact that beauty breeds not amid squalor, the library is kept bright and cheerful. Here one may see the hard-won trophies of the various teams and the charming displays of postcards which Mr. Reiners so kindly lends from his collection. Here too, may be seen exhibits, such as the Shakespearean, rare binding and book jacket displays.

Your expositor regrets the Library's loss in the graduation of Joseph Catalano, who so ably assisted Doctor FitzGerald in his work of guiding the school's bibliotheca toward its goal of indefectibility. John F. Zengel was then appointed head librarian.

BELLARMINE DEBATING SOCIETY

THE Junior Debating Society is just closing one of the most profitable years of its existence. During the past year it has changed its name, from Junior Debating Society to Bellarmine Debating Society, and has been under two moderators. We were extremely fortunate to possess two men so untiring in their efforts and wise in the art of Demosthenes and Cicero. Mr. Thomas A. King, S.J., was our moderator for the first term and upon his appointment as moderator of the Senior Society we were led by Mr. James L. McDonnell, S.J.

In the elections for second semester, John Bowler was voted president, Herbert Kane, vice-president, and William Brennan, Secretary. The membership, an exceedingly large one, consisted of sixty zealots, who demonstrated the greatest interest in the principles of oratory. During the year we featured a mock trial, debates, open forums, a contest with the Seniors, and several interscholastic debates. Altogether a most interesting year.

SENIOR DEBATING TEAM

Cicero, De Officiis.

CAMPION DEBATING SOCIETY

THE Campion Debating Society was greatly hampered this year by the serious illness of its moderator, Mr. Beckwith, S.J. The extensive schedule planned by Mr. Beckwith was to some extent curtailed by his illness. Despite this, two debates were held, one with St. Peter's of Jersey City and the other with Fordham Prep. The team for the former was: Michael Hume, '37, Phillip McFarland, '36, and Harold Graves, '36. This contest was won by Prep with a 2-1 decision. The following week another team journeyed to Fordham Prep. This time the result was reversed and Fordham defeated by a 2-1 margin the team of Gerald Hogan, '36, Ralph Gerra, '37, and William Richardson, '37. In February Harold Graves relinquished the office of president to Gerald Hogan. In the same month Mr. Thomas A. King, S.J., became the moderator and thus far has turned in a very creditable performance.

ORATORICAL WINNER

To steal his sweet and honey'd sentences.*

Shakespeare, Henry V.

ORATORY AND ELOCUTION

IN the All-Eastern High School Oratorical Contest, Brooklyn Prep. came through in its usual form when William Richardson, '35, took second place. Richardson, who won the junior elocution contest last year at the Prep, delivered a eulogy on the English martyr, Blessed Edmund Campion, S.J.

In the annual elocution contest under the direction of Mr. Charles A. Matthews, S.J., first place in Senior division was won by Raymond Fullam, '37. Joseph Weeks, '36, won the second place.

In the Junior division, John Albertine, '39, captured first place. Robert Notine, '39, took second place.

ELOCUTION WINNERS

Albertine, Notine, Fullam, Weeks.

DUG-OUT

Service in the Dug-out, demanding a high degree of self-sacrifice, is, perhaps, the very finest manifestation of school spirit and deserves the unlimited appreciation of all who are interested in intra-mural sports at Brooklyn Prep.

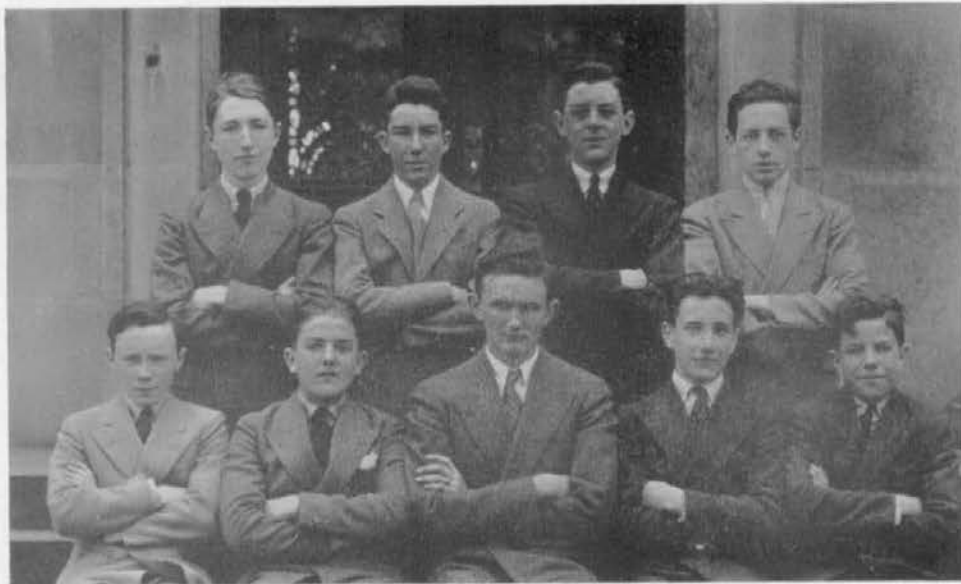

Father O'Connor, S.J., Director of Athletics.

THE DUG OUT

THE Dugout celebrates its wooden anniversary this year, having completed its first year most successfully under the direction of the Director of Athletics, Father O'Connor, and the Student Council. It was founded a year ago February, by the Student Council, to facilitate the handling of all material used for the intra-mural games.

The staff is chosen by the Captain of the Dug-Out, Joseph Dunne, '35, and by Father O'Connor and have various posts assigned them each day. It is their duty to keep order in the Dug-Out and Recreation room and, of course, to take care of the equipment. Though their hours are long and laborious and their rewards few, they have merited the unstinted gratitude of the Athletic Department.

OLIVER TWIST

ON Monday, December 9, when the curtain dropped at the end of the final scene, the entire audience at the Academy of Music proclaimed "Oliver Twist" the greatest production ever staged by the Prep Players, the dramatic society of Brooklyn Preparatory School. This superb production was the climax of more than two months of arduous rehearsals. The students who gave so freely of their time and services are to be congratulated, but the ovation rendered them by the enthusiastic audience will ever be their reward.

So interesting, so magnificent and so human was this presentation of Charles Dickens' immortal story, that the audience was spellbound from start to finish. Over thirteen hundred spectators heaped praise and honor upon the group of fifty actors who so marvelously distinguished themselves in the thespian art.

From so large and so well-coached a cast, it would be well nigh impossible to single out the outstanding actor, but from the plaudits of the crowd it was very evident that little Bob Murphy, a freshman, was the favorite. His characterization of the pathetic Oliver Twist was so realistic that many believed it to be the best ever given by one who had not had previous experience in acting.

Others to distinguish themselves were Gerald Hogan who played the part of that immortal villain, Fagin, and James Furlong, who portrayed the part of Fagin's villainous friend, Bill Sikes. Another outstanding characterization in an exceedingly difficult role, was that of Nancy by Philip McFarland, a veteran of former productions. Harold Graves as Mr. Brownlow, the kind old gentleman who adopted Oliver, and Jeremiah Dalton playing the part of Dr. Grimwig, once more showed their ability to act. James Mullin was the laugh-provoking Bumble, the Beadle. William Richardson who amazed everyone at rehearsals with his skilful portrayal of Noah Claypole lived up to expectations with a fine display of acting talent.

Four judges, men well known in the theatrical world, were chosen to select the two outstanding actors from the cast. After lengthy consideration they awarded the gold medal to Gerald Hogan, '36, for his splendid portrayal of Fagin. The silver medal they awarded to Philip McFarland for his sterling performance of the part of Nancy. The honor of third place was given to Thomas Allen for his presentation of the part of the Artful Dodger, but in view of the fact that there was no allowance made for a third prize, he was proposed for such a prize if one could possibly be given.

Through the arrangements made by Mr. Joseph Bier, father of our former student council president, the cast dramatized the play over the network of Station WOR, main station of the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Considering everything it was a red letter year for the Prep Players and for the

THE BLUE JUG

THE Blue Jug, a fortnightly publication by the students of Brooklyn Prep, is now flourishing in its seventh year. During these years it has been steadily progressing until now it ranks as one of the finest scholastic publications in the metropolitan area.

The Blue Jug is the voice of the school, portraying the life and activity that is ours here at Brooklyn Prep. And we of the staff have done our bit to give the Prep a student publication of which she may be proud.

It has been the policy of the Blue Jug this past year to endeavor to make the paper neater in appearance and to lend a note of interest by a wider use of pictures.

A word now about the composition of the paper. Little need be said about the finished product, which evokes just praise from an appreciative student body. But it must be remembered that this finished product is but the culmination of weeks of work. Behind this work is the unknown reporter whose work is much appreciated by the editor and his aides. The editorial staff in turn have their work cut out for them, headlines, synonym hunting, galley proofs, dummy make-up—all part of the job. From the editor to the reporter the staff functions as a unit, freely giving their time and service in the unseen work behind the finished Blue Jug. Asking no recognition, the whole reward of these men is the satisfaction of having accomplished something worth while.

BLUE BOOKS

"The circumstance which gives authors an advantage above all these great masters, is this, that they can multiply their originals; or rather, can make copies of their works, to what number they please, which shall be as valuable as the originals themselves."

Addison, The Spectator.

BLUE BOOK

TO put out a good annual is a tremendous task. We have earnestly striven to produce a book that the senior class and the whole school will be proud of, a book that will aptly cap our four years at Brooklyn Prep. However, it is not for us to judge but to be judged, not for us but for the reader to pass criticism on our work. We have made many changes in the make-up of the book. They were all made with the intention of producing a book that would be more interesting to the reader. If such is the result it will only be because we have profited by the experience of our predecessors and put their lessons into practice.

COMPOSING

"It is the true office of history to represent the events themselves, together with the counsels and to leave the observations and conclusions thereupon to the liberty and faculty of every man's judgment."

Francis Bacon, Advancement of Learning.

The success of this Blue Book, if such it attains, is in no small part due to the untiring efforts and generous advice of the moderators, Mr. Edward W. McCawley, S.J., and Mr. James L. McDonnell, S.J. To them go our sincere thanks for the untold aid they have given. Mr. McDonnell has conducted an advertising campaign which at the present gives promise of being one of the most successful in the history of the Blue Book. And let us not forget to add our gratitude to all the members of the faculty who have been so generous in their cooperation and the members of the staff who have given so freely of their time and effort that the Blue Book might be a better one and that the class of '36 might have a fitting memento of their days at Prep.

GERMAN CLUB

THE German Club or "Die Deutsche Verein" is just completing a most successful year as this volume goes to press. The moderator is Mr. Anthony Fitzgerald, German instructor at the Prep. The officers for the spring term were William Keller '36, president, Thomas Darby '36, vice-president, and Sylvester Kenny '36, secretary.

Two plays were produced during the year by "Die Deutsche Verein," both written by John Zengel '36. In the fall term "Der Wetter Prophet" was staged with Thomas Darby in the lead. John O'Farrell acted as Hofprophet and Francis Keller as Wirt. The plot of this play concerned two roommates in a German University just before the war. The year featured games such as Guggenheim and Handtasche. There were outings to German points of interest.

FRENCH CLUB

THE past year has been a Renaissance Period for the French Club. Messrs. Flynn and O'Rourke, the moderators, have done everything in their power to provide for the interest and instruction of the members. The officers were, Peter Viscardi, president for the fall term, and Edward Carr, president for the spring term.

Among the activities of the club have been lectures on the literature, art, and scenery of France conducted in an extremely interesting as well as educational manner by Mr. Flynn. Two outings were held during the year on which the members visited various French points of interest in and about New York.

SPANISH CLUB

THE "Academia Espanola" or Spanish Club held its first meeting on January 15, 1936. It was an innovation at the Prep and was inaugurated by Mr. Antony Fitzgerald, the moderator, at the request of many of the Spanish students. At the first meeting elections were held and ambitious plans for the future discussed. George Shea, a more than capable student, was elected president of the new club. The other officers were Daniel Lynch, vice-president, and William Stewart, secretary. Under their leadership the club has been well launched and gives promise of an even more successful second year.

The introduction of songs and Spanish games added greatly to the interest of the weekly gatherings. Here the untiring patience and interest of our moderator made itself evident, and for this he deserves the deepest gratitude of the members. And now quite properly we say "hasta luego."

CHECKMATE

Two chess players fighting over the board may fitly be compared to two famous generals encountering each other on the battlefield, the strategy and the tactics being not dissimilar in spirit. Each must be able to call to his aid as the occasion demands all that he has of foresight, brilliancy and resource, both in attack and in defence—Encyclopedia Britannica.

CHESS CLUB

THE year just completed was a most successful one for the Chess Club. Mr. Devlin, the faculty advisor, has well nigh doubled the membership. His interest and co-operation have resulted in a reawakening of interest among the students. The varsity Chess Team is composed of William Steele '37, the captain; Michael Hume '37; Sylvester Russo '37 and Thomas Allen '38. Their most outstanding achievement of the season was their victory over the St. John's College varsity. In this match Steele, Hume and Russo won while Allen lost. Against such a formidable opponent as St. John's College, this victory is one in which the Prep may well take pride.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL CHARM

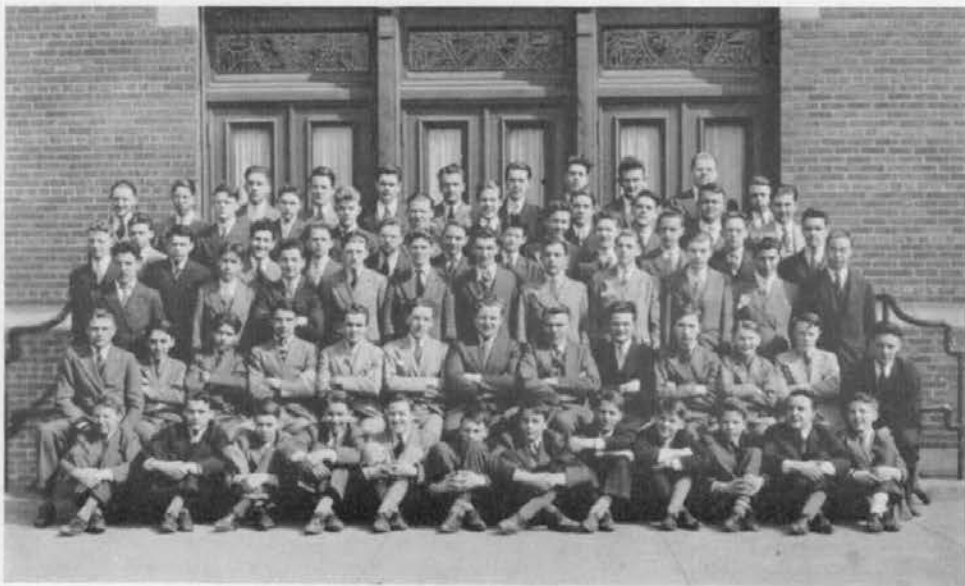

Young men are fitter to invent than to judge; fitter for execution than for counsel; and fitter for new projects than for settled business, for a man that is young in years may be old in hours if he has lost no time.—Francis Bacon, Essays: "Of Youth and Age."

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE successful completion of another year of the Student Council has been attained. Looking back upon our accomplishments we feel proud not only of the Council itself but of the whole student body which has made this possible by its support and willingness to co-operate in the interests of a better Prep.

During the first semester Harold Graves ably directed the destinies of the Council. In his regime, the Student Council Charm was given to Harold Graves, George Miles, Joseph Catalano, Charles McCarthy and Joseph Behan.

In February President Graves turned over the reins of government to Gerald Hogan, the newly elected President. While President Hogan was in office, a change in the membership of the Council was made. Membership in the Council now consists of four representatives from each class, three of whom must be present at each meeting. Another innovation was the formation of a standing committee, in charge of all minor committees and acting as an advisory board to the president.

CLASS RING

And when the stream
Which overflowed the soul was passed away,
A consciousness remained that it had left,
Deposited upon the silent shore
Of memory, images and precious thoughts,
That shall not die and cannot be destroyed.

—Wordsworth, The Excursion.

RING COMMITTEE

MEMORABLE is the day when a Prep student wears his ring for the first time. Like the day he enters the school and the day he graduates, it is a landmark never to be forgotten, for the ring signifies all that the stay at the Prep has been, work, honor, success.

Before the summer the jewelers had been preparing designs, and the committee was kept busy cutting and choosing. The final choice was to a great extent a design made by Father Kenna. As finally submitted to the class, the ring was worthy of its importance, a thing of beauty, symbolic of ideals and accomplishments both of the Prep and of the class.

Grennan, Braun, Doyle.

REPORTING

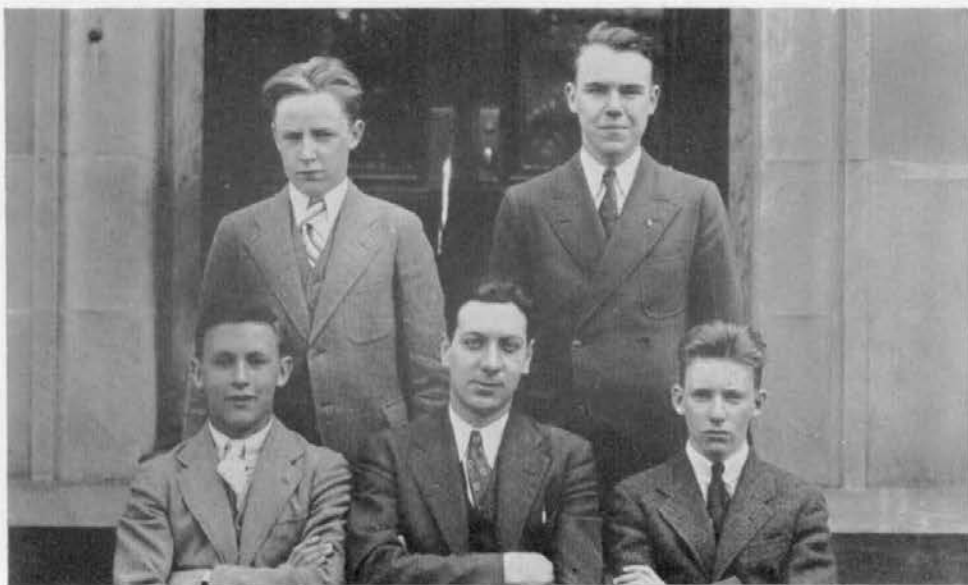

Ah, ye knights of the pen! May honor be your shield, and truth tip your lances! Be gentle to all gentle people. Be modest to women. Be tender to children. And as for the Ogre Humbug, out sword, and have at him.

Thackeray, Roundabout Papers.

PRESS CLUB

IN October of 1935, after much discussion and serious consideration on the part of Rev. Father Rector and Father Klocke, it was decided to institute a Press Release Bureau at the Prep, and Mr. Goode was appointed as director. The duties of this department consist in providing a contact for the school with the various metropolitan newspapers and keeping scholastic reporters informed of the activities at the Prep. Its institution was an immediate success. During the football season, the Prep drew as much publicity as some of the metropolitan colleges. During the year, all the home games and important activities of Prep were covered by a representative of this organization.

An especial word of praise is due to Joe Braun, the first assistant. With his help and the co-operation of the other members of the bureau, the Prep's name has been kept constantly in front of the public eye with good, sound publicity.

SKETCHING A POSTER

The great art in writing advertisements is the finding out a proper method to catch the reader's eye; without which a good thing may pass over unobserved, or be lost among commissions of bankrupt.

POSTER CLUB

INTRODUCING the men behind the posters. These Prepsters who hint at you through "Mickey Mouse," "Popeye" and other cartoonland inhabitants to "Get Ads" or attend the Prep social functions are little known or little thought of, yet the work they do has meant success to many of the Prep activities.

The purpose of bringing these artists into public attention is to render many thanks for the work they have so willingly and uncomplainingly accomplished. These men expected no reward for their work other than the success of the particular activity they advertised and the formation of their society, The Poster Club, has shown them to be intensely interested in their work and desirous of further advancement in this particular field. Again we thank them for their support and consistent aid in keeping the Prep students well-informed on our various activities.

CONFERRING THE MONOGRAM

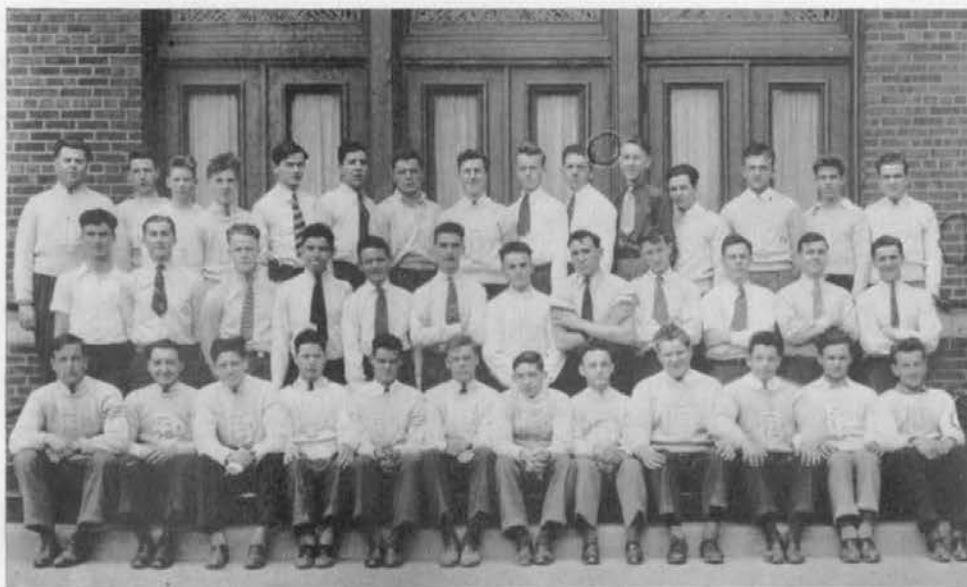

*Of old those met rewards who could excel,

MONOGRAM CLUB

AN organization whose insignia stands for accomplishment—this is the "Monogram Club." The sole requirement is the right to wear the school's athletic insignia. The club exists virtually in its members, and they in it. There is no election of officers, nor are meetings held; the club is the athlete. Within this coveted organization there are no discriminations, all sports are paramount, and three letter senior ranks along with the freshman pluggger.

Though its roster changes yearly and graduation disperses its members each to their respective positions in life, there remains always a strong bond between them, strengthened by vivid memories of happy days, discouraging defeats, and bitterly contested victories. No matter how far life may take them, these lettermen will follow Prep athletes, and Prep sports, with discerning eyes.

CHEERS

In full view of the enemy Caesar posted all the allied troops. . . . Then the Germans when they finally led their own forces out of camp, set some about on wagons who, with their cries and outstretched hands, entreated their men, marching to battle, not to give way to the Roman onslaughts.

Caesar, Gallies Wars.

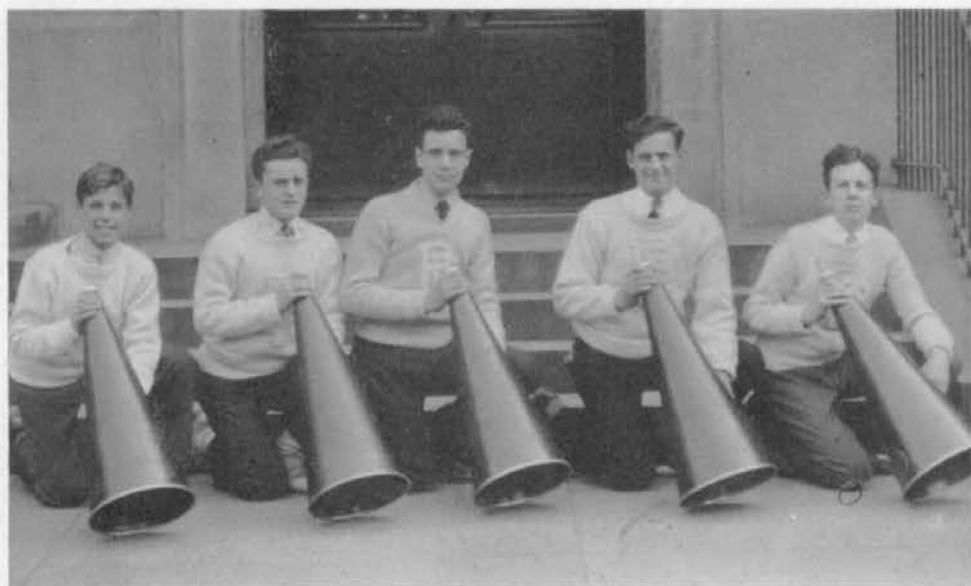

CHEER LEADERS

IN the front all the time, and in the spotlight for better or for worse—these are the cheer leaders. Much admired by the weaker sex and their less fortunate brethren, their work is none the less real and difficult. These Prepsters lead the loyal boosters in their "B, R double O," "Four Rahs, Four Rays," and other traditional cheers.

Headed by Captain Dick Howley, the white clad cohorts of clatter were a driving force in Prep victories. Dick, along with Ray Fullam, Frank McPadden, Dave Delaney, and John Albertine brought out those echoing roars which doubly increased the "grit and go" of our spirited teams.

However, they are not content. For looking ahead our five lusty-lunged young fellows hope to see the day when they will lead on to the field a mascot comparable to the Navy goat and the Army mule.

ANNAPOLIS

As the Spanish proverb says, "He who would bring home the wealth of the Indies, must carry the wealth of the Indies with him." So it is in traveling; a man must carry knowledge with him, if he would bring home knowledge.

WASHINGTON TRIP

A LONG-ESTABLISHED outing at the Prep is the annual Washington Trip. Each year a group of Prep students spend three days in our nation's Capitol City, visiting important governmental buildings and seeing just how our Nation is governed. In their itinerary they include Georgetown University, where many of the Prep Alumni are continuing their education, Annapolis, the home of our Navy, and Woodstock, where several former Prep teachers welcome their old charges and conduct them about the beautiful grounds.

While in the city the travellers reside at the Wardman Park Hotel, one of the best hotels in this historic city, and are conducted about the city by experienced guides. Travelling facilities are supplied by the B. & O. Railroad and the special excursion train "The Royal Blue" is chartered for the trip. Each year the trip is awaited with pleasure and is the source of many delightful reminiscences when it is over.

WEST POINT

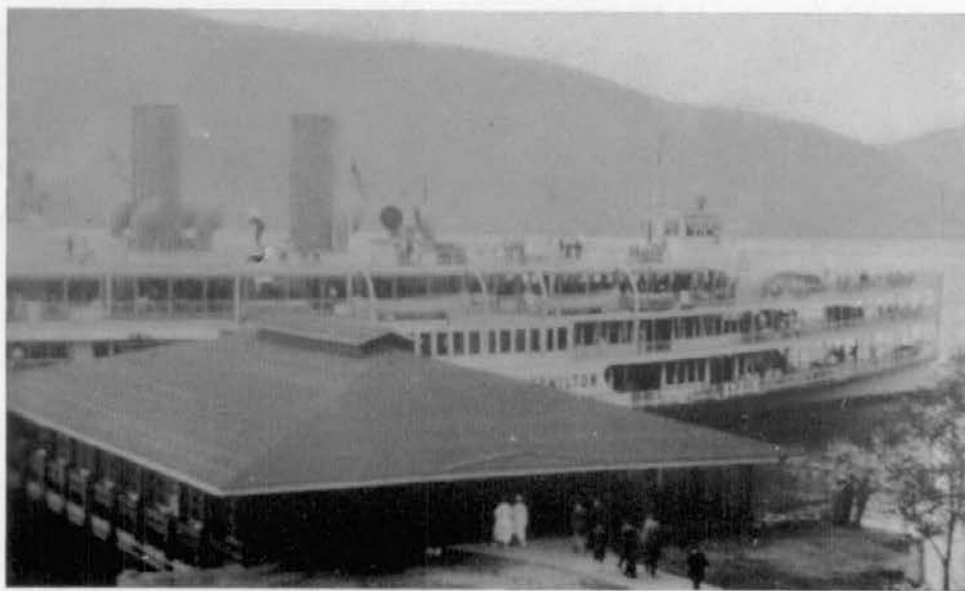

Whoever has made a voyage up the Hudson must remember the Catskill Mountains. Every change of season, every hour of the day produces change in the magical hues and shapes of these mountains. Good wives regard them as perfect barometers . . . blue and purple in fair weather, hooded in grey vapors as a prelude to storms.

Washington Irving.

ANNUAL OUTING

ON June third last spring, the students of Brooklyn Prep journeyed to Indian Point for their Annual Outing. The departure was made shortly after nine o'clock from the Forty-second Street pier on the spacious Hudson River Day Liner Alexander Hamilton. A stop was made in order to pick up some Alumni at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street. A refreshing sail up the gentle waters of the Hudson was rendered more enjoyable by the fascinating music of Bob Fallon and his Orchestra. After the landing at Indian Point a more than pleasant day was spent by the happy voyagers, pursuing the elusive laurels in the track and swimming competition, after this they endeavored to eat and drink the confectioner out of house and home.

THE EQUITES

THERE were just two horsemen Cervantes thought worthy of description, Don Quixote and Sancho Panza and only two steeds, a wooden-pin, wing horse affair and poor, jaded Rosinante. We have twenty-five cavaliers and as many mounts.

We are the Equites. So high-sounding a name immediately expels the notion that we ride in quest of some captive Dolorida. It rather summons up pictures of Imperial Rome and Imperial Rome's favored citizens. They also were called Equites! Join us some day on a slow canter by the shady woods and quiet fields around Prospect Park, under the warm sun and the gentle shadows and you will know why we consider ourselves favored in having the Riding Club of former days restored. We ride every Friday. Kenneth McGinn is our cow-punching President. Masterson, Tangney and Golden are the three Musketeers who carry on their shields the insignia of Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. McDonnell, S.J. is our Moderator.

FRIENDSHIP

Are new friends who are worthy of friendship, to be preferred to old friends? The question is unworthy of a human being, for there should be no surfeit of friendships as there is of other things; and, as in the case of wines that improve with age, the oldest friendships ought to be the most delightful.

Cicero, De Amicitia.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

THIS association founded in 1934 during the memorable twenty-fifth anniversary of the Prep has the twofold purpose of renewing old friendships and fostering the ideals and activities of the school.

For the last two years its growth has been steady. We find the association prominent in many activities. On November 26th, it held its first meeting, a rally for the Prep-St. John's game, the attendance at which illustrated the growing strength and confidence in the association. Following this, on Saint Valentine's night, the starlight roof of the Hotel Waldorf was a scene of breath-taking beauty upon the occasion of the Blue and White Alumni Dance.

Though still young the association has progressed both far and rapidly. Possibly this is due to the sincere welcome given to each and every alumnus of the Prep, as he attends his first meeting, again uniting all under the bond of good fellowship of their student days and rekindling the love of the Prep and its traditions.

FATHERS GUILD

ONE of the most active and prominent organizations of Brooklyn Prep, the Fathers Guild, has just completed another successful season. Beginning, this year on October 7th it has met regularly on the first Monday of each month. After the regular business of each meeting was concluded, an entertainment or lecture was presented, before and after which, each father had an opportunity of meeting the faculty. Here the prime purpose of the Guild was manifest, for each father could meet and discuss the problems of his son with his son's teacher. Thus the two chief guides of the boy were brought together for the advantage of the individual boy.

On the business side the two most important affairs were the annual Fathers Guild Card Party and the annual Communion and Communion Breakfast. The card party this year, under the direction of the committee headed by Mr. Charles E. J. Boyd, was a tremendous success. The Communion Mass and breakfast was not only successful but inspiring as well. Mr. Edward T. Fagan directed the arrangements for the Communion breakfast. Mass was celebrated at the Prep by Most Rev. Raymond A. Kearney, D.D., '19, Auxiliary Bishop of Brooklyn. The speakers at the breakfast, at the Columbus Club, included Rev. John L. Belford, D.D., Hon. Leo T. Hickey and Father John Klocke, S.J., who spoke for Rev. George E. Kelly, S.J., who was ill.

The lectures and entertainments at the monthly meetings were varied and interesting. A lecture by Rev. W. Coleman Nevils, S.J., was followed the next month by a musical program by a cast of prominent radio stars under the direction of Mr. Jones. Movies on Army Life, by Captain Ahrens; a lecture by Dr. Cusack; an entertainment by Mr. Neagle, a magician, a talk by Rev. Wilfred Parsons, S.J., Editor of America, movies on the telephone, by Mr. Fagan and a talk by Rev. Robert I. Gannon, S.J. formed, respectively, the entertainment program for the year.

FOOTBALL

FROM a group of candidates that included only five varsity hold-overs, Coach Shanahan molded a football machine this year that will go down in the annals of Prep football history as one of the pluckiest teams that took the field for their Alma Mater.

Starting the season against Erasmus, after only three weeks of practice, and with a line-up that included seven men who had never played in a varsity game, the team fought valiantly for over three quarters against a heavier Erasmus team. In the fourth quarter after a blocked kick had been recovered by Erasmus on the Prep goal line, the opponents put over their lone tally.

After this rather discouraging start, the Prep team next faced a fighting team from

OFF-TACKLE PLAY IN THE FORDHAM-PREP GAME

Xavier. In this game Captain John Shapiro showed his mettle, taking out the enemy backs on the offense and mowing them down on the defense. It was also in this game that Prep rooters began to notice a ferocious tackler in the Prep ranks. This was Mal McGarry, center, who proved the sensation of the season. In the second quarter, Si Titus made the only score of the game on a plunge from the four yard line. Although this game was won Jim Regan, stellar blocking back, was lost for the season due to an injury received.

Inspired by the power they had shown, the team journeyed to Dexter Park, to battle it out with a heavily favored John Adams team. Here, Tommy Miles, diminutive Prep halfback, literally "went to town." He twisted and squirmed his way up and down the field through the huge Adams' men. Again in the third quarter, after a twenty yard pass from Titus to Stone had brought the ball to the opponents four yard line, Tommy fought his way over to a touchdown. This was the lone score of the game.

The next opponent was an undefeated Fordham Prep team. Fired with an ambition to triumph, the Fordham outfit scored in the first period when Captain George Stirnweiss swept around right end. Late in the third quarter Si Titus threw a pass to Tommy Miles who was downed on Fordham's three yard line. George Miles then carried the ball over, tying the score. The try for the extra point was missed by Prep.

In the St. Paul's game Si Titus proved what a valuable player he was. Romping through the enemy he scored nineteen of the twenty points chalked up by the Prep team. In this game another defensive star began to shine. Dennis Barry, Freshman tackle, showed an aggressiveness that proved a valuable asset to the team. Largely through his efforts St. Paul's was held scoreless.

The next game was the one toward which the Prep team had been pointing all year, that with its arch-rival Poly Prep. Playing against a slightly favored but much heavier Poly team, the Prep team showed its indomitable spirit and for the first time in nine years a Prep football team beat a Poly team. This game was marked by the brilliant signal calling of George Miles, the great running of Si Titus and Tommy Miles and the great defensive play of the whole line, Shapiro, Barry, Quinn, McGarry, McNulty, Sylvester and Stone. To Frank Stone went the honor of scoring the touchdown on a pass from Titus.

On Armistice day a stalwart group representing St. Peter's came from Jersey City and proceeded to beat the Prep team. Although the Prep team was ahead in the first downs and gained ground they came out on the bottom in points and lost by a score of 9 to 7. St. Peter's scored on a pass from Jamin to Leber and on a field goal by Jamin. In the last minute of play Herb Whalen scored on a pass and Howie Keating kicked the extra point. Mal McGarry set an unofficial record in making the first fourteen tackles of the game.

Turkey day brought with it the St. John's game and defeat, at the hands of a truly great St. John's team. Sal Ferrara's remarkable broken field running was the highlight of the St. John's offense and John Henry's tackling the better part of the defense. Captain John Shapiro had to leave the game early in the first period due to a knee injury received earlier in the season. Bill La Rose scored both Prep touchdowns on passes. Dennis Barry, Mal McGarry and Si Titus shone in this game.

Looking over the record we see that this year the Prep had one of its best teams in years. Coach Shanahan did a fine job in exhibiting a team of which he could really be proud.

Our one regret is that we lose so many men by graduation. John Shapiro, Si Titus, Mal McGarry, George Miles, Jim Regan, Don Quinn, Vin Doyle, Howie Keating, Jerry Maloney and Herb Whalen.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

AN undefeated season was the boast of the Freshmen Football team of 1935. The "Orangemen" rolled up five victories over their opponents and outscored them considerably.

At Prep field, led by Tommy Fogarty and "Bucky" Harris, they opened their season against a strong Adelphi team. Adelphi, heralded as the best light weight team in the city, was completely routed 24—6. Next week saw them roll up a score of 19 points and maintain their lead against a powerful Celtic drive which ended at 18 points.

Playing a Junior-Sophomore team they were victorious, 36—12. The Rambler team proved the tartar of the Freshman season. In the mud and rain, they eked out a 6—0 decision. The weather hampered the efforts of both teams.

As a preliminary for the Prep-St. Peters game the Freshmen met the Crusaders. Before several thousand people they showed their class in a 9—0 triumph. A return game netted another victory for the Frosh. Coach McMahon and his entire squad must be praised for producing Prep's only undefeated team.

BASKETBALL

DURING the 1935-36 basketball season the Prep courtmen encountered a host of sharp shooting, well conditioned rivals and consequently they ended the season with a record of eleven games won and twelve lost.

Dec. 10—The team starts the season with a decisive victory over Trinity school of Brooklyn, by a 35—16 score. Hartz scores eleven points.

Dec. 13 to Jan. 10—The basketballers, in an early season slump, lose five successive games to Loughlin, St. John's, McBurney, St. Michaels and Cathedral.

Jan. 15—Poly Prep defeats the Blue and White cage team by a 25—17 count to avenge the loss of the yearly football contest. Jordan, high scoring captain of the invaders, is held to four points. Maloney was Prep's high scorer.

Jan. 17 to 24—The best the Prep is able to do this time is to score a victory over St. Peter's Prep of Jersey, 21—20. St. Augustines and St. Francis score over the courtmen to give the Prep but two victories against nine defeats.

Jan. 28 to 31—Breaking into the winning column the varsity quintet scores two consecutive triumphs over Trinity and Loughlin. Joe Schied leads his teammates to the victory in Loughlin games, scoring eighteen points. This game gives the Prep an even break with Loughlin for the season. The score was 34—15.

Feb. 1 to 3—Captain Gerry Maloney and "Bam" Stewart graduate at this time and Coach Shanahan is faced with the difficulty of finding competent replacements.

Feb. 7—They've been found, Herbert for Maloney and Schwitter for Stewart. Game starts at 7:30 P.M. at St. John's. The Vincentians are too strong for the Prepmen, scoring a 30—15 victory; this game marks the second victory of the Saints over Prep.

Feb. 14 to 28—Playing St. Michael's, Cathedral, Alumni, St. Augustine's and St. Francis, in that order, the Crown Heighters outscore their rivals, winning three and dropping two. St. Michael's, Alumni and Augustine.

March 2—Today we are up against a strong outfit representing Adelphi, one of the best teams in the private school league. But their splendid record does not help them in this contest, as we outplay them to win by a 18—14 score.

March 10—The K. C. tourney begins and we draw Chaminade, from Mineola, as our first round rivals. They have quite a reputation in their own sector and are favored to beat us. But the old Prep spirit rises to the fore and we come out on top, fighting our way to a 24—13 victory.

March 11—The second round begins and we are scheduled to play Our Lady of Good Counsel. They have one of the largest teams in the tournament and are they big! The Crown Heighters (that's us) play a swell game but are powerless before their great height. Hartz and the boys are in there fighting, but we are beaten, 25—17.

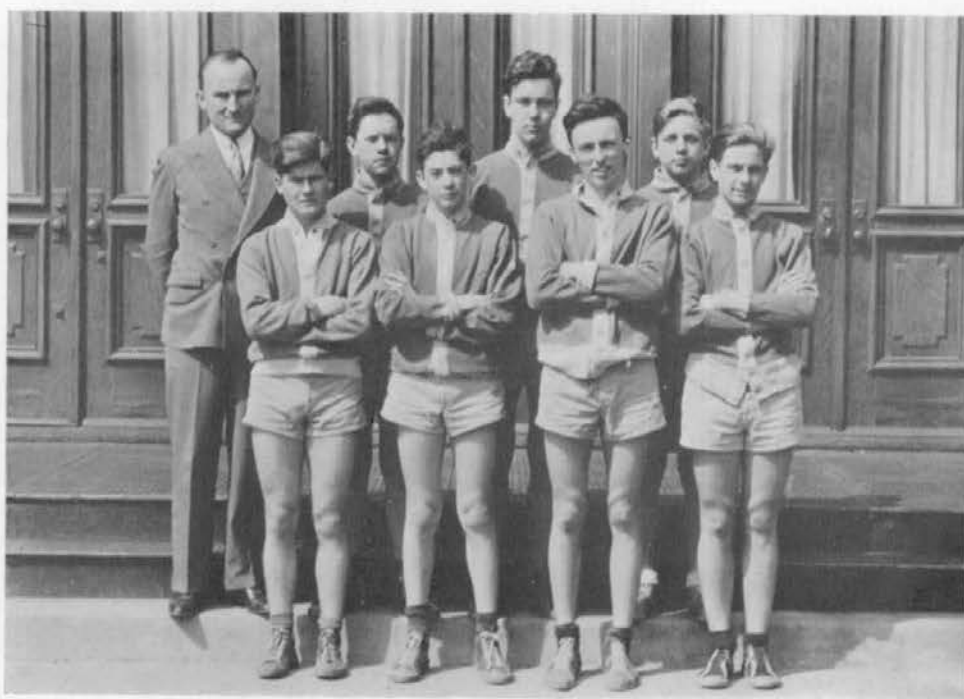

March 13—Out of one tournament into another! The Jesuit playoffs start and we journey over to St. Peter's (the sponsors of the tournament) and play Regis. The New Yorkers are no match for our hoopsters, so we win another, 24—18.

March 15—Today Xavier, the cream of New York's Catholic basketball crop, will attempt to put us out of the tourney. What a game, what a fight, it's stupendous! We put on the old rally, tie the score and pass them in the final minutes of play. The score is 25—24. Our next opponent will be St. Peter's in the finals.

March 18—Schwitter, Hartz and Redmond lead their teammates right into the thick of the fight and force the issue. Leber, the Jersey captain, is the spark-plug of the Jersey Jesuits and keeps the lads in the thick of the fight. The Prepsters lead until the last few seconds and then, swish, the game's over and we lose. The St. Peter's pivot man has just ended our hopes with a freak shot. We trailed by one point, 19—18.

March 19-20—Our chances to make the season a successful one are still pretty good as we enter the Eastern tournament in a few days.

March 20—We're in the Garden. St. Peter's of Staten Island has invited us to play them as a result of our brilliant fight in the Jersey tournament. These boys are good. They already have defeated St. Johns, Catholic champs, by a large score. This is the first time that a Prep basketball team has been on the floor of renowned Madison Square Garden. Too bad for the Staten Islanders, but this is the day that Jack Hartz "goes to town," scoring fourteen points and the Prep team scores again, this time winning by a 22—14 count.

March 24—We lost to St. Mary's 29—23 and retire from C. E. T.

CROSS-COUNTRY

SINCE the inauguration of cross-country as a major sport in the Prep in 1933, the fame of our cross-country team has spread far and wide. For, in three years competition the Prep has lost but one dual meet and has won six major championships. In the 1934 season the Prep harriers dethroned Manhattan Prep as Catholic and Private schools champions and were triumphant in three dual meets, thus completing an undefeated season.

On Saturday, October 5th, the varsity team opened their season auspiciously with a victory over a powerful Bishop Loughlin squad by a score of 26—29. Captain Murt Lawrence and George Sheehan led the team to this victory by placing first over McCartney and Tynan, Loughlin stars. Completing the Prep scoring were Jim Finley, Luke Hayden and Bob Dwyer, a newcomer to the team.

The following Saturday the Prep lengthened their string of victories by scoring the first eight men in a dual meet with Poly, making this the third consecutive year that the cross-country team has defeated Poly, a record that has not been equalled by any other Prep team. The score of the meet was Prep 15, Poly 40. Following this meet the Prep conquered Horace Mann, Brooklyn Tech and Manhattan College freshmen.

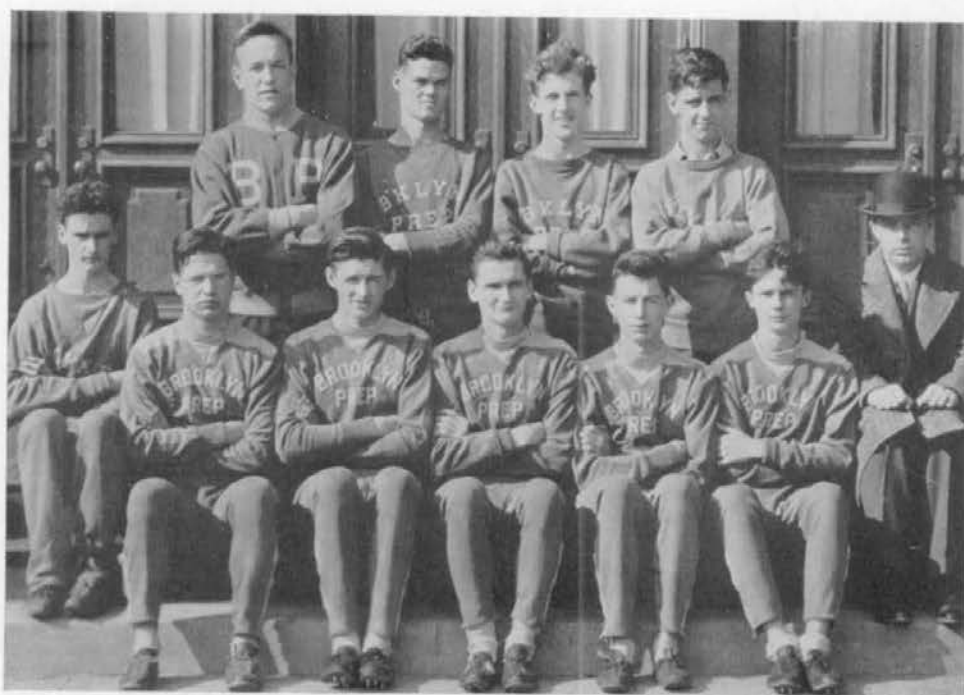

Then the Prep began to concentrate on defending the Catholic and Private Schools Championships won the year before. The first of these meets, the Catholic Schools Championships was run off on Election Day, November 5th. Entering the meet decidedly the under dog, the Prep runners showed a fighting spirit that marked them as a strong united team, when they came through with flying colors to win over a highly favored Bishop Loughlin team by a safe margin of seven points. Murt Lawrence led the team to victory and was supported by George Sheehan, Jim Finley, Jack Hartz, Bob Dineen, Bob Dwyer and Luke Hayden. Five days later the Prep again proved its superiority by winning the Private Schools title and having its first five men finishing in the first eleven runners. The Prep had a low point score of 35 points to Loughlin's 49.

Not satisfied with these triumphs, Coach Giegengack took his charges to the La Salle M. A. meet and there the Prep team proved itself to be the best in the city, downing Curtis High School who had won the Public Schools title of New York City. This meet gave the Prep the official Long Island Championship title as well as the unofficial city championship.

A fitting close was brought to the season when the squad competed in the National Catholic Schools Meet held in Newark and emerged with their fourth championship for the season. Captain Murt Lawrence broke the course record by a second, while the Prep team scored a low point total of 26 points, one of the best performances ever recorded in a championship meet.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

INDOOR TRACK SQUAD

First Row—Ingham, Hayden, Watson, Fitzgerald, Sheehan, Callery, Giegengack (Coach).
Second Row—Titus, Lawrence, Finley, Martini.

INDOOR TRACK

AFTER a very successful cross-country season, the track team turned its efforts toward the indoor meets. The cross-country squad formed the framework of the team. However, the success which that squad gained was not equalled by the indoor team. A team which had quality but not quantity, could hardly cope in point scores with squads of fifty or more.

The season opened with the relay team receiving a fourth place in the Brooklyn K. of C. meet. Then the boys competed in the Manual meet getting fourth place. Murt Lawrence, in a thrilling finish with Kempisty of Manual, took second place in the mile. Sheehan and Callery scored in their sections of the novice half.

Next came the Stuyvesant Meet in which the Prep team could garner no more than eight points. Lawrence finished third in the mile. Callery and Martini took third and fifth respectively in their division of the novice half. Jimmy FitzGerald was fifth in another division of the half.

Between this meet and the Catholic Championship, the mile relay composed of Watson, FitzGerald, Sheehan and O'Reilly competed in Madison Square Garden. Participating in the same heat with the ultimate first and second place winner they failed to qualify though they finished in the good time of 3:34.

In the "Catholics" the Blue and White waded in fourth position. The Prep scored five of their points in the mile. Murt finished second, while Bob Dwyer took fifth. Other point-scorers were Si Titus, Joe Ingham, George Sheehan and the mile relay.

In the remaining meets the Prep did moderately well. While the mile relay was taking second place in the N. Y. A. C., the rest of the squad journeyed to Newark, to the Seton Hall meet, and took three medals. Murt captured second in the senior mile. Bob Dwyer and Jimmy Finley ran one-two in the novice mile. However, the sprint relay, a speedy aggregation, was forced to retire when the leadoff man pulled a muscle.

The National Interscholastics rounded out the indoor season. Murt Lawrence ran third to Vinnie Braun of St. Benedict's, who was clocked in the phenomenal time of 4:25.6. The mile relay after leading for most of the race was forced into second place by this same Braun who also anchored the St. Benedict's relay. The sprint relay of Reilly, Timmes, White and Callery took sixth in the finals.

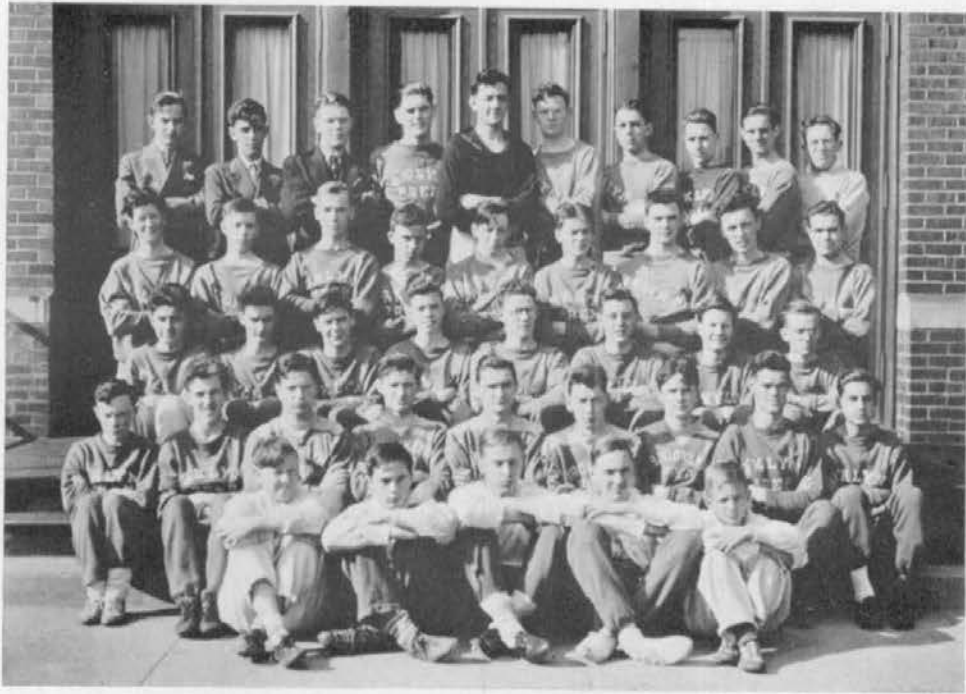

This completed the season for the whole squad except the relay team. In their final race they ran third in the Garden at the New York K. of C. games.

Highlights of the season—Manual meet—Murt's race in the mile—Tom Watson's leg on the 1200 yard relay—Stuyvesant meet—Jack O'Reilly's 660 on the medley—George Sheehan's half in the same race. Bob Dwyer's "kick" in the mile at the Seton Hall Meet. Dick Hayden's leadoff leg and Jimmy FitzGerald's second leg on the mile relay at the N. Y. A. C. meet.

OUTDOOR TRACK

WORK on the cinders has already begun. Coach Giegengack has been putting his charges through their paces in preparation for the outdoor meets. This year by reason of the splendid showing during the cross-country and indoor seasons, Mr. Giegengack has high hopes for a more than successful season.

The team has in its number men whose excellent times are indicative of success at the Penn Relay Carnival and other meets. Particularly they are pointing for this Relay Carnival, one of the foremost track events of the year.

This season the novices on the squad have showed unusual promise and great things are expected of them, especially in the newly instituted Catholic Outdoor Novice Meet.

Besides the meets already mentioned the schedule this year includes dual meets with Poly and Loughlin, Catholic and Private Championships, the N. Y. U. Interscholastics and the La Salle invitation.

SWIMMING

THOUGH many of the varsity stars of last year's team were graduated, the outlook for the '35-'36 season was promising. When, in early November, the first practice session was called, six veterans, Captain Joe Lawler, backstroke and distance swimmer; Dan Carroll and Jim Coyle, sprint men; Marty Grennan, backstroker, and the diving combination of Bob Bannin and Frank Deegan, reported to Coach William Mullen. With this sextet as a nucleus Coach Mullen turned out one of the finest swimming teams ever to represent Brooklyn Prep in the metropolitan tanks.

The Blue and White natators were off to a favorable start in the Catholic High School swimming league, when they defeated a strong St. Augustine's aggregation, 43—32. Following this victory the swimmers advanced in the league standing by completely routing St. Michaels 53—21. The following Sunday they swept through the St. John's Prep team, defeating them 58—17, capturing every one of the eight first places and missing a perfect score by a margin of four points. By virtue of these sterling victories the Prep swimmers entered the finals with St. Francis Prep, defending champions. Here Prep tasted defeat at the hands of the Franciscans, losing 49—26.

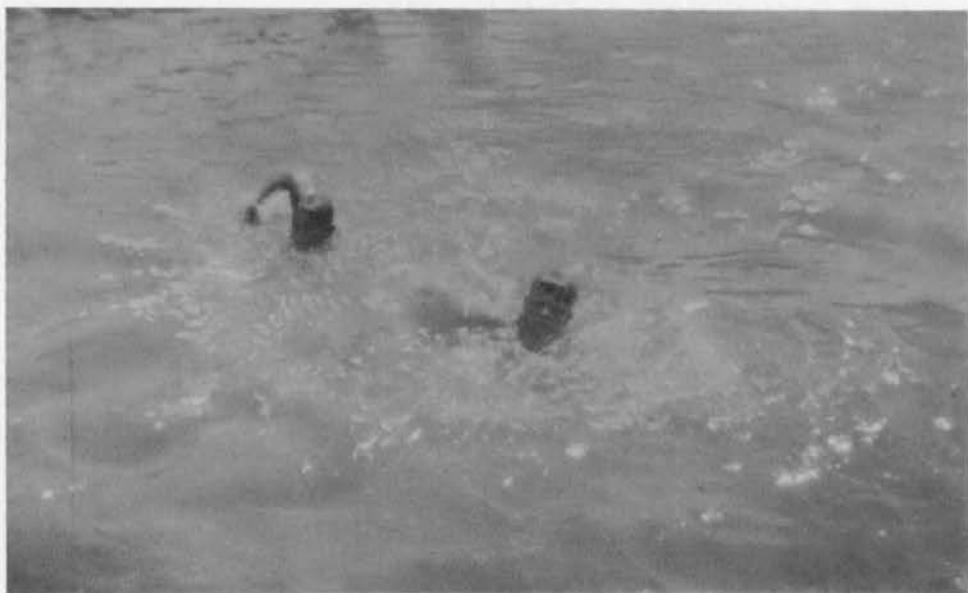

While in training for the Catholic Individual Championship Meet, the Prepsters engaged Dwight School of Manhattan, winning easily, 44—22.

Encouraged by this victory, a strong Brooklyn Prep contingent evened a score with the St. Francis Prep swimmers, winning the Individual Championship Crown by a 32—30 score. In annexing the title, three Prep swimmers were crowned champions in their respective events, Captain Joe Lawler, in the 40 yard backstroke; Jim Coyle, in the 40 yard freestyle, and Bob Bannin in the fancy dive. Topping these splendid performances was the smashing victory, 160 yard relay quartet, of Dan Carroll, William Harvey, Joe Lawler and Jim Coyle.

The Prep's next achievement in the scholastic swimming world was to place six men on the All-Catholic Schools Swimming Teams, members who were honored with first team ranking, were: William Harvey, 40 yard backstroke, Bob Bannin, fancy dive, and Jim Coyle, 100 yard freestyle.

The Catholic School League meets having been brought to a close, the Blue and White natators moved into the Private School field. Their first Private School rival was Marquand School. Swimming in the Central "Y" pool, the Marquand men succeeded in eking out a 34—32 victory. Somewhat discouraged after losing to Marquand, the Crown Heights tankmen then encountered the Poly Prep swimmers in Poly's 75 foot home pool. Here again the Crown Heights team was defeated by a close score, 36—30, the 160 yard relay which Poly won being the deciding event.

A PRACTICE HOUR

THE PRIVATE SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Regaining their early season form, the Prep natators now swept through the remainder of their Private School schedule, defeating McBurney School of Manhattan, 45—22; Fieldston, 43—24; Loughlin High School, 34—29; Fordham Prep, 38—28, and Regis High of Manhattan, 47—19.

Thus the Brooklyn Prep swimming team ended their dual meet series with a record of nine victories and three defeats.

There now remained on the schedule three Individual Championship meets, the Catholic High School National Inter-Scholastic meet, the Private School Championships and the Metropolitan Catholic School Championships held at Villanova.

In the Catholic High School Nationals, the Prep represented by a five man squad, Captain Lawler, Bill Harvey, Jim Coyle and Bob Bannin, placed third in the team scoring. Points were garnered by Joe Lawler and Harvey in the backstroke, Coyle in the freestyle, Bannin in the dive and the 200 yard relay quartet of Carroll, Lawler, Harvey and Coyle.

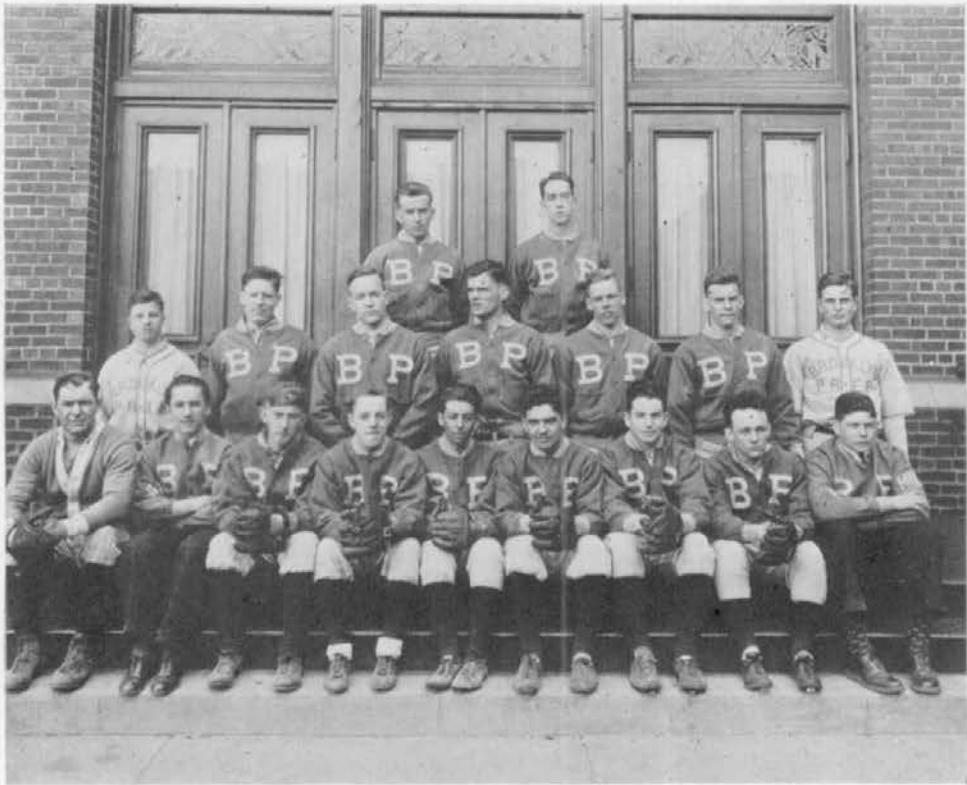

In the Private School Championships held at Columbia University, the Blue and White mermen placed fifth with twelve points. These points were accounted for by Bob Bannin, sensational Prep diver who won the fancy dive; Captain Joe Lawlor, who placed third in the backstroke; Jim Coyle, who took third place in the 50 yard sprint, and Paul Fitzmaurice, who placed a brilliant second in the 100 yard breaststroke.

At the New York A. C. on March 20th, the Prep swimmers brought the '35-'36 season to a close by placing third in the team standing. The outstanding performances were accredited to Captain Lawler, who scored a second in both the 50 yard backstroke and the 200 yard freestyle, and to Bob Bannin who added the Metropolitan Diving title to his long list of victories.

BASEBALL

THE Brooklyn Prep varsity baseball team has started the 1936 baseball season with a strong squad. Such veterans as Bill Schwitter, Bill Deegan, Tom Miles, John Smith, Mal McGarry, Frank Stone, Jim Senese and Jack Hartz have given Coach Shanahan a wealth of material and great things are expected from the above mentioned octet. As things shape up the Prep squad will put up a great fight for the '36 Catholic League crown, and give such squads as St. Johns and St. Francis a stiff fight for the league laurels.

Let's take a look at last year's records and bring back some of the outstanding plays of the '35 season. That smooth playing, efficient catcher Bill Schwitter and his remarkable triple play in the Adelphi contest was one of the highlights of that year. John Smith still swings his powerful bludgeon. He was the batting power last year and again he is expected to be one of the offensive powers of the squad. Little Tom Miles with his sparkling play around the "hot corner" was another star of the '35 season who fits into the plans of Coach Shanahan. Jim Senese started this season with a broken nose, the result of infield practice, but is coming along at a fast clip.

One of the greatest obstacles that confronted the Prep nine this season was the ruling to the effect that the field could not be used for batting practice. But this did not seem to have an evil effect on the batting averages of the team, as the batting averages show. The infield is the most powerful section of the club in the batting department. With Bill Deegan at 1st, Si Titus at 2nd, Frank Stone or Frank Valentino at short stop, Tom Miles at 3rd and Bill Schwitter at the plate a heavy hitting attack is expected to develop.

PREP GIVES LEAD TO ST. JOHN'S IN CLOSE DECISION GAME FOR C. B. C.

The outfield has plenty of power in this part of the game. With John Smith as the backbone of the hitters and steady batters such as Jim Senese doing their share the team should have many a batting spree on those lazy spring afternoons. But as it takes more than ordinary hitting to win a ball game the Blue and White team offers a well rounded group of fielders. The way in which Bill Deegan plays around the initial sack is a sight to gladden the heart of any high school coach. Frank Stone is one of the best short stops to wear a Prep uniform in the last few years, and his steady fielding game exerts a strong influence on the playing of his teammates.

When it comes to the pitching staff the varsity hurlers such as Jack Hartz and Ray Smith are sure bets to keep the rest of the team in the thick of the league race. These men lack experience but are smart ballplayers and should easily learn the tricks of the game. Hartz has a nice fast ball and is rapidly learning how to gain better control over his speed. That familiar figure of John Smith looms up again when we mention the pitchers. John has one of the fastest balls in the league and with a little control he should develop into one of the top ranking pitchers.

Well that about finishes the preview of the 1936 baseball squad and leaves us with fond hopes of victory. Here's hoping that we see another Catholic Baseball championship come back to the Prep on the wings of a long winning streak.

HOCKEY

THE 1936 hockey season was rather a successful one for the Brooklyn Prep varsity squad for they defeated the La Salle M. A. ice squad, a feat that no other team had been able to do in the last few years. The first line, composed of Bill Deegan, Chub Deegan and John Smith, was one of the strongest scoring units in the city, and the goalies, Jack Fitzpatrick and Tommy Miles, were at their best in every contest. With the formation of the Metropolitan Interscholastic Hockey League the Prep team played through the entire season, losing but two games. The schedule included Jamaica, La Salle, Poly Prep, Brooklyn Tech, Manual and New Utrecht.

Outside games were played with Poly Prep, La Salle, Alumni and the West Point intra-mural champions. In these games the Prep lost to Poly, La Salle and the cadets, but defeated the alumni. The La Salle game was played at the Madison Square Garden. La Salle took this game by a 7—1 score. John Smith, captain and high scorer, tallied for the Prep on a solo dash in the first period. The Prepmen were not able to "click" on the "big ice" and consequently were swamped by Hank McMullen and his teammates.

The Metropolitan League season opened on February 1, and our first opponents were the Jamaica pucksters. This was the opening game of the season and both teams were not in top form and thus the game ended in a tie at 1—1. Our second opponents were the La Salle hockeymen who were the top favorites to take the league championship. They were undefeated in 27 encounters and their last defeat happened in 1932. Incidentally we were the last team to take a game from them in that year. McMullen, their hard shooting captain, was held in check by the Prep defensemen, Herb Whalen, Bill Sullivan and Ned McLoughlin, who were at their best. John Smith scored three times to win the game and accomplish the most stunning upset of the entire season in the league giving Prep a 3—2 victory.

February 21 the ice team met Poly Prep and played a tie game, the final tally staying at 1—1. Conquering Brooklyn Tech on February 21 by a 2—1 score the Crown Heighters were in a splendid position to capture the league title, but an unexpected setback at the hands of the Manual squad gave the championship hopes of the Blue and White a terrible jolt. The last game of the Metropolitan season was played against New Utrecht on March 13th and the Prep team was again defeated by a 3—1 score. La Salle captured the laurels and won the first Metropolitan championship.

FACE-OFF IN LA SALLE GAME

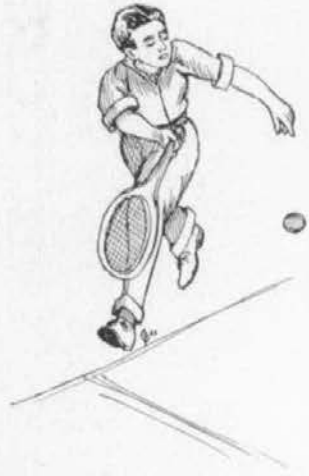

PREP DEFEATS CATHEDRAL

The net was tended throughout the season by Jack Fitzpatrick and the Miles brothers, Tommy and George. Tommy turned in a performance equal to that of Doc Linehan and has great possibilities of becoming the next all-scholastic goalie. The second team, consisting of Bill Buell, Tom Humphries, Joe Larkin and Eb Whalen, was the supporter of the first line.

The outlook for next year is exceptionally bright because the team loses but one man by graduation. Brooklyn Prep's J. V. has produced some fine material for the next varsity squad. Dick Everroad, Jim Fennelly, Martin Baxter, Ed O'Connell, Dick Scannell, Bill Larkin, John Callahan, Dick Howley and Joe Fellingham were the backbone of the junior Prepsters.

The players wish to extend their thanks to Mr. Wally Murray, the team coach, and Mr. Perry S. J. Moderator of the squad, for their untiring efforts to give the Brooklyn Prep a successful hockey season.

TENNIS

REGARDLESS of how good the 1936 tennis team is, it will have a difficult task to equal the record made by last year's team. The 1935 team went through a season against ten formidable opponents among whom were included Poly Prep, St. Paul's, McBurney, King School of Stamford, Kew Forest, St. Michael's, James Madison and Fordham Prep, suffering only two losses. Of that 1935 team only three men are left. With Joe Bier and Hugh Duffy, the co-captains, and Peter Viscardi, Paul Kearney and Bill O'Connor all lost by graduation, Bob Dwyer, Jack Redmond and Joe Braun will form the nucleus of the 1936 team. The squad will be rounded out by Bob Bannin and Vinnie Carberry.

Bob Dwyer is the captain and Number One man of the present team. Bob has been playing varsity tennis since his Freshman year and has won the school championship twice. Under the able tutelage of Coach Goode he has become a very dependable player and should win a majority of his matches.

Jack Redmond, the Number Two man, has the ideal build for a tennis player. Tall and rangy, he has a smashing service and covers the court with remarkable ease. Paired with Bob Dwyer he completes what may prove an almost invincible double team.

The three other members of the Squad, Joe Braun, Bob Bannin and Vince Carberry play games of almost equal strength. With any one of these men playing in third position the Prep should manage to come out on top of most of its opponents.

The Prep opens its schedule this year with Birch Wathen and continues with Chaminade, La Salle, McBurney, St. Paul's, Poly, St. Michaels, Fordham Prep, All Hallows and James Madison. With a little good fortune we should have a moderately successful season.

START: B.P.—FINISH: DAVIS CUP. WHO WILL DO IT?

PREP'S PING PONG ROOM

PING PONG

EVER since the Ping Pong room was opened a year ago interest in the game has become almost universal here at Prep. Although a school indoor tennis team was formed last year, the sport this year was confined to intra-mural matches.

In the course of the year two major tournaments were held. The individual championships in October led to the inter-class matches in February. John Westbrook of the February graduating class won the individual indoor tennis championship. Advancing through the tournament, he experienced little difficulty until he met John Courtney in the semi-finals and John Zoller in the finals. In the Junior Division, honors went to Robert Murphy of the Freshman class. The inter-class tournament was won with little difficulty by 3B1 which, after defeating all the classes in Senior division, easily triumphed over the winner of the first and second year classes.

Though only two years old at the Prep, Ping Pong has attracted more players than any other sport. We look forward to a similar response next year.

APPRECIATIONS

WE, the staff of the 1936 "Blue Book," wish to extend our sincere appreciation to all those who have cooperated in any way to make this, the latest edition of the "Blue Book," successful. But most of all we are indebted to:

Reverend John H. Klocke, S.J., for his ever available and willing help in every phase of the work;

Mr. Edward W. McCawley, S.J., our Moderator, for his encouraging counsel and his discerning guidance of our own hands;

Mr. James L. McDonnell, S.J., for his able direction of business affairs;

The members of the faculty for their gracious assistance rendered in many ways;

Mr. Robert W. Kelly, our printer, for his painstaking labor over this book;

The Chemical Photo Engraving Company, for their anxiety to please, and their representative, Mr. John J. Keneally, for his courteous care and advice;

The Champlain Studios, for their invaluable service, and Miss Joan Mosler of the firm for her careful compliance with our desires;

The Advertisers in the "Blue Book" for their loyalty and good will, and in addition, to those who worked to secure advertisements.

SCHOLARSHIPS

To found a scholarship in perpetuity, the sum of $3,000.00 is required. The founder of this scholarship has the right in perpetuity to keep one boy at the School. Students holding scholarships are required to maintain an average of at least 75 per cent. Failure to do so for two consecutive months means forfeiture of scholarship.

These scholarships entitle the holder to a full four years' course.

The donor of a scholarship has the right to appoint the students.

Donors of scholarships become Benefactors of the Society of Jesus and are remembered in Masses and prayers of Jesuits the world over for all time.
