Dedication

*To our Mothers and Fathers, who have unceasingly inculcated in our hearts the highest ideals of Catholic
Manhood and who, through their innumerable sacrifices, constant devotion and ardent care have made possible our Catholic education during the past four years, this book is affectionately and respectfully dedicated.*

Foreword.....

Our aim in this volume of the Blue Book has been to present a complete history of our activity for the year. From point of lay-out, copy and art, we have tried to make this a suitable souvenir of our stay at Prep. Years hence, this book in hand, may "Time, his flight reversed, restore the hours," the most happy hours spent amid the scenes pictured herein.

THE PREP

where four years ago we entered, frightened little boys expectation on our faces, ready for anything awed at first, by the dignity of the Headmaster's office the spacious library and a vow to make use of it our first happy encounter with seniors, bearded fellows, and awfully big settling down into a routine of school and play and work our utter fear the day Mister juggled us exams, worry, passing, a new year work, school, exams, worry, new years. . . . The chapel, relief from worry, solace from fear the tennis courts with basketballs intermingled the athletic teams, Football and the St. John's games the consistent joy of free Friday afternoons New Years New Faces We advance until now we depart Big Boys, running, walking, always looking back

" . . . and there fell out the map of an island, with latitude and longitude, soundings, names of hills, and bays and inlets, and every particular that would be needed to bring a ship to a safe anchorage upon its shores. It was about nine miles long and five across, shaped, you might say, like a fat dragon standing up, and had two fine landlocked harbors, and a hill in the centre part marked "The Spy-glass." There were several additions of a later date; but, above all, three crosses of red ink — two on the north part of the island, one in the southwest, and, beside this last, in the same red ink, and in a small, neat hand, very different from the captain's tottery characters, these words:—"Bulk of treasure here."

PREP FROM ACROSS CARROLL STREET

" . . . the captain gradually brightened up at his own music, and at last flapped his hand upon the table before him in a way we all knew to mean—silence. The voices stopped at once, all but Dr. Livesey's; he went on as before, speaking clear and kind, and drawing briskly at his pipe between every word or two. The captain glared at him for a while, flapped his hand again, glared still harder, and at last broke out with a villainous low oath: "Silence, there between decks!"

"Were you addressing me, sir?" says the doctor; and when the ruffian had told him, with another oath, that this was so, "I have only one thing to say to you, sir," replies the doctor, "that if you keep on drinking rum, the world will soon be quit of a very dirty scoundrel!"

The old fellow's fury was awful."

FOURTH YEAR

37 BLUE BOOK

4-B-1

In the course of four pleasant years, the characters of 4-B-1 classmates have become gradually classified and their activities centered. The class leader at all times and popular president of the Student Council was Luke Hayden.

In the field of Ping-Pong were Boyd, Reynolds and Savage. Ice Hockey has its mad-cap trio, Everroad, Buell and Humphries under their steadfast Captain Smith. Hitting the football line are Milton, Wiseman, Shea and Rasmussen. At bat for Baseball the Prep has its keen quartet, comprising Peck, Smith, Stone and Young. Miscellaneous activities included Caufield as the class busman whose car was always overloaded at 2:35. Class Thespian was Jerry Dalton; in Physics, the taciturn thinker, Devany.

For class basketball the ever available Charles Furer. Representing the class in the Student Council was Garcia. Harry Kane was the outstanding class humorist. Bob King was the ever popular Sports Manager. For class football we have the ever smiling Lund. The boxing authority is Lynch. The fore-sighted engineer is Joe McMullen, while the unimpeachable Mathematician is Bill Martens.

BLUE WOOD

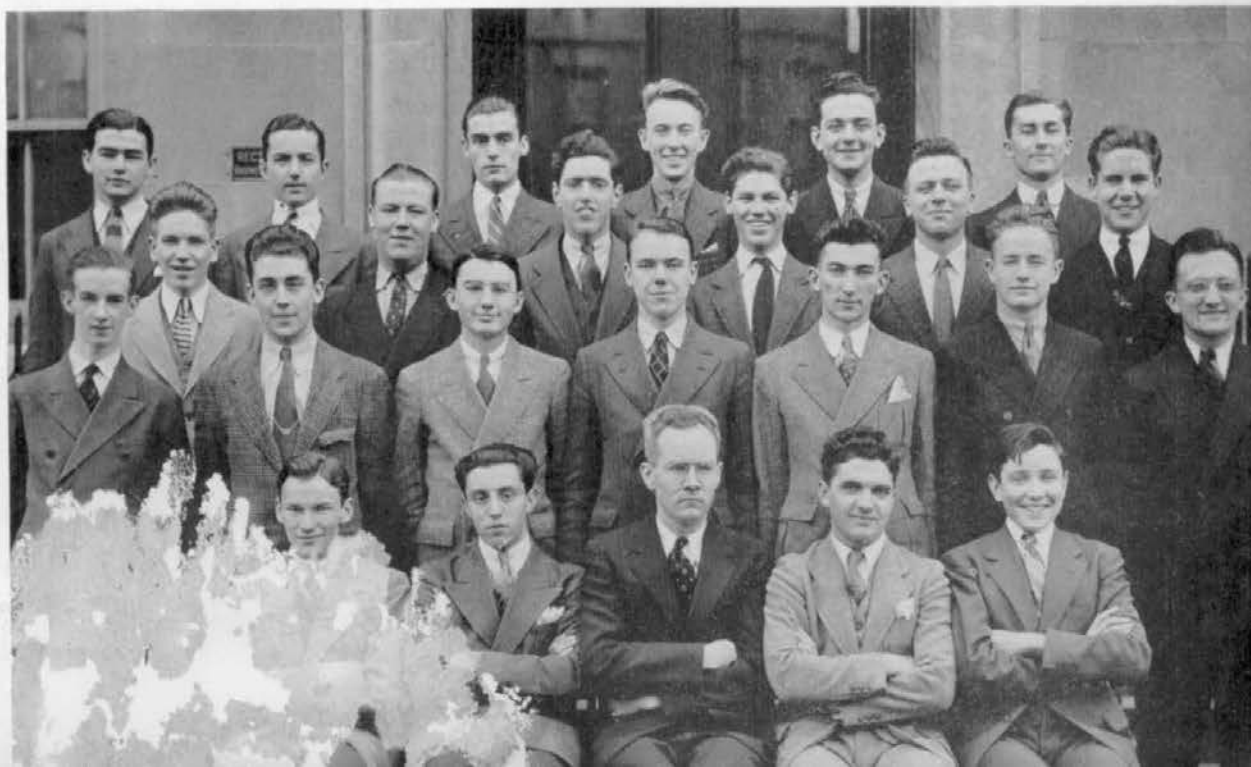

4-B-2

Precedent is smashed as an all star 4-B-2 class combined scholastic ability and ambition with athletic achievement. Twenty-seven of Prep's finest have recently completed their four year record of same. On that record, Kircher, Brueckner, Russo and Fagan have ranked consistently among the honor students.

Puckchasers Deegan and McLaughlin begin the list of outstanding athletes. With them we find basketballers Scheid and Kircher and merman, Harvey. Randolph star of the diamond, and grid star Coakley complete our list of stellar athletes.

Proving the versatility of the class we have artist Pingerra and humorist Higgins aided in no small way by flying Nick Cavagnaro, and saxophonist John Hickey. Otto boasts of the five famous Prep patrons, Campion, Carroll, big Bill Kinane, jovial Ed O'Connell and sartorially fit McCafferty. Four other contributors to the record and worth of the class are organizer Birmingham, physicist Flynn, football manager Callahan and genial Bill McSherry. With the name of George Appel, the genius of the class we make our final appearance in the book of Brooklyn Prep.

A past master at saying the right thing at the right time, consequently a great favourite among the "better-half" of humanity. Quiet, self-possessed, essentially a scholar, he possesses that enviable trait, scientific ambition. A sparkling good humour, unselfish generosity, faithful loyalty, keenness of perception, all go to the making of a man who cannot fail to succeed. Auf Wiedersehen, George.

Analyzing Bill's character we have found, during our association with him, a compound of humour, sincerity, manliness, a strong sense of leadership—all of which make him one of the finest personalities of '37. He's a—Oh, well, let's just cut short these ramblings and nominate Bill Birmingham as our choice for the model "Prep" man. It's a conclusion as inevitable as your success, Bill; good luck to you.

Likeable, diligent and studious, he has that in his appearance and bearing which inspires confidence. For Charlie no task was too arduous. His diligence was rewarded for he was outstanding in studies. Small of stature he did not participate in the major sports, but applied himself to table tennis and won a coveted place on the school team. His devotion for the Sodality won him the respect and praise of teachers and students.

267 HIGHLAND BOULEVARD
BROOKLYN

Silver Medal, 2, 3; Football, 4; Sodality, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Student Council, 3; Guard of Honor, 4.

We are grateful to the unknown influence through which our class came to know Larry and appreciate his quiet, unassuming but very progressive ways. Larry embodied all the qualities which have been characteristic of Prep men, namely, a seriousness of mind and depth of thought which aspired to the highest ideals, and to which has been added an active interest in Prep life—athletic and otherwise.

BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; French Club, 3, 4; Hockey, 3; Football Manager, 4; Guard of Honor, 3, 4; Student Council, 4; Basketball Manager, 4; Monogram Club.

John is a serious lad, who goes about his work with a determined effort, always mindful of the purpose for which he is serving. As varsity manager for both the football and basketball squads, John was esteemed by all, with whom he came in contact. Possessing that enviable spirit which keeps the extra-curricular activities in existence, John certainly endeared himself to the Prep and her sons.

WILLIAM ORSON BUELL

BROOKLYN

Hockey, 3, 4; Orchestra, 1, 2, 4; K.B.S.
Besides being a saxophonist in the orchestra and holding down a Varsity position on the hockey team, Bill possesses a quiet but effective humor combined with an affable manner. He has the enviable quality of being able to give and take in the never-ending banterings which are a part of high-school life and never has he been known to allow any elements other than good-natured jollity and frank seriousness to creep into his dealings with his fellows.

WILLIAM FRANCIS CAMPION

1953 82nd STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Class President, 2; Debating, 1, 2; Student Council, 1; French Club, 4.

The Prep will long remember Bill as a quiet, nonchalant student who possessed a marked finesse in studies. He was a gentleman with a sense of humor. In the classroom we knew Bill as a ready and willing pupil whose studies were but stepping stones to a potentially bright future. The Prep regretfully bids "Good-bye" to a man who found no undertaking too large or too small for his capabilities.

WILLIAM JOSEPH CARROLL

1192 PARK PLACE
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1; K.B.S.; Chess Club, 1, 2; Student Council, 1, 2; Spanish Club, 3, 4.

Here is the living proof that one does not have to be an athletic hero or a classroom genius to be popular. Bill has won the friendship and esteem of all. His ready wit and his charming nonchalance have helped to enliven many a dull session. Everyone liked him and rightly so because he was loyal to Prep, generous to his friends, and above all, a Catholic gentleman.

JOSEPH FRANCIS CAUFIELD

161 97th STREET
BROOKLYN

K. B. S.; German Club, 3, 4; Track, 3; Guard of Honor, 3, 4; Sodality, 3, 4.

Today Joe has crossed the threshold for the last time, yet he remains the same unsophisticated lad who entered the Prep, only four short years ago. Joe's high school career has been one filled not merely with material success but with pleasant association as well. His personal good will, zealous loyalty, and persevering endeavor will ever be remembered by his associates of the last four years.

NICHOLAS JOSEPH CAVAGNARO

76 BAY RIDGE PARKWAY
BROOKLYN

Rifle Team, 1, 2; Spanish Club; Track, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Little did his classmates suspect the recklessness to be found beneath his easy-going manner; but when daring tales were told of his trips to Arizona, Canada, California and Mexico, the "Professor" became the talk of the class. It was then that his classmates realized that Nick had some of the romantic about him besides being a "Prince of a fellow." "Professor," we salute you and wish you all the happiness that may lie in store for you.

JOHN VINCENT COAKLEY

Throughout his four years at the Prep Jack has displayed a charming personality. His buoyancy, vivacity, and subtle humor have always lightened a monotonous day. His athletic ability has aroused the admiration of everyone who has seen him in action. He has implanted in our minds an impression which time will never fully efface. We are confident that his remarkable ability and personality will win him many battles in life.

BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality, 1, 2, 3, 4; Prep Players, 1, 2, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2; French Club, 4.

Jerry gives his best to any task he undertakes, consequently the inevitable result is success. With the Prep Players his poise, diction and above all his personality helped in naming Jerry one of the foremost actors at the Prep. His intellectual abilities were limitless and we wish him the best of success not only in his college years but also in all his future life.

WILLIAM FRANK DEEGAN

975 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK CITY

Debating, 2; Spanish Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 3, 4; Baseball, 3; Hockey, 1, 2, 3; Captain, 4.

One has but to witness Bill's capers on the ice as he chases the scoring puck, to realize why our hockey team won the championship this year. Besides, Bill is always there with that affable smile, whether he be swinging lustily at a third strike or chancing a hurried "Passive Periphrastic, Mister." We're counting on you, Bill! With that characteristic pluck and straight shooting, your goal is certain.

JOHN JEROME DEVANY, JR.

3322 CLARENDON ROAD
BROOKLYN

German Club.

We find it both easy and difficult to eulogize, easy because of his multitude of good qualities; hard because he is so retiring with them. He forgives and forgets quickly and is rarely seen without that sunny smile. A finer friend to all cannot be found. Auf Wiedersehen, John, may your life be long and prosperous.

RICHARD RAY EVERROAD

2609 AVENUE S
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Hockey, 4.

Dick has often been called "The Walking Dictionary" and certainly not without good cause. His knowledge in English seemed without end and his consistent use of the apt word at the proper moment often solved the most delicate matters, demanding tactful diplomacy. His ability in this subject is leading him to a course in Journalism, in which field we wish him every success.

EDWARD THOMAS FAGAN

974 EAST 26th STREET
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2, 3; Glee Club, 1, 2; Student Council, 2, 3; Prep Players, 1, 2, 3, 4; Class President, 2; K.B.S.; Blue Jug, 4; French Club, 3.

Ed distinguished himself as a gentleman, a scholar, and an actor. As a gentleman he was marked with a quiet reserve and a sincere loyalty. As a scholar he reached the heights by work joined with natural ability. As an actor, his portrayal of Billy Bones will long remain a landmark in dramatics at Prep. In parting, the best of success, Ed.

EDWARD JOHN FLYNN

143 FENIMORE STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality, 3, 4; Press Club, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2.

Ed was always the example of a true Prepper. This was true both socially and in the more serious vein of daily labor. He took a deep interest in his studies and was welcomed everywhere because of his overwhelming good naturedness and congeniality. Years hence, when many memories have faded, Ed will shine forth a sparkling gem, in the minds of his numerous friends.

CHARLES WILLIAM FURER

195 HASTINGS STREET
MANHATTAN

K.B.S.; Student Council, 2; Debating, 2; Spanish Club, 3.

Charlie's exceptionally good humored disposition coupled with a never-ending capricious wit engendered as scintillating a humorist as the Prep has ever seen. Besides, his sincerity of purpose and loyal devotion to friendship managed a true balance of character esteemed by all his fellow students. The Pharmaceutical field is calling Charlie and with him go the best wishes of us all.

WILLIAM PAUL HARVEY
653 FLATBUSH AVENUE
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Guard of Honor, 4; Glee Club, 1; Swimming, 2, 3; Co-Captain, 4; Monogram Club.

Bill's infectious grin and ready wit were keys of admission to any group. His sense of loyalty and keen spirit of competition were invaluable in his career as a Prep athlete. He was co-captain of the Varsity team, and in the role of nator he attained his greatest fame. Long after we have left these haus of learning we will remember his merry disposition and untalling ability to carry Prep on to victory.

MARIO PATRICK GARCIA

62 RUGBY ROAD
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Spanish Club, 3, 4; German Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 2, 3, 4; Blue Book, 4.

Mario's determination, strong will and splendid intellect bore rich fruit in his four years at Prep. Representing his class in the student council, his stentorian voice and ready witticisms commanded the attention of all. He is a friend, whose friendship extends beyond the mere surface. Above rage, he receives his fate with a philosophic attitude. Au revoir, Mario.

LUKE STEPHEN HAYDEN
1635 EAST 21st STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality, 2, 3, 4; Track, Varsity, 1, 2, 3, 4; Cross-Country, Co-Captain, 4; German Club, 3; Class President, 3, 4; Gold Medal, 1, 2, 3; Student Council, Vice-President, 4; President, 4.

It has been said by someone that a man is great if he becomes the best man in his field of endeavor. On that basis Luke is great. He is in a class by himself. An outstanding scholar, he found time for athletics and extra-curricular activities. As a result his election to the presidency of the student council was no surprise, for that victory pays him a tribute greater than any writer can pen.

JOHN TURNER HICKEY

384 AVENUE D
BROOKLYN

Orchestra, 1, 2, 4; Debating, 1; K.B.S.; Student Council, 4.

Naturally reserved, it was only a few who came to know John as he really is—a congenial gentleman. He is generously talented, being endowed with a gift of clear and forceful expression, a keen mind, and an unusually attractive personality. We predict for him a most successful career in college and in law, his avowed profession in after life.

THOMAS EDWARD HUMPHREYS

426 PACIFIC STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; Hockey, 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council, 1, 3, 4; German Club, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2, 3.

Tom was known at Prep for his general amiability, fine sense of humor, and ability on the hockey rink. His courage and ability secured for him a position on the hockey squad which he held for three years. His jollity endeared him to countless men here at Prep. To Tom, beginning the career of a journalist, go the best wishes of us all.

WILLIAM VINCENT HIGGINS

Spanish Club, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2; Orchestra, 1; Rifle Team, 1; Glee Club, 1, 2.

Bill is an outstanding example of devotion to anything he attempts. His cheerful attitude in the face of defeat caused the teams to fight a little harder and pull a game out of the lost column. His subtle comedy lifted the gloom of defeat. Bill, your memory is engraved deeply in our hearts and it saddens us to bid you farewell.

HARRY JOSEPH KANE
10 MONTGOMERY PLACE
BROOKLYN

Blue Jug, 2, 3; Spanish Club, 3, 4; K.B.S.

Harry's subtle comedy in class often offered a respite, welcome, at times, even by the teachers. His wit never lessened his diligence or his sense of solid, dependable friendship so highly regarded by his classmates. Although Harry has not picked his career we should like to suggest that of salesman, for Harry certainly sold himself to us.

WILLIAM JOSEPH KINANE
660 EAST 2nd STREET
BROOKLYN

Football, 3; Debating, 1, 2; Sodality; K.B.S.; Student Council, 4; Rifle Team, 1, 2.

Bill Kinane, a rather obese individual, endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact. His ready wit lightened dull moments, his tussles with Virgil and Cicero will long be remembered; but never let it be said that a Latin author outdid Bill for his long hours of preparation merited him great rewards. Au Revoir, Bill.

ROBERT WOLCOTT KING
650 OCEAN AVENUE
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; Rifle Club, 1, 2; Debating, 1, 2; Baseball Manager, 3, 4; French Club, 4.

Of all the soul cheering rogues to enter the first section, Bob was undoubtedly the most comical. He was always the same cheerful Bob whether in class or out. His ability as an athletic manager was evidenced by his long and successful service. Knowing Bob has been four years of association with a fellow whose unflinching sense of humor has been delightful for the most pessimistic.

GEORGE JOSEPH KIRCHER

464 78th STREET
BROOKLYN

Class President, 1, 2, 3, 4; K.B.S., 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 4; Gold Medal, 1, 2, 3; Student Council, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Four years ago the gates of this institution were flung open to receive George. Now they reluctantly close and George's record remains—a silent tribute to a truly great man. Combining business with pleasure he won medals in studies and letters for athletics. He received the plaudits quietly and continued to labor diligently. With a sad adieu we wish him a safe and successful journey in all the years to come.

THOMAS FRANCIS LUND

138-33 225th STREET
LAURELTON, I. I.

K.B.S.; Sodality, 3, 4; French Club, 3.

Tommy, affectionately known as "The Farmer," was that type of steady, rugged friend so deeply appreciated by classmates. His cheerful application to studies in which he constantly strove, elevated him to a position of high regard in the esteem of his teachers. Business administration is calling Tommy and if wishes mean success, he will succeed by virtue of our best regards alone.

DANIEL JOSEPH LYNCH

566 4th STREET
BROOKLYN

Spanish Club; Glee Club, 1; K. B. S.; Debating, 1; Riding Club.

Dan is blessed with a sharp wit that flashes like the thrusts of lightning. He has always entered these portals of learning with an overflow of cheer and vivacity. But Dan also possesses a serious side, for when the bell rang in the morning he applied himself diligently to the subject on hand. Farewell, Dan, may you keep far ahead in the race of life.

JOHN FRANCIS McCAFFERTY

145-19 NEWPORT AVENUE

NEWPORT, L. I.

K.B.S.; Debating, 1, 2; French Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 1, 2; Class President, 1.

With his flashing smile, John's likable and cheerful disposition makes him one in a million. He never avoids what must be done. Ask a favor of him or even suggest the possibility of one, and it is as good as done. Even were it not for his other outstanding qualities, his personality alone would bring him a long way in the world.

EDWARD JUDE McLAUGHLIN

555 EASTERN PARKWAY
BROOKLYN

Hockey, 2, 3, 4; Debating; K.B.S.; Spanish Club, 3, 4; Glee Club, 1; Student Council, 1, 4; Monogram Club.

To describe him is impossible; to praise him, unnecessary. His very actions are his best encomiums. Ed was the most versatile conversationalist of our group. His powers of convincing amazed and invariably conquered us. If he is as successful with everyone as he was with us his road to fame is clear and the sought-for goal is at hand.

JOSEPH FRANCIS McMULLEN, JR.

615 78th STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality, 2, 3, 4; Chess Club, 1; French Club, 3, 4; Guard of Honor, 4.

Mac's kind considerations, manliness and strong initiative have made our association with him a pleasure not easily to be forgotten. His loyal support of school activities has won him the undying friendship of all who knew him. A keen mind, mathematically inclined, assures him success in his chosen field, engineering. Au Revoir, Monsieur Mac. May you attain the pinnacle of success.

WILLIAM PATRICK McSHERRY

2814 NEWKIRK AVENUE
BROOKLYN

Glee Club, 2; German Club, 4; K.B.S.; Blue Book, 4; Debating, 1.

There was no activity in which he did not participate or support. He received the plaudits of all for his performances in intra-mural sports and extra-curricular activities. He will be remembered for his well prepared recitations and his ability to answer difficult questions. Quiet and retiring, his name will be remembered by all who knew him. May you have the best of success, Bill.

WILLIAM JOSEPH MARTENS, JR.

622 78th STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; German Club, 3, 4; Blue Book; Debating, 1, 2; Guard of Honor, 3, 4.

Bill belongs to that class of optimistically refreshing fellows to whom the majority look up. Never superior, never inferior, always ready to lend a helping hand. He not only smiles but makes everyone else laugh when the going is roughest. His sharpness of wit is exceeded only by his sharpness in mathematics, which quality is leading him to an engineering course at M.I.T.

WILLIAM JOHN MILTON

7815 COLONIAL ROAD
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; Debating, 2; Track, 1, 3, 4; French Club, 3, 4.

Not only is Bill an excellent scholar and a gentleman, but his active participation in intra-mural sports proved him to be an outstanding athlete. His broad smile, amiable and jovial disposition has cemented bonds of consistent friendship. Always a sportsman, his character embraced only fairness and integrity. We wish him all success in later years.

EDWARD JOSEPH O'CONNELL

216 LINCOLN ROAD
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality, 2, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2; Glee Club, 2, 3; French Club, 3, 4; Hockey, 4; Press Bureau, 3, 4; Prep Players, 2, 3.

Ed had been one of those fellows who was able, without any effort, to attract everyone to him. His happy smile and pleasant remarks were, no doubt, accountable for this. The dogged grit which he displayed on the ice has gained for him the admiration of his hockey mates. If the past is an omen of the future, we can look for big things from Ed.

JOSEPH HENRY PECK

120 91st STREET
BROOKLYN

Class President, 1; Baseball, 4; French Club; K.B.S.; Student Council.

An athlete and a scholar, Joe Peck translates the classics with the same ease that he patrols the outfield for the varsity nine. Happy or serious, Joe is always ready to enlighten one by adding a few choice words to a discussion. His cheery attitude chases gloom and he has a friendly word for everyone. May he be successful in all the years to come.

GERARD KENNETH LEO PINGERRA

As a friend or student Jerry is all that can be desired. His outstanding illustrations in the Blue Book won him the admiration of the faculty and student body. His friendly attitude made him a "most pleasant scholar." His undying loyalty will long be remembered. His fighting spirit inspired his teammates to great heights in the face of disaster. Farewell, Jerry.

Cliff is not a person of whom we shall have merely a casual recollection for he makes friendships that last, and is a character to be vividly remembered. He is one of the more studious, but still retains his dashing style, is ever humorous, and full of witty remarks. He is clever and resourceful, well-liked by his fellow students and a sure bet for a happy life. Yes, we shall remember Cliff.

BERNARD GERARD RASMUSSEN

302 PROSPECT PLACE
BROOKLYN

French Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 1; K.B.S.

Anyone can tell you that Bernie is a good reason why four years of high school can pass quickly and so pleasantly. His quiet mien was famously popular and his warm personality was heartily liked. His athletic ability adds a colorful atmosphere to his amiable character. On the court his marksmanship was outstanding, but his good nature and sportsmanship were even more so. We wish him all success.

JOHN JOSEPH REYNOLDS, JR.

301 81st STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Debating, 1; French Club, 3.

John was characterized by his level head and rigid determination. He might have seemed shy and reticent at times but he mingled among his fellows, gaining many friends through his pleasing personality. With these few words we bid him farewell, wishing him the best of good fortune in attaining all success in later life.

SYLVESTER JOSEPH RUSSO

In portraying the character of a man such as "Syl," it is exceedingly difficult to find a point at which to begin. "Syl" will be remembered for his ready smile and helping hand. He will be remembered, too, as a track star and a keen student, for the honors he won were rightly deserved. We fondly hope that he has the same success in later years as he had with us.

WILLIAM JOHN SAVAGE

376 ST. JOHNS PLACE
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2; Chess Club, 1, 2; K.B.S.; Track, 3; Spanish Club, 3; President, 4.

Throughout his four years at Prep, Bill's good nature was always a boon to his class. He was especially distinguished by his ability for speaking Spanish, which was undoubtedly the reason for his being elected president of the Spanish Club. He consistently received high scholastic rating and we feel sure he will be as successful in later life as he has been among us.

JOSEPH AUGUST SCHEID

103-21 123rd STREET
RICHMOND HILL, L. I.

K.B.S.; Monogram Club, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; Track, 3, 4; Tennis, 3.

Athlete, scholar and friend is an ideal example of a leader. Foremost in class and on the field, he has earned a niche for himself in the Prep Hall of Fame. As a friend he can find no task too difficult in assisting a fellow man. Whether he continues on to greater fields or not, nothing can dim his accomplishments of the past.

GEORGE NUTLEY SHEA

1477 EAST 17th STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Spanish Club; Debating, 1, 2; Football, 4.

Quiet and unassuming, George is a true sportsman. Exultant in victory, he accepts defeat without complaint. His worth lies in the encouragement of presence and appearance. Diligent in anything he undertakes, he performs petty favors as he would those of a greater nature. With these qualities his future life is bound to be successful.

John is a scholar, an athlete and a tried and true friend—an outstanding example of a Brooklyn Prep man. As an athlete he won the plaudits of the multitudes. As a scholar he gained the admiration and respect of his teachers and classmates as well. As a friend he endeared himself to all who knew him. Au Revoir, John, may you have the same success in later years as you have had with us.

FRANK GEORGE STONE

RICHMOND HILL

Football, 2, 3, Captain 4; Basketball, 2, 3; Baseball, 3, 4.

Frank is one of the few three letter men in Prep. When it comes to snaring passes he is the tops. On the diamond he plays at short like a major leaguer. He is a cagy basketball player and excels in all the intra-mural sports as well. Whether on the gridiron, on the court or on the diamond. Frank is a good sport and has, by his personality, made many friends here at Prep.

FRANK ANTHONY YOUNG, JR.

150 68th STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Student Council, 1, 2; French Club, 3; Basketball, 4; Monogram Club, 3, 4.

Frank Young, scholar, athlete, gentleman, is an ideal leader. He is always in the thick of the fray and the harder the going the better he likes it. When Frank was on the court the Prep was sure to score. He will always remain one of the most versatile athletes we have had and one of the most likeable characters with whom we ever came in contact.

1640 EAST 12th STREET
BROOKLYN

Sodality, 2, 3, 4; K.B.S.; French Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 1; Guard of Honor, 3, 4.

With his winning smile and quiet nature George won the hearts of his classmates from the very first. The possessor of a humor, pungent and broad, his presence animated many a Latin class. George was as dependable on the gridiron as he was in the classroom, where he habitually won honors. With such priceless assets to his credit, we bid George a fond farewell.

Graduation: Finally our destination has been reached after a tedious but delightful four years sojourn at the Prep. As we look on the stage Commencement night we see:

Parmeggiani, Brickfield, Grennan, Schwitter too.

With Welsh at football won their laurels due,

Fox, Zoller, Gerra, Nace, Santare,

Did illuminate scholastics with a flare,

Patterson, Siconolfi, Hume and Steele,

Deep thought to them it did appeal,

Redmond, Smith, O'Rielly and Cuff,

On the dance floor can do their stuff,

Howley, Hayden, Grainger and Dineen,

On the track like lightning did they seem,

Fullam, Carroll and Furlong,

Upon Thespian's stage they do belong,

McCormick, Noonan, Dillon are the golfers rare,

Who, with Bobby Jones they do compare,

Zacharewicz, O'Connell and Ryan are fellows mighty fine

Two athletes and columnist respectively sublime.

4-B-2

Now we must write the closing chapter in the book of our high school lives. The book was one of happiness, contentment and sadness. Its ending leaves us a little sorrowful for we have lived its pages and met its unforgettable characters.

Foremost starts Richardson, orator and scholar, Miles and Hartz share the athletic limelight, both All-Scholastic athletes; Bannin and Deegan, captains of swimming and hockey respectively; Carberry and Murphy, Alumni editors whose lives were series of committees. Football received Regan, Matthews, Hoey and McNulty; McMahon and Hodnett played basketball; Carroll, Joslyn, Greene and Masterson scribed for the Blue Book.

Jones was the class president. Reilly was the Fuehrer of the German club; O'Brien and Coneys our natators; Moran and Hedderson specialized in track and baseball, respectively. Viscardi was a debator; Holston and Woods our dancing experts; Garside and Redington experted in ping-pong; Brennan, Thoet and O'Hara must be classed as silent but conscientious students, while Smith and McAteer vied for excellence in witticism.

Now we must turn over the cover of our book.

Farewell, Brooklyn Prep, we are finished.

First Row: McNamara, Jones, Mr. McCabe, Hartz, Miles; Second Row: Bannin, McNulty, Richardson, Brennan, O'Brien, Viscardi, Hodnett; Third Row: Garside, Hoey, Smith, Murphy, Deegan, Moran; Fourth Row: Greene, Redington, Carberry, Holston, McMahon; Fifth Row: Joslyn, Woods, Regan, Thoet, Carroll; Sixth Row: Reilly, Matthews, Coneys; Seventh Row: McAteer, O'Hara, Masterson, Hedderson.

Swimming, 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain, 4; Tennis, 2, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Debating, 1.

Persevering as an athlete, Bob won the Catholic High School Diving Championship and was elected co-captain of swimming in his final year. His winning personality, cheery smile and unassuming manner has earned for him the respect of both the faculty and his classmates. His athletic prowess and school loyalty will be long remembered at Prep. Whatever path of life Bob chooses to walk we know success will be with him.

ROBERT JOSEPH BRENNAN

725 EAST 17th STREET
BROOKLYN

Debating, 4; Swimming, 4; K.S.B., 1, 2, 3, 4; Sodality, 3, 4.

A quiet, reserved sort of a fellow, Bob is nevertheless an ardent Sodalist and a loyal participator in other extra-curricular activities. His quiet manner and his gentlemanly conduct will be remembered by all those who had the good fortune to call him friend. And so with best wishes for a brilliant future, we say good-bye to Bob.

K.B.S.; Orchestra, 1, 2, 4; Baseball, 3, 4; Football, 4; French Club, 3, 4; Glee Club, 2; Dramatics, 1, 2.

Prep will remember Frank as a student, an athlete, and a gentleman. As a student Frank's daily recitations gave evidence of careful preparation. As an athlete Frank's outstanding performances in the backfield and at bat, marked him a natural athlete. As a gentleman, Frank's sincerity, candor and loyalty has won him a wide popularity at Prep. In parting with him we wish him every success.

Tennis, 2, 3, 4; Track, 1; Blue Jug, 3, 4; Blue Book, 4; Spanish Club, 3, 4; Student Council, 3; Debating, 1; K.B.S.

Vinnie is always found in the groups where the jokes are funniest and the laughter heartiest. Of all the friendships we have made at Prep there is none which we shall treasure more than his. We like Vin as much for what he is as for what he does. To him our "el mejor amigo" we bid, as he has bidden us so often, "Hasta Luego."

GERALD JOSEPH CARROLL

BROOKLYN

K.B.S; Sodality, 2, 3, 4; Guard of Honor, 3, 4; French Club, 3; Football, 4; Glee Club, 2; Dramatics, 2, 4.

A lusty, mellow voice holds the attention of the class and "Jerry" in clear and distinct tones, explains a proposition. In the Debating Society his speeches were always worth while and interesting. His enthusiasm was felt on the football field as well as in the student council. Never reticent, never boisterous, he was welcome wherever he went.

Who can forget the tall, distinguished Dr. Livesey of Stevenson's "Treasure Island," brought to life by Dick last December at the Academy of Music? In his four years with us we found Dick a Prepster with a sparkling good humor, a keenness of perception and, above all, a deep sense of loyalty. We hope that Dick's initiative will spell the same success in later life as he attained during his all-too-short stay at Prep.

MATTHEW JOSEPH CONEYS

2656 8th STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Swimming, 4; French Club, 3.

The four years we spent in class with Matt will always be remembered. He was popular with all his classmates. A familiar figure on the gridiron, diamond and in the tank, the big boy from Sheepshead Bay was always known for his loyalty to his Alma Mater. Yes, Nat, we may not see you again for a good while, but we will long remember you.

JOHN PATRICK CUFF

82-42 ABINGDON ROAD
KEW GARDENS

K.B.S.; Sodality, 3; Blue Book, 4; Debating, 1; Honor Club, 1, 2.

Likable is the best way to describe John. He is all that could be desired in a friend, student or companion because of the admirable manner in which he performs every task. He is classed with the leaders in studies and while not a varsity man he has a natural ability for athletics. John proved his popularity by his election as class president, wherein he met with great success. Good luck, John, you deserve it.

FRANK VINCENT DEEGAN

Spanish Club, 3, 4; Debating, 1, 2; Student Council, 1; Hockey, 2, 3, Captain, 4; Swimming, 2, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Blue Jug, 1.

Brooklyn Prep has conferred varsity letters in two sports on the good-natured chap who flanks this piece. Two were gained as the star on the Championship Hockey team and three were awarded for aquatic feats par excellence. But "Chub's" classmates wish to confer on him a bigger and brighter "B.P." Along with his letters we bid a fond farewell to a "swell fellow."

JOHN CHARLES DILLON
117 MIDWOOD STREET
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2; Blue Jug, 2; K.B.S.

Continually surprises with Latin translations. Leans toward short crew haircuts. Always looks neat, even if lacking a tie. Possesses unique ability to say more with his eyes than most can in a book. Quiet, rarely laughs, frequently smiles. Was in the habit of going out for track. Receives our vote for most likely to succeed.

ROBERT WILLIAM DINEEN, JR.
7301 4th AVENUE
BROOKLYN

Basketball, 3, 4; Cross-Country, 3, 4; Sodality; K.B.S.

A scholar, an athlete, a gentleman, that's Bob, or "Skippy," as he is called. From his freshman days he has consistently attained scholastic honors. Bob has added lustre to the "Blue and White" by his record on the cinder track and the basketball floor. A ready wit, a pleasing personality and strong moral ideals are the characteristics of a gentleman, and gentleman is the word for Bob.

WILLIAM JOSEPH FOX

In the classroom Bill's success was mainly in Science. However, he kept up a fine scholastic record in all subjects and his honor cards were numerous. Outside of class he was a familiar figure as track manager. He was a loyal chum and an earnest student. It is with deep regret that we shake his hand for the last time.

RAYMOND BERNARD FULLAM

Elocution, 1, Silver Medal, 2, Gold Medal, 3; Debating, 1; Glee Club, 1, 2; Prep Play, 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheer Leader, 1, 2, 3; Sodality, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Track, 3.

An incomparable example of "Prep Spirit." Always moving, rarely downhearted; holding steadfastly to his opinions; unafraid of the criticism of others. Cross country, track and varsity basketball form his claim to athletic fame. Quiet in class, but when outside becomes a literal cyclone. Frequently renders short tap dance and jigs when hit by the urge. Ambition: The business end of a newspaper.

ROBERT EMMETT GARSIDE

88 ALBANY AVENUE
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Prep Players, 2, 3; Debating, 1.

Here we present Bob Garside, who has become one of the best known men at the Prep. "Diminutive in stature, his cheery disposition" always served to brighten up a Blue Monday. "Bob" is the proud possessor of a personality that we are certain will carry him through life's difficulties and will gain for him success in all the years to come. "Au Revoir."

RALPH ALEXANDER GERRA

4002 AVENUE D
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2, 3, 4; Sodality, 1, 3, 4; Guard of Honor, 3, 4; K.B.S.; French Club, 3, 4; Tennis, 3, 4; Prep Players, 4; Gold Medal, 2, Silver Medal, 1, 3; Student Council, 3; Elocution, 3.

Ralph is one of the bright lights of our class—for he has a mysterious habit of receiving 100's. He is a devotee of Cicero from whom he must absorb some of his oratorical ability, an ability which will help him to make the top. He is a basketball fiend and a crack tennis player. Cheerio, old chap. The best of luck.

JOSEPH KENNETH GRAINGER

8201 COLONIAL ROAD
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Sodality; Class President, 3; Track, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; French Club; Student Council, 3; Guard of Honor, 3.

Of Joe Grainger let us simply say that he characterizes the true Prep gentleman. But that isn't all—Joe has attained prominence along intellectual lines, having always been a leader of his class in studies. Joe's hope for a varsity berth on the football team was shattered because of injuries. However, he never lost his sparkling wit and cheery smile, for which he will always be remembered.

GEORGE WILLIAM GREENE

381 STERLING PLACE
BROOKLYN

Debating; French Club; Student Council, 1, 2; K.B.S.; Blue Book 4.

True individuality cannot be copied nor can a personality like that of George's. No class is ever without George stirring up his daily argument with some unsuspecting teacher. George is our outstanding example of, "all good things come in small packages." It will be with a joy for having known him and a sincere sorrow for having to part with him, that we bid him, "Au Revoir."

MARTIN JOSEPH GRENNAN, JR.

271 DIVISON AVENUE
BROOKLYN

Swimming, 2, 3, 4; Track, 1, 2; Football, 3; Glee Club, 2, 3; Debating, 3; Sodality; Monogram Club.

Big—heart, smile and shoulders. Easily attracts sincere friends. Hobby, football. Noted far and wide for picking football scores. Student Council representative in fourth year. His Latin translations prove careful preparation. A hard, consistent worker! Everyone who knows him likes him. Frequently seen tearing in the direction of the lunch room. May the beacon of success always shine for him.

RICHARD ALFRED HAYDEN

1635 EAST 21st STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; German Club; Class President, 2, 3; Student Council, 2, 3; Track, 1, 2, 3, Captain, 4.

Trackman. Participator for four years in all sorts of track meets. Captain of team in fourth. Always up on discussions of day, with definite and sound opinions on all; but set on Landon! Punster at times. Quite funny but never laughs at his own "nifties." A "mystery" of sorts to people who don't know him; never goes out of his way to make acquaintances. Mildly quiet. Ambition: medicine.

JOHN FRANCIS HARTZ

535 54th STREET
BROOKLYN

Baseball, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Track, Cross-Country, 3; Football, 4; K.B.S.

One of the greatest sorrows of graduation is the loss of many splendid athletes. Jack particularly will be missed. His fine playing on the varsity five, coupled with his ability as a twirler, won him city-wide acclaim. Jack showed his versatility by winning a varsity football berth in his first year out. Regardless of what course of life he chooses we know Jack will invariably remain in headlines.

JOHN JOSEPH HEDDERSON

666 71st STREET
BROOKLYN

Baseball, 3, 4; Sodality, 1, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Track, 3, 4; Spanish Club, 3, 4.

John has gained by his sincerity and silence many good friends. During his four years' sojourn at the Prep, he has stood high both in the scholastic and athletic field. He has received honors in his studies all years and last year he played second base on the baseball team. We bid John a lingering farewell and hope that he, as a ship, will sail successfully in the sea of the world.

WILLIAM JAMES HODNETT

98-08 164th AVENUE
HOWARD BEACH, LONG ISLAND

Silver Medal, 3; Basketball, 4; Track, 4; Student Council, 4; Blue Jug, 4; Guard of Honor, 4; K.B.S.; Blue Book, 4.

Business man; knowing him means liking him. Favorite subject, Greek. Hobby, basketball. Played varsity in fourth year. Leans toward "sharpie" dancing. Blue Jug basketball reporter. We remember Bill first, when we struck him out in Frosh baseball. Consistent rooter for Howard Beach. Received varsity letter for cross-country in third year. Never won a race, but once his shoes were on a winner. Ambition: To be called the "Pillar of Wall Street."

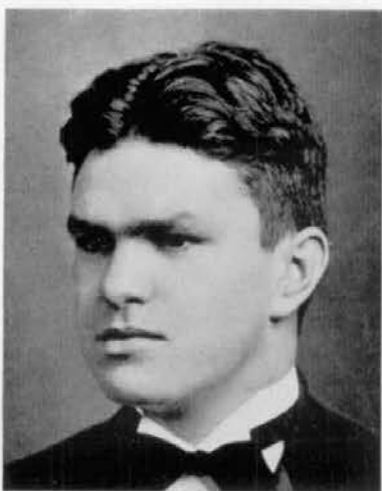

HUGH LINCOLN HOEY

1304 DITMARS AVENUE
BROOKLYN

Football, 3, 4; K.B.S.; Student Council; Blue Book, 4.

What more can be said of a man than that he was admired by all who knew him? Such a man is Linc. His popularity is due to his congeniality. Linc, as a football star, displayed great ability and a high degree of sportsmanship. Departing from the portals of the Prep, he leaves behind him the memory of a cheerful smile and a never failing fund of good humor.

EDMUND CHARLES HOLSTON

2914 FORT HAMILTON PARKWAY
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2; K.B.S.

Stodious, calm and quiet in class—outside of class, Ed is a jovial prince of good fellows. Ed is a social highlight of his class. At all our social events. Ed is noted for his extraordinary ability to cast his feet hither and yon without fear of contradiction from his partners. Everyone that knows Ed is his friend. It will be a sad farewell for his host of friends when we say good-bye to Ed.

RICHARD CLARENCE HOWLEY

105-41 88th STREET
OZONE PARK, L. I.

Class President, 1; Track, 2, 3; Debating 2; Sodality; K.B.S.; Hockey, 3, 4; Cheer Leader, 2, Captain, 4; Manager of Prep Play.

Richard wended his way unobtrusively about the Prep answering questions directly, making timely suggestions—then departing as quietly as he had come. As a cheer leader, Dick's sternest efforts were employed to urge the boys on to victory by the plaudits of the crowd. He was known as one of the Prep's hardest workers and will leave behind him an enviable record of loyalty and enthusiasm.

MICHAEL ANDREW HUME, JR.

A great fellow, "Mike." Possesses every characteristic of a fine columnist. Monotonous lectures were always enlivened by his sagacity. His personality has added zest to the Sodality and Chess Club. The Debating Society was strengthened immeasurably by his speaking ability. A true prepster and a loyal friend, "Mike" will long be remembered and appreciated by his classmates.

GERARD DENIS JONES

1109 GRASSMERE AVENUE

Jerry is our idea of a demon reporter. On the sidelines, beside the "diamond," at the ice rink, Jerry always preserves that news-hungry look of a reporter. He has gained high merit not only in his studies but also as a twirler for our baseball team. He is an ardent Sodalist, and his affable personality attracts not individuals, but crowds. We wish Jerry success in his career, whatever it is. Au Revoir, Jerry.

FREDERIC MARSHALL JOSLYN

Intellectual, humorous and cheerful. These three adjectives truly personify Fred's stellar character. That is the reason we shall always remember Fred. In his four years of association with us he has led us to expect more than the average both in the quality of his humor and his ability for playing the organ. Years from now, Fred, one look at your picture is certainly going to recall some very happy times.

JOHN ROBERT McATEER

4316 18th STREET
BROOKLYN

Red-headed people seem to possess a flaring individuality and Jack, topped by a thatch of brilliant crimson, is no exception to this truism. "Mac" is the one fellow who can cause riotous laughter while remaining perfectly composed. His every ready retort and whimsical association of ideas contain a unique wit. A mild seriousness dominates his class work and his merriment is reserved for other times.

Joe's smile was as permanent as his good nature. During his high school career, he maintained a more than average scholastic standing and his name was not infrequently to be found on the honor lists. Everywhere Joe brought with him an unusual cheerfulness and he was well received by all who know him. We, who have been his colleagues at the Prep, are confident of Joe's future success.

Sodality; Riding Club; K.B.S.; Debating, 1, 2; Glee Club.

Jerry, though short in stature, is a man possessed with many useful talents. One is his remarkable capacity for absorbing and retaining knowledge. Another is his habit of gaining friends. Perhaps, his greatest claim to fame has been spreading cheerfulness and good humor over our years at the Prep. Now, in parting, Jerry, we are certain that life will hold few difficulties for you and no one will rejoice more in your success than your friends of '37.

MATTHEW DENIS McMAHON

Track, Cross-Country, 4; German Club; Basketball, 4; Rifle Club; K.B.S.; Sodality.

A good student, he has achieved his greatest success in the field of sports, holding down varsity berths on the basketball squads and with the field and dalters. Possessing a quiet but cheerful disposition he has attracted a number of sincere friends. No matter what course of life Mac chooses, his determination and pluck will surely carry him through to the top.

"There he goes!" "Get him!" And sixteen of the class social lights gain ground on a lone figure. The cause of this pursuit is Ed, who writes "Round-the-Prep" column, which keeps would-be Romeos from Bay Ridge to Flatbush in line. He managed Bill Richardson right into the President's chair and was a bone-crushing plunger on the Prep "11." With all your "Res Gestae," Ed, your success is assured.

Jerry's studious nature and quiet personality have won him the respect of his teachers as well as his classmates. By his diligence he has gained a goodly collection of honor cards. His manly character and pleasing personality have attracted to him a host of friends. It is with reluctance that we bid Jerry farewell as he departs from the Prep. Certainly we shall cherish the memory of his friendship.

Athlete plus. Known by everybody, even Nick. Popularity was inevitable because of insuperable athletic deeds and ability to retain quiet, smiling personality. Played varsity football for three years; made all-scholastic twice. Ran quarter mile in first. Played goalie for last two. A sodalist and chief booster. In the play once. Has been class president and Student Council representative. Ran for vice-president in famous "balloon campaign."

VICTOR JOSEPH MATTHEWS

2702 AVENUE I
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Football, 4; Hockey, 4; Track, 4.
Vic, who worries more about weighing two hundred pounds than his Latin, is one of the most likeable fellows about the Prep. He is the most ardent enthusiast in the Prep for football. He is a sterling athlete who glows on the field of sports both in baseball and football. During his stay at the Prep, Vic has made many friends and they of Brooklyn Prep wish Vic success in all the years to come.

Artist. His spare moments produce faces on every page. Always smiles when forlorn. Slightly shy. Hobby: Orchestras. Excellent, shifty football player, but too light for varsity playing. Worries bi-weekly over his share of Alumni Column. Excellent dancer. Good sport considering the riding he takes. A bit of a fashion plate at the Prep. Noted for large vocabulary; not the literary type. Likes Notre Dame most. Ambition: Business world.

"Everyone loves a fat man." Well, certainly the author of this maxim must have had in mind a man like Jack Nace. For Jack is really very healthy looking and he is one of the most popular of the Prep men. Throughout his four years he has displayed proficiency in all subjects and particularly in the sciences. He has met with great success, which we hope will characterize his entire path ahead.

JOHN JOSEPH MORAN
156 UNDERHILL AVENUE
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; Freshman Baseball; French Club; Glee Club.

Throughout his four years John has impressed us as being a congenial, good-natured Prepster. In the classroom his fine scholastic standing, and outside, his track activities, helped him to make his high school life a successful one. Humorous and pleasant in his manner, John has always been a loyal Prep man.

Quiet, gentlemanly and a pleasing personality—there you have Bill Noonan. Bill has always been a loyal supporter of the Prep teams and he himself has taken part in the track activities. Among the men at Prep he has gained some fame as an excellent ping-pong player. His high ambitions, we are sure, will carry Bill far, and in parting we wish him the very best of luck.

Perhaps the best way to speak of "Gene" is to supply the one word "spirit," synonym. In Gene we have a chap who was a member of the swimming team and one of the Blue Jug star reporters. He was a quiet, capable fellow, whom everyone liked. The senior class knew him best as a fine classmate, a true friend and a real Prepster. "Au Revoir," Gene.

Jack is a Prepster endowed with many useful talents. One is his ability to speak intelligently on almost any subject. Another is his ability to engage in different sports with versatility. But the greatest talent is his gift of gaining friends by his witty and keen remarks. We give this quintessence of spontaneity to the world with simple words, "May life be a bowl of cherries to you."

One of the little giants of the class, Phil has a happy-go-lucky air about him which endeared him to each and every member of his class. Not only his keen sense of humor but also his steadfast companionship strengthens the bonds of friendship. He is a keen student, but his humor has often relieved the tension of the class with a timely bit of wit.

Everytime we heard the "Lockerroom Serenade" we usually found "Parmi," the erstwhile member of the glee club, in the middle of it. Every group must have one merry-maker, and "Parmi" kept the tension between the class and the teacher free. His athletic prowess was well displayed as the Varsity Football guard and as the manager of our Championship Hockey Team. "Parmi" possesses all the necessary qualities to make him succeed.

"Nothing succeeds like success" seems to be Jerry's favorite axiom and tenacious endurance in his every pursuit assures his victory. Jerry is a reserved lad and his opinions embrace the two views to every proposition. His active participation and fighting spirit enlivened the football squad. Added to his physical prowess he equally volunteers the too difficult answers. Farewell, Jerry, and may your equanimity be fully appreciated.

THOMAS FRANCIS PATTERSON

Sincerity is his greatest asset, and in him conceit is conspicuous only in its absence. Loyalty to his classmates, and an agreeable nature won for him many friends. He is gifted with a gracious sense of humor and an unassuming manner; along with his sincerity and application to work he is sure to be a tremendous asset to his advancement in whatever field of endeavor he chooses to pursue.

Entering the Prep as a sophomore, Jack's countenance has always radiated a jovial personality. He took a keen interest in intramural teams. It is popularly believed that he has read all the books in the Prep library. And so it is with fond remembrance that we bid the future "Navy Officer" farewell.

The mainstay of the basketball team and a tennis player of no mean ability, John gained fame as an athlete, but sports statistics cannot reveal his many fine qualities. His amiability is at all times evident and his conscientiousness as a student and a true product of the Prep. He was an ever welcome member of the class and it is small wonder he so quickly acquired a veritable host of friends.

A dashing figure on the "cinder path" and a brilliant one in the class room was "Charlie." Whenever anything came up in class that required serious consideration and level-headed thinking, there was always one person to consult—"Charlie." "On the boards" he could always be depended upon to win points for the Prep. And it is with fond remembrances that we wish him Auf Wiedersehen.

It is a grave injustice we commit in saying that he was one of the best orators, presidents, scholars or editors the Prep has seen in many years. Bill's friends were as many as the Prep's students. Bill may graduate physically but the fighting and striving spirit he has injected into the school shall never graduate but will perpetuate his memory in the hearts of Prepmen.

"Jack," as he is fondly called by his fellow Prep men is, to put it briefly, a bundle of good nature. His six feet has brought him through many victories both on the gridiron and the basketball court. Because of his sportsmanship and pleasant personality, Jack has been the source of admiration of his fellow Prepsters. In parting, Jack carries the best wishes of everyone who knew him through these four years.

Class President, 1, 4; Student Council, 1; Freshman Baseball; Track, 2; Blue Jug, 4; Debating, 1; K.B.S.; Blue Book, 4.

Few spend four such eventful years at the Prep as Joe. He has been president of his class, member of the student council and associate writer of the "Round-the-Prep" column. Because of his sincerity and his original humor he has made many close and lasting friendships. By his endeavors Joe's name will live long in Prep's Hall of Fame but longer in the hearts of his classmates.

Four years ago, a small knicker-clad boy won a scholarship to the "Prep." During that time he has worked hard and now he graduates, after having distinguished himself in studies. His popularity is clearly evident by his nomination to the office of Student Council president. Everyone can be proud to be numbered among his friends.

Science is Si's forte and a brilliant future in the field of chemistry seems assured for him. His excellent marks in German qualified "Si" for an office in the German Club. A forthcoming playwright, "Si" has written colorful sketches which have been enacted by this group. The more we know "Si," the more we admire this shy "Wissenschaefler." Best of luck, "Si."

BERNARD FRANCIS SMITH

As a member of two Prep Plays, "Treasure Island" and "Oliver Twist," well will he be remembered for his fine acting. Also not to be forgotten is the fact that he was the one provided the football squad with enjoyment during their sojourn at its K. of C. football training camp. A good reporter and a likeable fellow. He was always appreciated and liked by all.

WILLIAM EDWARD SMITH

Many friendships have been made during our four years at Prep, but none is to be more treasured than that of Bill Smith's. For Bill is a steady, consistent worker, in class, and a fine fellow, right through. Bill is one of those men whose success in later life is inevitable. Here's luck to you, Bill.

WILLIAM FRANCIS STEELE, JR.

1643 72nd STREET
BROOKLYN

Chess Team, 1, Captain, 2, 3, 4; Debating, 1; K.B.S.

Chess player. Commanded Chess Club since 1A. Once taught 4B how to chess on blackboard. We were mostly bewildered. Possesses a wonderful mind for mathematics. A quiet sort in class. Unusually attentive; seems to be thinking of all that's said. Member of French Club. Always loyal to class and school activities. His career, we know, will be as successful as his chess game.

WILLIAM JAMES THOET

109-48 110th STREET
BROOKLYN

Debating, 1, 2; K.B.S.; Sodality, 4; Swimming, 2, 3; German Club, 4.

In studies Bill distinguished himself as a hard worker. The success of the debating society was greatly influenced by Bill's oratorical ability. His versatility again came forth in his endeavors in the realm of King Neptune with amazing results. For this reason we are sure that the Prep will grieve his loss both as an athlete and scholar.

RAYMOND JOHN VISCARDI

NEW YORK CITY

Debating, 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council, 1, 2, 3; K. B. S.; Sodality, 4; Prep Players, 3; French Club, 3, 4.

Many a period in the classroom has been enlightened by Ray's inimitable humor. The gales of laughter heard coming from the Latin Class are invariably caused by Ray's jokes or merely the inflection of his voice. Nevertheless, in back of this unusual sense of humor is really a fine character and we wish Ray the best of luck.

ROBERT MONRCE WELSH

Irish by name and Irish by nature Bob's easy-going, almost lackadaisical manner, his droll sense of humor, and ever lingering smile have garnered for him a large group of friends. A sufficient talent for studies, Bob's Prep career is especially notable by two years of varsity football. Bob spends his spare time (some of the teacher's, too) dreaming of Annapolis and the briny deep. Smooth sailing, Bob.

WILLIAM JOSEPH WOODS

Class Vice-President, 2; Sodality, 4; Debating, 2; French Club, 3; K.B.S.

When Bill is not grappling with Newton's theory or struggling with Virgil he can be found manoeuvring a ping-pong racquet, sinking a basket and knocking out screaming doubles on the indoor field. He has supported every activity and it is this sincerity of purpose coupled with a geniality of spirit that has won for Bill a host of friends.

BOLESLAUS JOSEPH ZACHAREWICZ

147 DUPONT STREET
BROOKLYN

K.B.S.; French Club, 4; Debating, 1, 2.

"Zack," an ardent basketball fan, seldom misses a "Prep" game. He is a good player and an excellent shot. Above all, "Zack" is a clean sportsman and despite the keenness of competition, has never played unfairly. His enthusiasm was contagious. Everyone who knew him liked him. His classmates can all call him friend and in parting wish him all success.

JORN FRANCIS ZOLLER

John is a sincere and earnest student who gained high position throughout his four years at Prep. Despite his reticent nature John is well-liked by all who know him as he really is, steadfast in his friendship, cheerful of disposition and a loyal supporter of his school. A sincere friend is he and only through friendship are his best qualities unveiled.

4-A-2

Though a bit modest in declaring 4-A-2 leaders at Prep, nevertheless we here present our record and allow you to judge for yourself.

Foremost in achievement is the Student Council's Vice-President Pete Callery, outstanding as a track man. Ranking with Callery in studies are Maher and Neagle while as teammates on the track team he has Brady, Ingham, Maher and Finley. Our contributions in other sports include Ed Hogan varsity football and baseball player and the promising material in football—Dwyer and Woltmann; in baseball—Schneider, Hesterberg and Golden; in basketball—Molloy; while Isaacson is our hockey star.

Extra-curricular activities claim the attention of others with Grady in the library, Gleeson and Gorman on the Blue Jug and Fred Clark and Breslin spending much time at the Dugout. Rounding out the class are W. Clark, Burke, Gillan, Jacobs, Maule, Shannon and Strauss who, although they are the last mentioned are far from least conspicuous in spirit as regards both school and class.

" I was scarcely in position ere my enemies began to arrive, seven or eight of them, running hard, their feet beating out of time along the road, and the man with the lantern some paces in front. Three men ran together, hand in hand; and I made out, even through the mist, that the middle man of this trio was the blind beggar. The next moment his voice showed me that I was right.

"Down with the door!" he cried.

"Ay, ay, sir!" answered two or three; and a rush was made upon the "Admiral Benbow," the lantern-bearer following; and then I could see them pause "

3-B-1

Proponents of scholarship and fun describe the members of 3-B-1. Mathematics is Anstey's forte, Gould is a demon on the court. Joe LoPrete and Catherwood rate as the deans of sharpiehood. Fisher, Timmes and Fiore at track, and Prep need never worry. While Carney, Ferguson and Slattery, in jokes and fun form quite a battery.

Then Murphy and Dooley, an erudite pair, with Barkie our president, class honors share. While Ludeman's our star of grid, Al Zaloom's our chemistry kid. McCabe and Shannon with silent Lynch, all wade through Latin without a flinch. With Bardwil and Greeley as basketball men, we've Meeks who startles us now and then.

Phil Forrest, the Cooke brothers Ryder and Bob, in the orchestra are doing a very good job. With Hoenings always in the Jug, Donnellan and Sullivan give math a hug. And Raimond and Clare making honor roll fame, we've "Blue Jug" O'Brien, who knows every game. With Fowler, Kennedy, there's Buckley, who ends this sketch in rhyme quite luck'ly.

Fennelly and Moynahan are men of 3B2,
With Quinlan, upright gentleman, are friends of all so true.
Darcey, man of wizard brain, battles for marks with brilliant Crain.
While Vander Linden and Dineen, off honor rolls are never seen.
Foley's face can brightly beam, Gillen's too, or so 'twould seem.
Garvey of the ready wit, likes Jones in clothes that tightly fit.
Shaw's the strong and silent kind, Ateyeh with his nimble mind,
Verse honors shares with our Frank Grogan, who, in turn rhymes with Metro's Geoghan.

Touhey is our president, Woods with Murphy always went.
J. V.'s strong man Havelock, with Cogan on whose head curls flock,
Dunne and Bowler, Maher and Long, make our honor roll more strong.
Webb, the mystic of the class, Sammon, always first at Mass
Mallouk, the pal of everyone, Tommy Lyons our best dressed son,
Connor, who gets around the town, Boehrer, never seen to frown,
Stapleton who's averse to noise, Lewnes with the gayer boys,
With flying colors pass the test and make our class by far the best.

3-A-2

Although you have seen our faces for the last two years in the year book nevertheless you may not know our accomplishments and characteristics. Donald Lynch presides over our class meetings as President and Neagle keeps our money records straight.

In athletics we have Harris on the gridiron, Firth on the diamond and McManus, Fitzpatrick and O'Brien on the basketball team. The track team was strengthened by Callahan and Callery, while Brennan the school champ, and Ledner, Knight, Hugart and Sandford wielded mighty paddles in ping pong.

The monthly honor roll always included Whelan, Gallagher, Chellis, Lee, Haslach and Hassell while Hanlon debates and Sheehan experiments in Chemistry. Von Herbulis the cosmopolitan traveler, discussed his experiences with McAllister. Bowne the beadle, checked off the roll locating with difficulty Grogan and Donlan. O'Toole, bubbling over with quips, sprang new ones on unsuspecting O'Reilly and Mathias. Leo Lynch and Franghiadi never cause any disturbances,—a direct contrast to Vitale and O'Neill.

We hope that next year we can still number these fellows among our comrades.

" We had run up the trades to get the wind of the island we were after—I am not allowed to be more plain—and now we were running down for it with a bright outlook day and night. It was about the last day of our outward voyage, by the largest computation; some time that night, or at latest, before noon of the morrow, we should sight the Treasure. We were heading S. S. W., and had a steady breeze abeam and a quiet sea. The Hispaniola rolled steadily, dipping her bowsprit now and then with a whiff of spray. All was drawing alow and aloft; everyone was in the bravest spirits, because we were now so near an end of the first part of our adventure.

Now, just after sundown, when all my work was over, and I was on my way to my berth, it occurred to me that I should like an apple."

2-B-1

Studies, sports and spirit together make up 2B1. Glancing over the class it seems that: The goal of Schaer and Sheridan is a perfect Latin translation. Reynolds, the star of the baseball diamond together with grid-men Brownworth, Ahrens and Pumo keep Ed Shanahan, the publicity man of the Press Bureau, quite busy putting the Prep in the limelight.

Melvin, Lapham, and O'Sullivan, the student council men, spend their time making it easier for such fellows as Delaney, Conroy, Brush and McGuire, the representatives of 2B1 in the intramural activities. The varied discussions of Logan and Gorman have often been enlightened by the entrance of our humorist, Bridgetts.

Quinn is always found on the altar at Mass and devotions while any Thursday afternoon the debating room will show Datter the orator or the thespians Bennett and Murtagh. Canarsie gives the class Brown. The audience of Tollners crack ping pong playing invariably consists of Oliver, Zekowski, and Sullivan. Beadle Bardwil and the class musician Scannell bring to a close the presentation of 2B1.

2-B-2

"We are sophomores!" we all shouted as we stumbled in our seats,
 And as sophs it can't be doubted we excel in all our feats.
 McDonald, Cahill, Lawless, Meagher are tops as students, barring none
 While in debating we're tops by far, what, with Larkin and Harrington.
 You'll find our man in the Sodality, Kerr and Cosgrove are just two;
 Gunther's a man of mentality, while Powers gets the 'scoops' for you
 When thinking of elocution time, think of Jack Albertine
 Or if you're thinking of a rhyme, another orator's Bob Notine.
 As tracksters we're no easy 'pickins', we rank high as harriers,
 For there's McGovern-John, and Higgins to run and clear the barriers.
 On the gridiron there's Wally Perry, who plays like one of the Rovers,
 Mulry makes the track coach merry, baseball goes to Travers
 For a wit there's Bill Kiefer, Charlie Hallet's right there too,
 Jim Bowler acts as library keeper, Raimond, is a sharpie, true.
 Yeno and Keegan and Baxter and Coyle
 With Kennedy, closes this chapter of toil.

First Row: Keegan, Lawless, Mr. King, S.J., Higgins, Raimond; Second Row: Albertine, Kennedy, Coyle, Dolan, Hallett; Third Row: Baxter, Mansfield, Bowler, Cahill; Fourth Row: McDonald, Yeno, Kiefer, Cosgrove, Meagher; Fifth Row: Travers, Notine, McGovern, Harrington; Sixth Row: Kerr, Larkin, Perry, Mulry, Conway.

The following would be a G Man's identification of the members of 2A1. Boden, man of letters; Barrett, class leader; Carroll, Tommy Miles' successor; Lohmann and Dunigan, track twins; Lawrence and Parks, next years basketball hopes, Pflug and Sandford, constant attenders of K. B. S.; Neusse and Sullivan, future Babe Ruths.

Associates of these boys in class are Pete Moran, hockey star, Madden, Latin expert; Jimmy Matthews, the diving star and McGuire, star of "Treasure Island". Besides this colorful group, we have the three K's Kadri, Kayes and Kirk and the sons of St. Patrick, Donovan, Gallagher and Glynn.

Coming to the end, we have Enright and Fenton health marvels who associate with Delaporte and Ludeman, class tennis stars who in turn spend their time angering O'Rourke and O'Hara or outrunning Pollack, class track star. And now I leave you with a word of warning to watch the last group of this class, the "S" boys, Sammon, Schaefer, Sessa, Santimauro and Stevens (the S means smart?).

We are Sophomores, after a baffling Freshman year.

What, with the Classics, simultaneous equations, digestive tract, etc., ahead I'll take a moment and review my fellows in this fight for knowledge.

First there is Fogarty, president and star athlete; Jurgens candidate for the relay team; Milde, popular class secretary; Quinn, the first man off the campus at 2:35.

Swinging to the next position of the room we find Linden, whose jokes flow in a steady stream; the ping-pong triumvirate of Gallagher, Fischer and Moriarty. Cagney and Sheerin represent us in intramural basketball, while Titus holds the position of Captain of Freshman football. Then, there's Scotto, an equestrian of renown, and actor McGinn. Madden is our star swimmer and Breslin and Fee are our orators. Morrell and Loughlin look like future basketball stars. Then there's Schaefer, the ace at Mathematics; Hart, the artist; and jovial Gunderson. As remaining members, we have Barrett, the red-headed cheer leader; Carlin, the studious student; Mackey, worrisome Jack; Manning, the sharpie; G. & J. Mead, the twins; Schmitz, the questionnaire; humorist, Tonry and good-natured Stuckart comrades.

EDWARD COLLINS, '40

A pall of sadness was cast over his classmates and the entire school by the news of Ed Collins' death. Although he has departed from our midst, Ed lives on in the hearts of all who knew him. For we have a tangible memory of a sincere, honest fellow; a rather quiet individual, amiable, and inevitably popular. People like Ed are ones who make us proud of the Prep.

" . . . There was a great rush of feet across the deck. I could hear people tumbling up from the cabin and the foc's'le; and, slipping in an instant outside my barrel, I dived behind the fore-sail, made a double towards the stern, and came out upon the open deck in time to join Hunter and Dr. Livesey in the rush for the weather bow.

There all hands were already congregated. A belt of fog had lifted almost simultaneously with the appearance of the moon. Away to the south west of us we saw two low hills, about a couple of miles apart, and rising behind one of them a third and higher hill, whose peak was still buried in the fog. All three seemed sharp and conical in figure.

So much I saw, almost in a dream, for I had not yet recovered from my horrid fear of a minute or two before. And then I heard the voice of Captain Smollett issuing orders. The Hispaniola was laid a couple of points nearer the wind, and now sailed a course that would just clear the island on the east.

"And now, men," said the captain, when all was sheeted home, "has any one of you ever seen that land ahead?"

FIRST YEAR

1-B-1

Here only a year, our class has performed prodigies of valor in study and sports. Starting off with beadle Beardall and two-term president McElroy as officers, we have class humorists Frey and Giancola assisting orators Gianquinto and Mulkeen.

Honor men Valinoti and Gould draw inspiration from the works of artist Sallows. While stumpsters Lance and McCabe speechify latinist Lo-Curto, laconic Grainger disapprovingly eyes best friends of Father O'Connor, Parrelli, and Schwartz. Hoop team, Schaeffner, Moore Goodwin, Breslin and Scanlon; with ping pong king McPadden, smiling John Lyons and McInerney keep us at the top in sports. Versatile McNamara with Joe Brown's rival White close our first chapter in the Blue Book.

We feel that there is much for us still to do and you readers, can expect to hear many things from us in the next three years.

1-B-2

And now we have completed our first year at Prep, a year full of interest from new experiences, new friends and new subjects. On arrival we were favorably impressed by Henry Gehrhardt and elected him class president along with Mullens. Hank was also the J. V. Basketball mainstay.

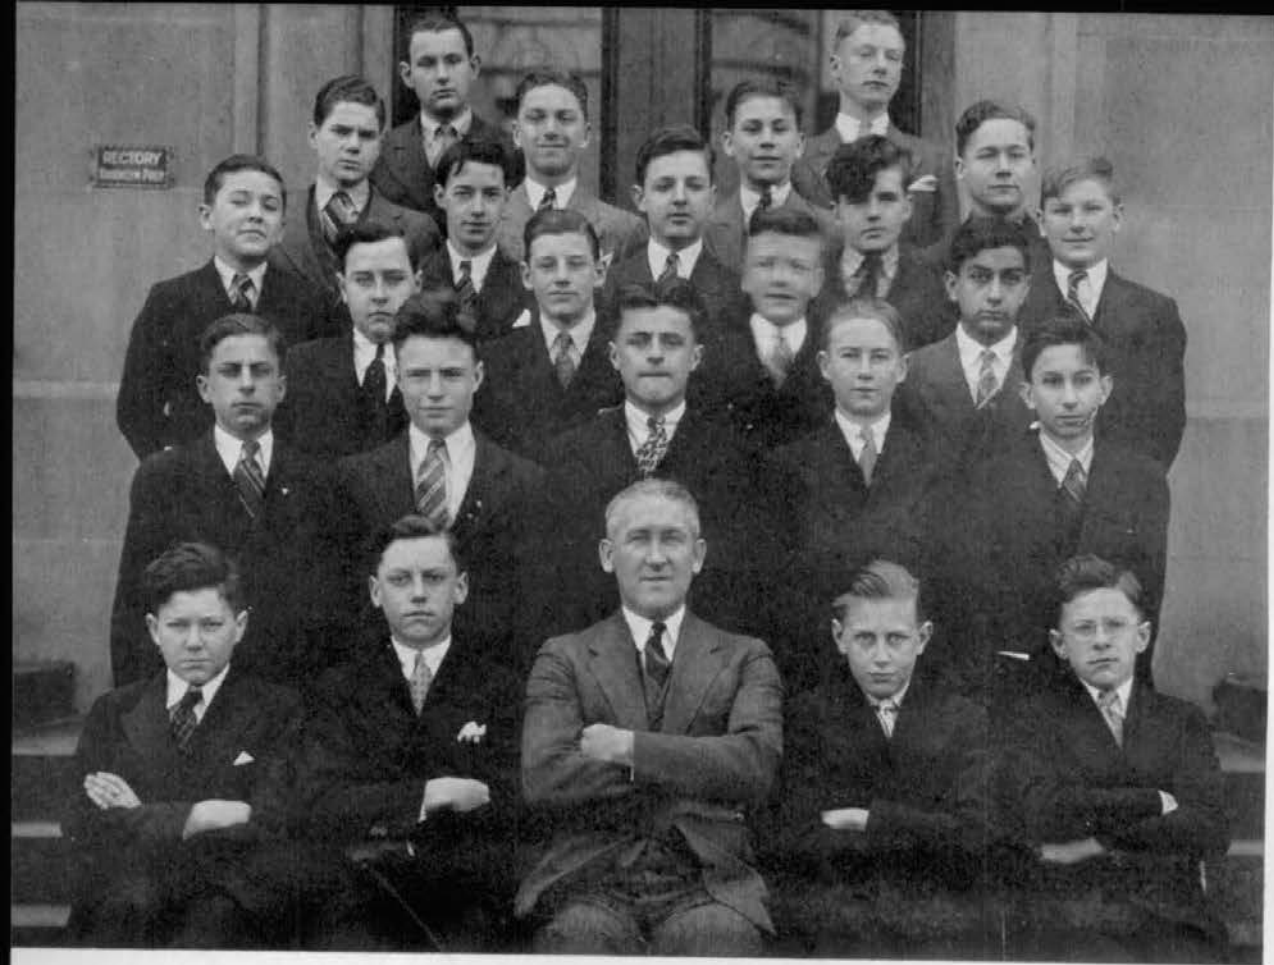

Frosh football received our Cunningham and Red Maddock. Charlie Scheid was our swimming contribution. We must mention that our champ class basketball team, paced by Ciccione our Captain, was composed of Rehman, Foley, Walsh, Merrill, Cato, Scanlon and Reilly. O'Leary played baseball. 1B2 is ably represented in Prep politics by Fuchs, and Lorenzen. White, Ingham and Fleming are track stars.

Hazlitt receives our vote for "most consistant" (in ?). Artie Appleyard can explain at length why "tempus fugits". Doctor Fitzgerald's nemesis is Celano. Our future business world will be bolstered by Sheridan, Wallace and O'Halloran. To change a dull period to an interesting one we have Tom Lilly and Johnny Begley, our class comedians.

So far our class has manifested a spirit that should make our stay here successful and happy.

First Row: Robert Sheridan, Merrill, Mr. Lyons, S.J., Gehrhardt, Wallace; Second Row: Celano, Hazlitt, Fleming, Cato, Reilly; Third Row: Begley, White, Appleyard, Walsh; Fourth Row: Lilly, O'Halloran, Mullens, Rehman, Cunningham; Fifth Row: Ciccione, O'Leary, Lorenzen, Maddock; Sixth Row: Scheid, Scanlon, Foley.

Don't let the picture accompanying this write-up mislead you: We're really not as bad as we look, as you will see. For instance: there's our wise-cracking Ed Gill and John Ross, the reliable rooter; Class President, John Powers; Joe Ruger and George Fay lead in scholastic endeavor; On the gridiron, Vic Miles and Ed Spaeth are consistently conspicuous; Tall, dark and handsome describe our John Robinson; Ed Holland, John Werneken, Ed Farrell and John Sullivan prove the adage that silence is golden; "Shorter hours, less work"—the motto of the inimitable Walt Williams; Then there's "Cunningham" McElduff and "Venzke" McManus, future record breakers; We boast Ed Haag and Artie Callahan as the class "smoothies".

Ted Pope is our coming pilot and Cliff Tollerton the prospective "G" man; We have dubbed Enrico Vitelli the man in exile; Cowboy Buck Druhan and Bob Murphy we are always proud to have among us; Likeable Joe Lilly and Charlie Gelshion,—he of the mighty torso, bring this presentation to a close.

We sincerely hope that "in toto" we will greet you again in the '38 Blue Book.

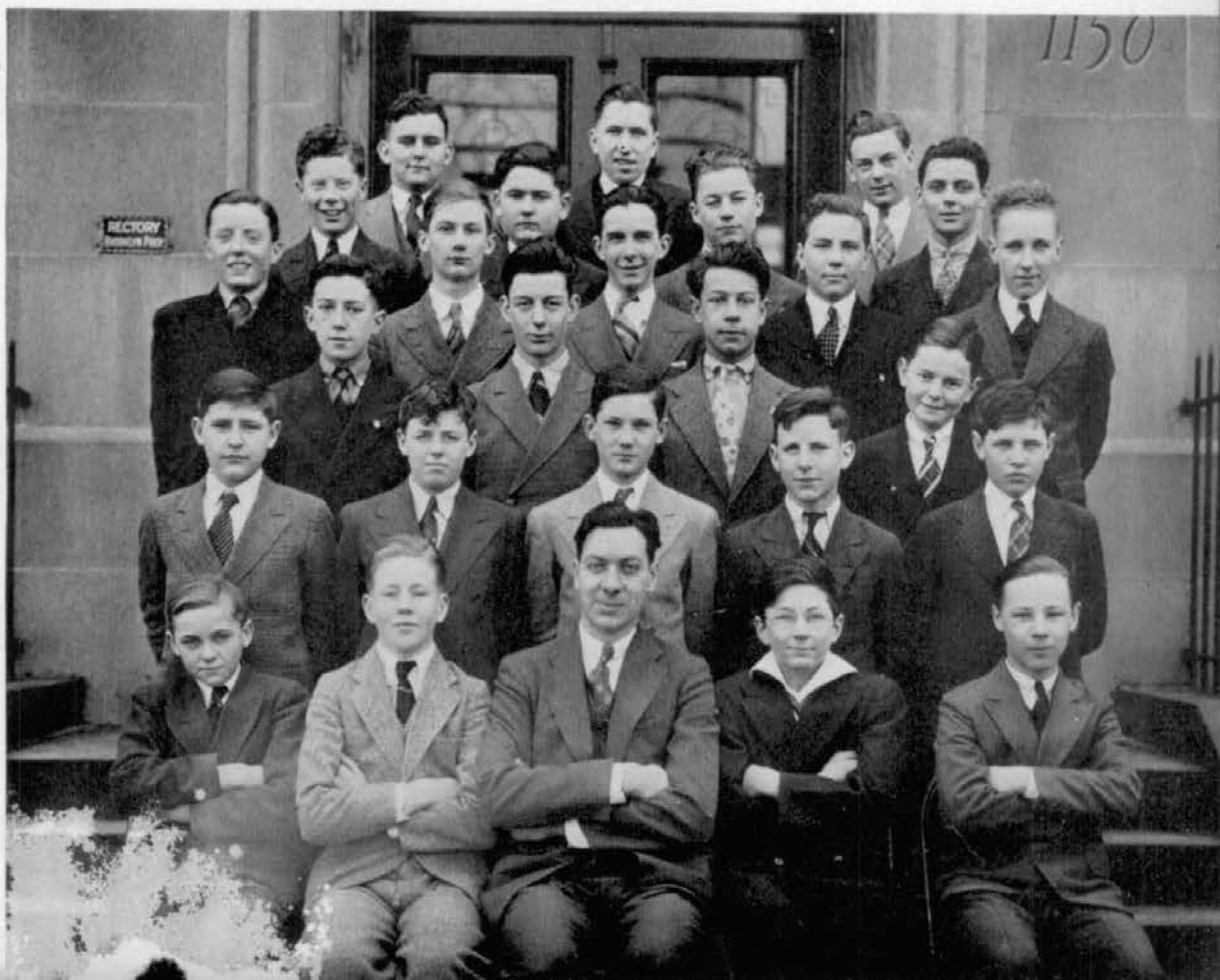

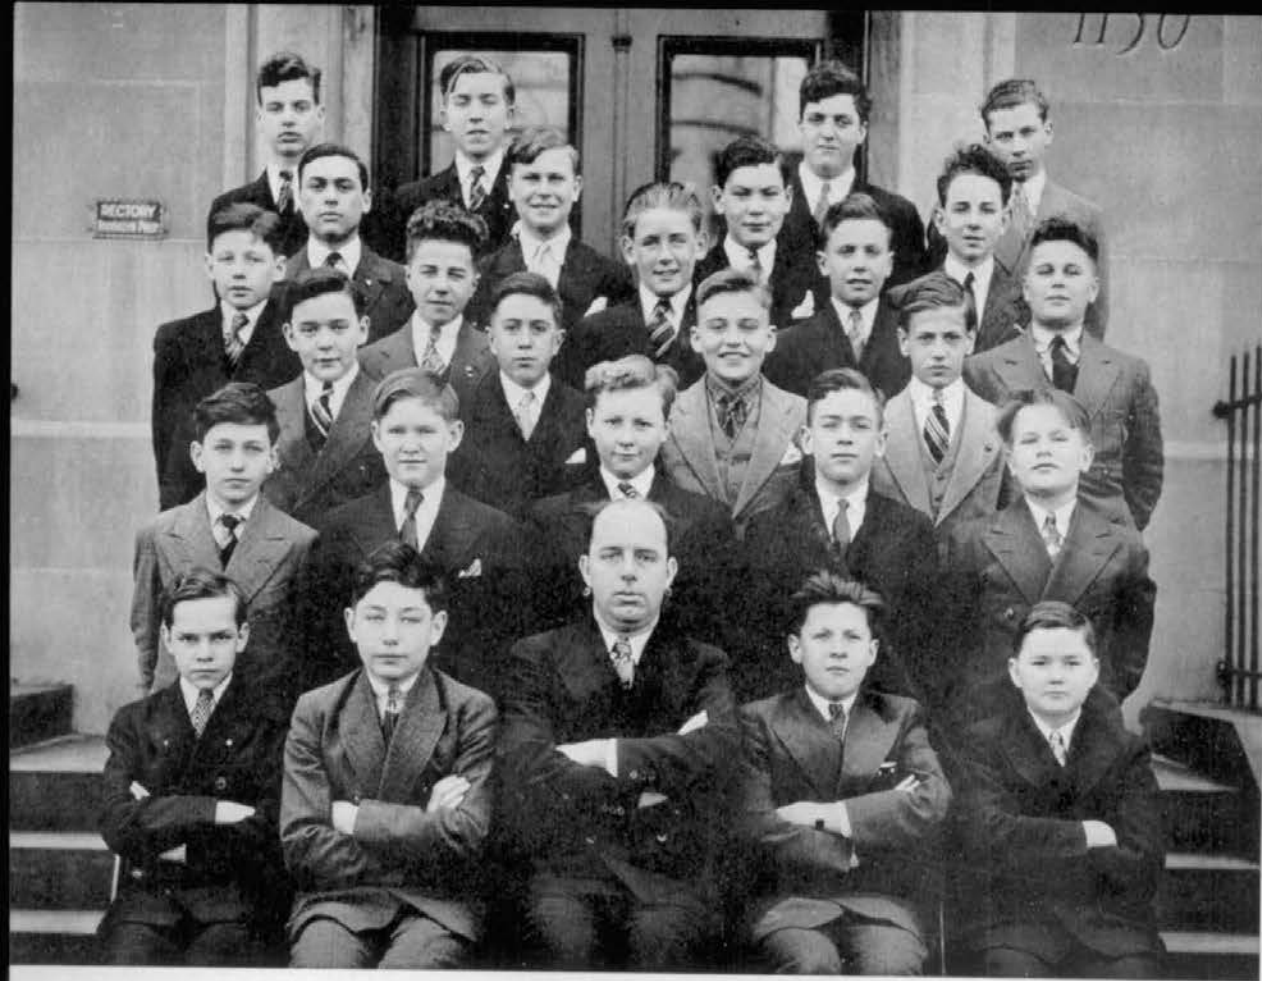

1-B-4

Hickey and Bower were our beadies in class
 Kelly and Schults in Latin surpass
 Tait, McNamara ping pong every day.
 Caddell and O'Connell at baseball do play.
 McCormack, LaBorne in football renowned,
 Diamond and Kenny in basketball're found.
 Kelly and Mallon our outstanding leaders!
 Stofan and McCarthy are library readers.
 Hanlon and Peterson of other lands dream.
 Fitzgerald and Brophy, nice fellows they seem.
 Leinz and Lightcap are two fellows rare,
 Calnan and Orr all debating they share.
 Cascio and Nelson think Algebra supreme,
 McCallion and Heller in smiles always beam.
 Louprete as elocutionist is widely renowned.
 Quite pleasant, I hope, this verse you have found.

First Row: Peterson, Hickey, Mr. Goode, Schults, Cascio; Second Row: Stofan, O'Connell, Tait, Kenny, McNamara; Third Row: McCarthy, McCallion, Lightcap, Louprete; Fourth Row: Caddell, Fitzgerald, Calnan, Brophy, Kelly; Fifth Row: Nelson, Bower, Orr, Leinz; Sixth Row: McCormack, Diamond, La Borne.

First Row: Daly, Murray, Mr. Giegengack, Braun, Kelly; Second Row: Carney, Edwards, McGuire, Vachris, Lawrence; Third Row: Kennelly, Senft, Gardner, Fleck; Fourth Row: Payne, Campbell, Hannon, Lancaster, McLaughlin; Fifth Row: Accettella, Enright, Muller, Peters; Sixth Row: Newbatt, Lewis, Pizzi, Dwyer.

1-A-1

A flash has just come in from class 1A1 that:

Braun bug of the class (beadle) shares honors with Lawrence
 Accettella is burning up the track as Daly scoops all news Campbell and Kennelly are the cage men while Edwards is another Joe Lewis
 Carney is Rubinoff's rival while McGuire is the star ping-pong player
 Gardner has the gift of gab but Lewis is a man at peace with the world
 Enright is quiet but, like Maher, unmistakably versatile Kelly is small but remember the story of little acorns

Question! Is Hannon's face red and do Brocker's teeth tap dance in Latin? Heller and McLoughlin maintain barriers of reserve
 Lancaster slides in his seat "with the greatest of ease," while Senft's smile would be an ad for Steeplechase Dwyer and Newbatt are descendents of Mercury Payne, Peters and Murray are making hosts of friends with their pleasing personalities Muller is no relation to the spaghetti people and Nussey is the class porter Is it true that Fleck is a "smoothie" and Vachris hesitates in class? Pizzi is a true sports enthusiast

1-A-3

Although we are here but a few short months we have nothing which as yet may be termed a class history. However, we are at present in a stage of development and as time passes the names of many in our number will come into places of renown in our lines of endeavor about the Prep.

Our class officers are Cody, President and Loth, the Vice-President. As representatives to the Student Council we have Dunker, Trottnr and Smith. Our outstanding students are McCormack, Reid and Moore while Foley and Notine show great promise in the field of elocution. Sports claim the attention of many including our track stars Gill, Mahoney, Mulvey and Duffy; Murphy plays a nice game of tennis, McCoy is tops at swimming and McDonnell is our baseball player.

In the lighter veins of activities we find the handball experts Collins and Cullen; the class comedians Dunham, Arnone and Martin; then we have that Damien and Pythias team of Meara and Alexander; and that merry trio, Hennessy, O'Rourke and Schmitz. Completing the list are Carlin, Ferguson and Umla.

Good fellows one and all!

". . . The Hispaniola was rolling scuppers under in the ocean swell. The booms were tearing at the blocks, the rudder was banging to and fro, and the whole ship creaking, groaning, and jumping like a manufactory. I had to cling tight to the backstay, and the world turned giddily before my eyes; for though I was a good enough sailor when there was way on, this standing still and being rolled about like a bottle was a thing I never learned to stand without a qualm or so, above all in the morning, on an empty stomach.

Perhaps it was this—perhaps it was the look of the island, with its grey, melancholy woods, and wild stone spires, and the surf that we could both see and hear foaming and thundering on the steep beach.

SENIOR SODALITY

The members of the Senior Sodality consist of students from the third and fourth years. The widespread success of the Sodality is undoubtedly due to its large membership. Under the supervision and guidance of the Student Counsellor, Father James Higgins, S.J., the various Sodality branches have functioned rapidly and favorably throughout the year. Prefect Hume, Assistant Prefect Masterson, Treasurer Richardson and Vincent Santare, the Master of Candidates complete the list of officers.

The Christian Doctrine section, headed by Edmund Butler has aided greatly in the administration of the Sodality. Instructing the less fortunate Catholic children in their religion and distributing various booklets and Catholic periodicals, this group carries out perfectly the spirit of Catholic Action. An additional branch of the Sodality which is contemplated at this time would be known as the Speakers Bureau. The members who are oratorically inclined would speak at public gatherings such as communion breakfasts and in that way spread the name of the Brooklyn Prep Sodality.

JUNIOR SODALITY

Even upon his arrival at the Prep a student becomes acquainted with the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. In the first two years the boys are enabled to join the Junior Sodality. In the past term this group was exceedingly successful as can be judged by the remarkable attendance at all regular meetings on Wednesday mornings and at its numerous other spiritual activities.

Guided and instructed by Father Higgins, the Student Counsellor, the various branches of the Sodality were conducted with a fervor that was expressive of the Catholic action demanded in the boys. The officers in the Sodality were William Harrington, the prefect and Eugene Lawless, the Secretary.

The meetings of the Sodality take place each Wednesday morning at 8:30 in the new chapel. The office of the B.V.M. is recited by all, then a short address is given by Father Higgins, S.J. and the meeting is completed with Benediction of the most Blessed Sacrament.

The Sodality offers to those who join, the tender devotion to Mary and they become devoted servants to her.

K. B. S. AND GUARD OF HONOR

One of the most striking examples of the loyalty and interest displayed by the students of Brooklyn Prep is the group known as the Knights of the Blessed Sacrament. This organization, K. B. S. as it is called, is invariably favored with near perfect attendance, although its membership is not compulsory. The K. B. S. Mass is a tradition at the school and the true Prep men are the ones who make it a practice to be present each week. The devotion of the Prep students to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is manifested by their consistent attendance and devout participation in the Mass every Friday morning.

An active branch of the Sodality consists of the Guard of Honor. The members of this organization willingly devote ten minutes of their lunch period in adoration before their Sacramental King in the students' chapel. The sacrifice made by the men taking part in the Guard of Honor aid them in securing their Duces Pin, the emblem of faithful activity in the Sodality.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The school year of 1937 brings to a close one of the most successful that the Student Council has witnessed. It has succeeded in stirring up the interest of every Prep man and because of this has accomplished a great deal in forwarding the Prep activities.

The first semester found Luke Hayden in the presidential chair, William Richardson, vice-president and Sylvester Russo as secretary. During the term the Council sponsored intra-mural tourneys in football and basketball. Medals were awarded to the winners in each division. Under the guidance of the Council a successful social was held in honor of the football team.

Upon the graduation of Luke Hayden, William Richardson succeeded to the presidency, while Peter Callery was elected vice-president, and Vincent Santare, Secretary. During this administration all the graduating classes of the Catholic Diocesan elementary schools participated in an inter-parochial baseball league which was sponsored by the council. Among the classes of the Prep an indoor baseball league was formed and again medals were awarded to the victors. The success of the 1937 outing was due largely to the loyal support which was manifested by every member of this organization. With the completion of the outing, the official business of the Council was concluded.

First Row: Callery, Touhey, Sammon, Lee, Sammon; Second Row: Murphy, Clark, Lapham, Breslin, Geoghan.

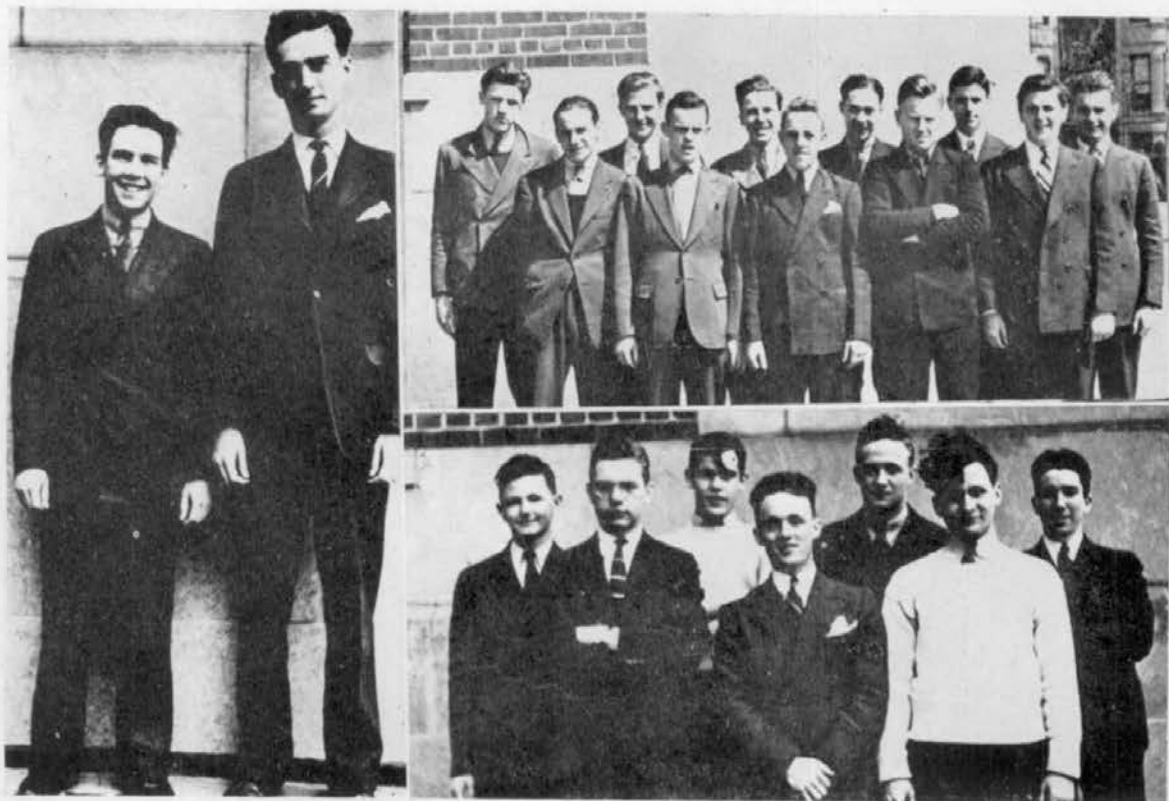

THE DUGOUT

Since its organization during the year 1934-35, the Dugout has functioned with great success. Under the supervision of the Director of Athletics, Father O'Connor, and the Student Council it has greatly aided in the administration of the Athletic Department.

Giving up countless hours of their time, the Dugout men have worked steadily and efficiently, although their task is a laborious and thankless one. Their consistent and untiring effort has merited the deserved commendation of the school authorities. The staff is chosen by Father O'Connor who, each day, assigns them various posts. The duty of the Dugout crew is primarily to take charge of the distribution of the sports equipment and to preserve order in the Recreation Room.

The Dugout has rendered considerable service to every Prep man and is rapidly becoming one of the Preps foremost organizations.

INTRAMURAL

Under the capable direction of Fr. O'Connor, Intramural sports at the Prep took on new life during the past year. The first official interclass champion was 4-A-2 which won the football elimination in the fall.

During the basketball season the foul shooting and set-shot contests were conducted. The former was won by Hartz, '37 with Herbert, '39 runner-up. The set-shot contest soon after was won by Gallagher, '39 with Holland, '37, runner-up. The big tournament of the winter was then run-off, the annual interclass basketball tourney. After some hotly contested battles, the class of 4-B-2 won the title easily from 2-B-2.

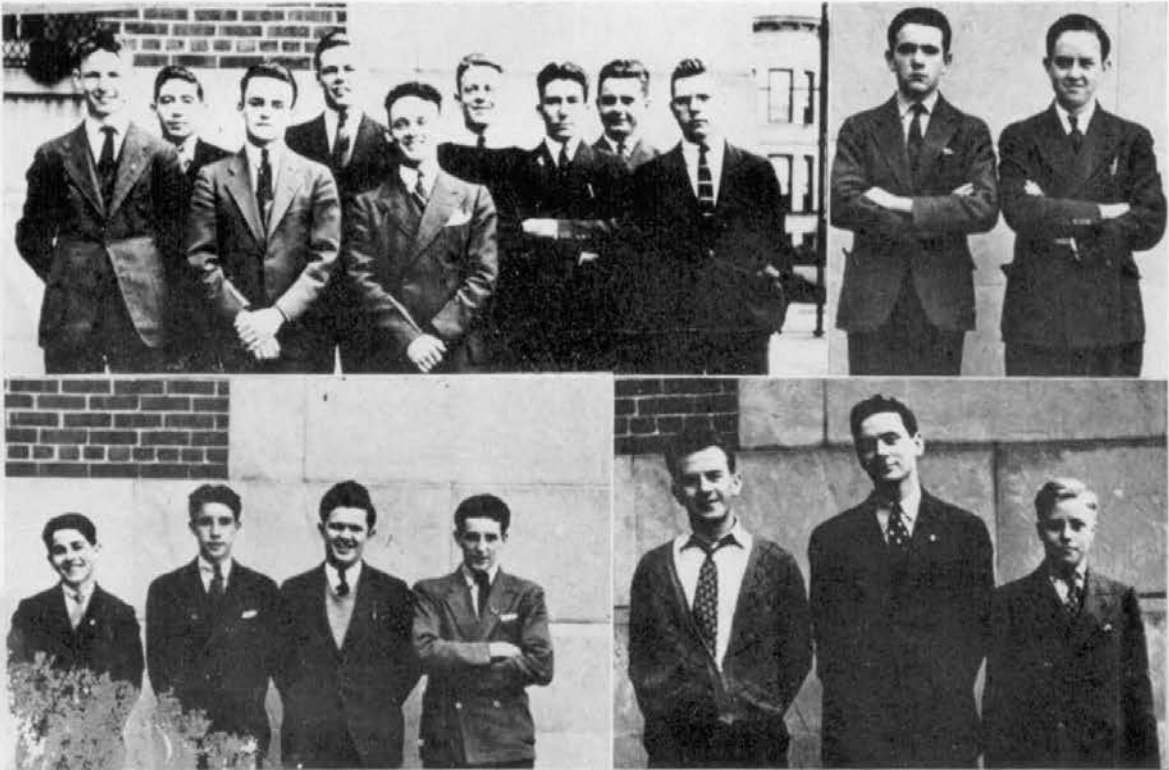

37 BLUE BOOK

In ping-pong, the elimination tournament was conducted during the winter season with Brennan, '38 taking the honors from Zoller, '37. The interclass league in Ping Pong will be played off in the early spring.

Tennis as an intramural sport reached a new high in achievement when in the Fall tournament sixty entries competed for the title won by John Redmond, '37 from Bob Bannin, '37. Another tournament will probably be held in the latter part of spring.

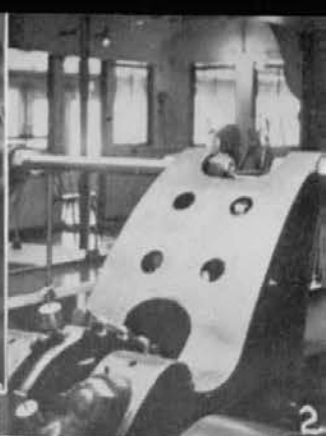

To this writing the indoor baseball league has not yet begun. In last years tournament the winner was the present class of 4-B-1 which will defend their laurels when this year's league play gets under way.

WASHINGTON TRIP

The conductor cried, "All Aboard"; The train flashed out of the Jersey City terminal, and fifty-five students of Brooklyn Prep were on their way to the Capital of the nation. After a hearty meal, eaten to the accompaniment of the rhythm of the rails, the students arrived at Union Station. There they boarded a bus and went immediately to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, where they were escorted through the building by a "G" man. At the Bureau of Engraving and Printing they stood awed by the huge stacks of money, piled so high, but just out of reach. Then the buses carried a tired and hungry group to the Wardman Park Hotel for dinner and a good night's rest.

After breakfast at the hotel they went on a sightseeing tour to Lincoln Memorial, the Capitol Building, Smithsonian Institute, Washington Monument, and the Supreme Court. Immediately following lunch a few went to Mount Vernon, while the rest of the students went to the Naval Academy. On their return, they dispersed throughout the city to find entertainment suiting individual tastes.

On Sunday morning, after the students attended the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, at the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, a special train to Woodstock was boarded and the students met their former teachers. After a pleasant trip home they again arrived at Boro Hall, Brooklyn. At this point the group scattered to their various neighborhoods and all agreed that it was a very enjoyable trip.

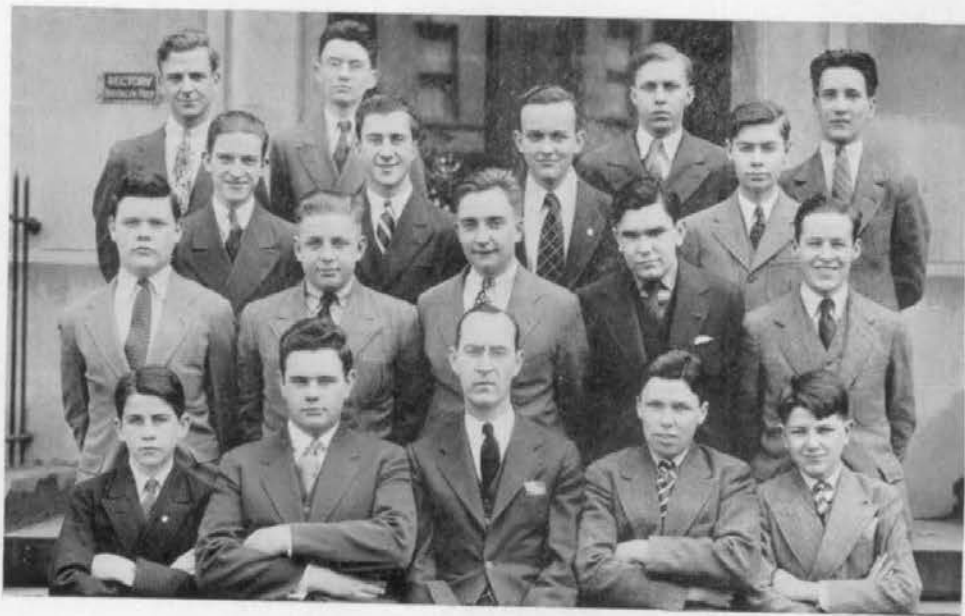

LIBRARY

With six thousand volumes and numerous exhibits our school library has afforded an opportunity to all Prep Students to seek higher knowledge and at the same time to spend enjoyable moments in their spare time. The library has subscribed to more than sixty periodicals both weekly and monthly for the enjoyment and information of the student body.

The library is indeed fortunate in having such an experienced and capable librarian in Doctor William A. Fitzgerald. Under his guidance it is managed by John Nace, Head Student Librarian, who is ably assisted by John Redington, John Lee, George Grady, William Sammon and Nicholas Cavagnaro. And so with such an obliging staff and choice collection of books the Prep Library offers a means of relaxation and learning to all its members in their leisure.

PRESS BUREAU

This organization of which little is heard, but through which all is heard, is one of the most necessary clubs of the school. Every bit of news, results of the Prep games, lectures, socials, is handled by these fellows and reported to the leading newspapers of the Metropolitan area. All credit for this activity is due to Mr. Goode, Bill Shanahan and Bill Harrington, who manage it so successfully.

POSTER CLUB

No one realizes the reward due to this club because of their excellent work, submitted without thought of reward. These artists are the cause of many a Prep function becoming successful. Their reward comes when the social or game they advertised goes over. Again we would like to thank them for their constant aid in informing the students of future activities.

Way back in January, the Blue Book staff of 1937 was organized. At that time the members of the senior class formally began the publication of the annual under the able supervision and direction of Mr. Edward W. McCawley, S.J.

"Treasure Island" was chosen as the theme because of the interest in the novel and in the play of that name which became a landmark in Dramatics at Prep this year.

The atmosphere of sea, sailors and adventure is maintained and evidenced throughout the entire book and is accentuated by the nautical sketches, which have been carried out under the direction of Gerard Pinggera, '37.

COMPOSING THE BLUE BOOK

The final appearance of this annual is the result of many hours of work which have been spent by the members of the staff, who, under the guidance of the moderator, have endeavored to maintain the usual success of the Blue Books. Daily the typists pounded at the keys and as the days passed by, the scattered pages were collected and the layout of the book took form.

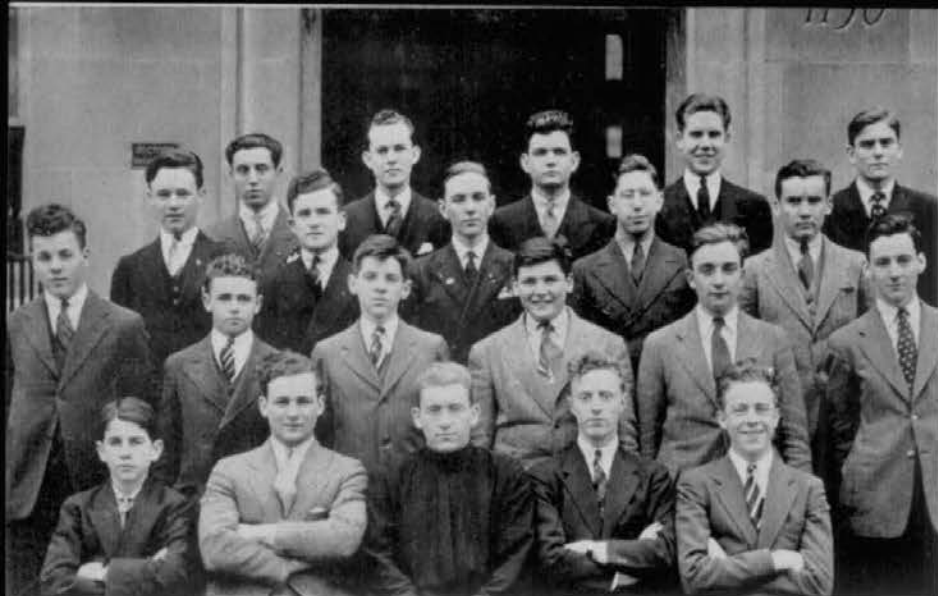

The Business Staff, under the direction of Mr. Francis J. Diamond, S.J., is deserving of any honor that might come to the Blue Book. For it is through the efforts of the Business Staff that the financial foundation of the book was made secure.

We, of the graduating class felt that it was fitting to bestow the honor of dedication to our parents, for it is through their efforts that our education at Brooklyn Prep was made possible. And so we considered it a privilege to dedicate our work to them—our most appreciative and deserving readers.

BLUE JUG

Without doubt one of Prep's leading extra-curricular activities, the Blue Jug of the '36-'37 term reached an unprecedented high. With Mr. William G. Perry, S.J., as faculty director and William Richardson, as editor the Blue Jug's shining success was inevitable.

Equipped with a remarkable editorial staff the "Jug" was not only received with enthusiasm by the Prep students, but the merit of the paper was realized in neighboring schools. Bill Richardson set a new mark for editorials with his intimate views on topics closely related to the every-day life of the students. The ripple of excitement his "Are You Smooth" caused in the Prep made it clear that his inimitable style would not soon be forgotten.

THE BLUE JUG

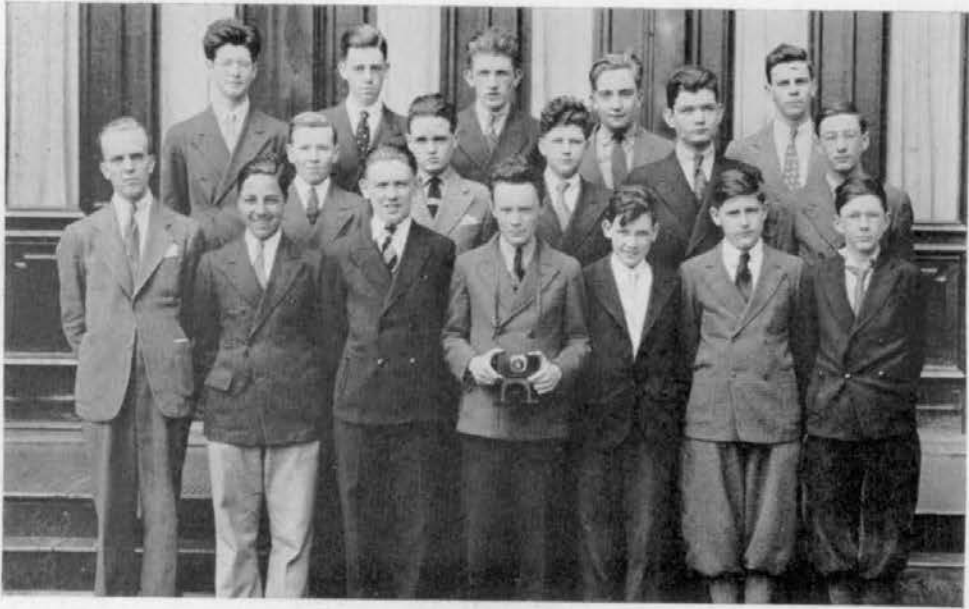

The all-important, "Round the Prep" was capably managed by Joe "Scoop" Ryan and Ed "Keyhole" McNulty and the boys did a wonderful job to keep up the high standards of this favorite strip. Another combination that met with success was Edward Shanahan and Eugene O'Brien who did a great job as writers of the "Sport Short" column. The most difficult of all tasks, the Alumni column, was handled in excellent style by Vincent Carberry and James Murphy who managed to find an entertaining way in each edition. William Larkin and William Sammon made the Library column most interesting and informing reading. The Sodality write-up, captioned "My Father's Business" was ably written by Michael Hume.

A good deal of credit is due to the hard working news staff who kept the students well informed on current events around Prep. Our hats off to Mr. Perry, S.J. and to William Richardson and the staff for giving the Blue Jug such a banner year.

CAMERA CLUB

Though scarcely a few months old, the Camera Club early showed the signs of a well developed organization. From an obscure start in the middle of the first semester, with a membership of about ten members, the Club has grown to a membership of twenty-five.

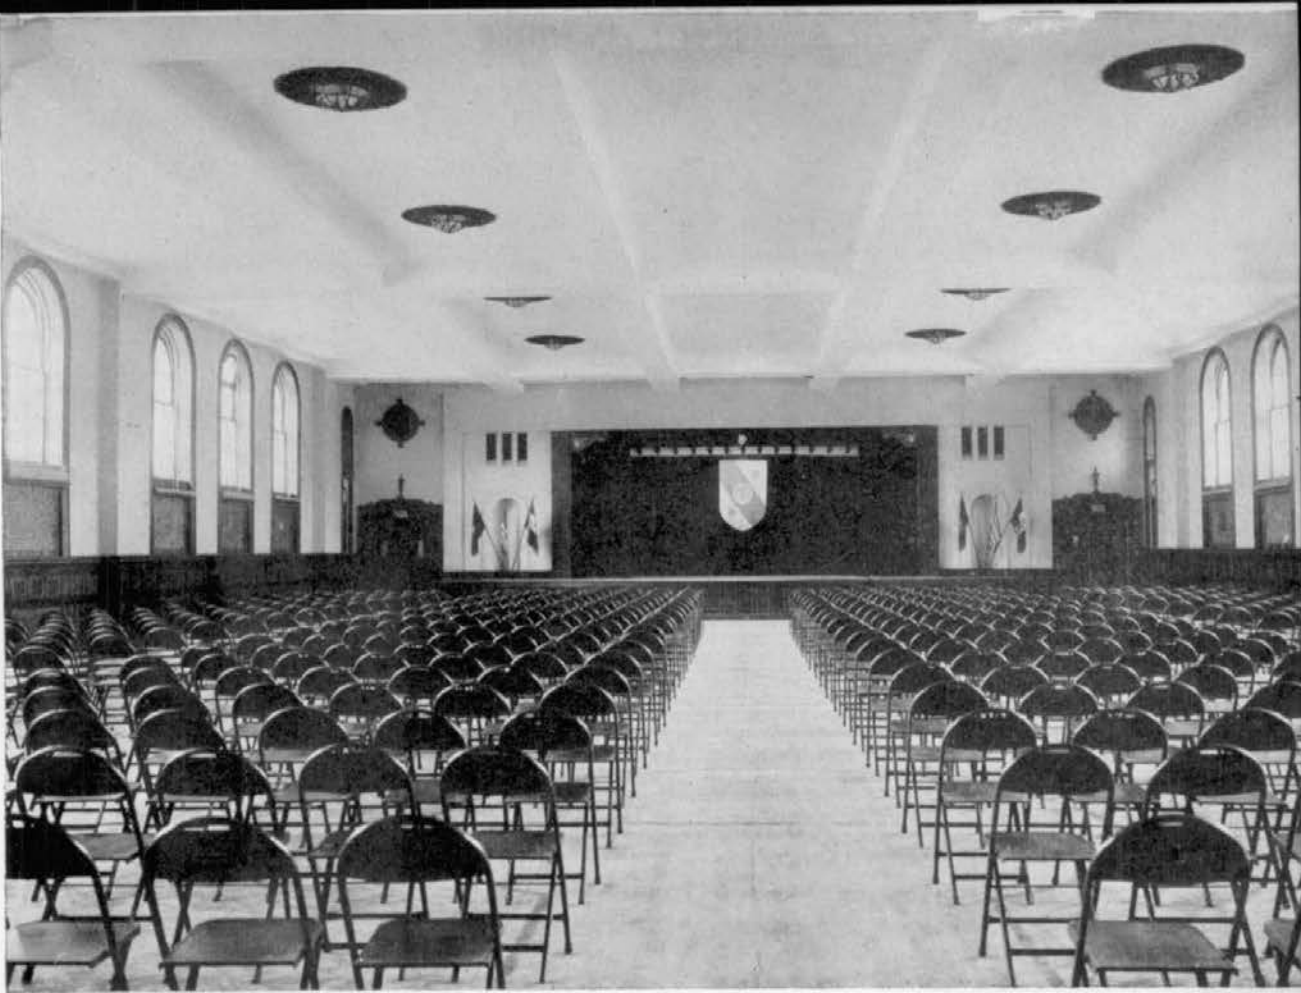

The officers for the first semester were, Edward Lyden, president; William Callery, vice-president; and Walter Biggs, secretary. In the new term, William Callery moved to the presidency, and William Shannon was elected secretary, the office of vice-president being dropped. Our moderator was Mr. Francis J. Diamond, S.J., Jack Britt, '35, an able cameraman, proved a valuable asset to the Camera Club.

During the term weekly contests were run, on different types of photographs. At frequent intervals, movies were shown, these being contributed by members of the lay faculty or the members of the club.

Interesting lectures and discussions of frequent occurrence, were well received.

Underlying the various activities of the club is another, that of aiding the work of the school publications. This activity represents the major purpose for which the club was formed and it is with this project naturally, that it is chiefly conceived. Though no great "scope" were made it was evident that the members were notably interested in this part of the Club's work.

Treasure Island

"Cast off the gangplank," was the command that could be heard amid the shouts of rough sailors as the Hispaniola set sail for "Treasure Island". Although the scene was the Academy of Music and the year 1936, the carefully chosen cast of some twenty-two actors made an audience of over a thousand witness the immortal of Stevenson in actual occurrence.

Mr. Fox, the Prep's director of dramatics for the past eight years, was highly commended on his choice of characters for the play. "Treasure as Black Dog. In the parts of the English sailors, both those who remained loyal to their captain and those whose piracy traits overpowered them, were found a wide variety of difficult character portrayals.

The Judges, whose duty it was to pick the actors in the order of their displayed ability, announced that theirs was a difficult and unpleasant task in having to decide the winners from such a number of select thespians.

The courage of Mr. Fox to attempt such a production was marvelled at—but the success of the play was even a more wonderful accomplishment and in the words of the director himself, "Treasure Island afforded me and my entire company many weeks of pleasant toil and one evening of ecstasy."

ORCHESTRA

After a lapse of two years the Prep again took a forward step to encourage music when it re-organized the Orchestra. From the start their efforts were crowned with success. Many students reported for places to Mr. Lyons, S. J., the Moderator, and soon a select few were chosen by the director, Mr. Sobel.

The debut of the newly formed orchestra took place at the annual play "Treasure Island". Their efforts were so successful that they have appeared frequently in events conducted by the school. Their appearance at the Christmas Celebration, the Parents Night and the Elocution Contest were enjoyed by all and did nothing to belie the success which they achieved upon their initial performance.

In view of the short time which has elapsed since its organization its success has been nothing short of amazing. In view of this extraordinary success it must be realized that too much credit cannot be given to Mr. Lyons, S. J. and to Mr. Sobel, who in such a short time gave to Brooklyn Prep a musical body comparable to that of any other Prep school.

CAMPION DEBATING

"Will the meeting please come to order?" . . . With these words President Richardson started the first meeting of the society back in September. Following this Ray Viscardi called the roll and Ralph Gerra, as Master of Debates, announced the questions for the succeeding meetings. Following a fiery debate, Father Welsh, S.J. the Moderator, spoke a few words of helpful criticism to the followers of Demosthenes. And thus another meeting went down into the minute-book.

As the months passed and the members became more enthusiastic our moderator arranged a debate with Canisius High School of Buffalo. The question reading Resolved; "That electric utilities be governmentally owned." Richardson, Gerra and Hume were selected to defend Brooklyn Prep. In the most stirring debate of the year, the Prep went down to an honorable defeat. A return debate with Canisius had been planned in March in Buffalo but as the date was approaching Father Welsh, S. J., was taken ill and, as a result, all future debates were cancelled. Gerald Carroll honorably represented Prep at the All-Eastern Oratorical Contest conducted by Fordham University. And at this writing the society is planning a debate with the Bellarmine Society.

The Bellarmine Debating Society—meeting place of our youngest orators—training place for our coming great speakers of the Prep—the home of tyro expression made experienced—the place where Freshmen become acquainted with the proper arrangement of formal—the organization that is as expedient to the Prep as its name itself!

This year, with renewed effort and satisfying co-operation, the society has reached new heights. Under the direction of Mr. Francis G. Pfeiffer, S. J., the debates have been more carefully prepared and delivered and excellent subjects have been uncovered by the moderator.

The President of the Society is Gene Lawless while Ray Larkin is vice-president and Bill Harrington takes the minutes of debate. At the president's request Bill also accepted the treasurership.

This year the club has carried the Prep banner into the territory of their very arch rivals, Regis and St. Peters Prep. Fordham's tyros were likewise engaged.

OFFICERS OF THE FATHERS GUILD

Mr Lloyd A. Noble (Secretary), Mr. James J. Fitzmaurice (Treasurer), Mr. Vincent T. Tiora (Vice-President), Mr. Francis A. Tullom, (President).

FATHERS' GUILD

Perhaps the most intimate organization of the Prep is the Fathers' Guild. Established primarily to foster a better understanding and cooperation among the parents, teachers, and students, it has blossomed forth into an active and prominent factor in the school's activities.

The Guild has met with great success in sponsoring various events throughout the past year. Outstanding were the Anti-Communist Night, the Card Party and Social, the Communion Breakfast, and "Parents' Night".

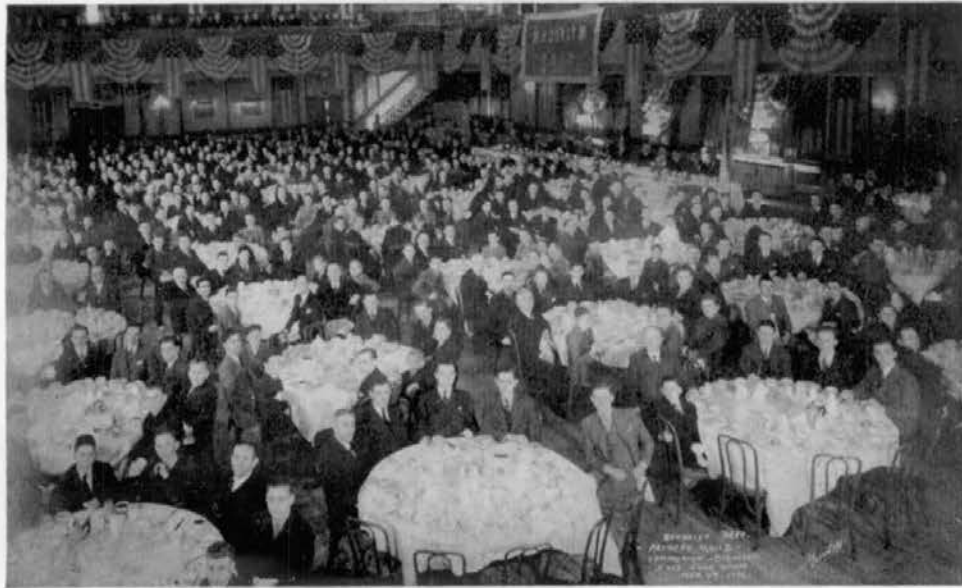

Captain Frank Ahrens, chairman of the entertainment committee, was in charge of Anti-Communist Night and the success of this meeting was due in no small measure to his energy and care in planning the program of the evening. The principal speaker was the Rev. Thomas J. Feeney, S.J., Associate Editor of Jesuit Missions.

CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Frank Ahrens (Anti-Communist Night); Doctor Herbert Whalen (Parents' Night); Mr. Luke Hayden (Communion Breakfast); Mr. John J. Reynolds (Card Party).

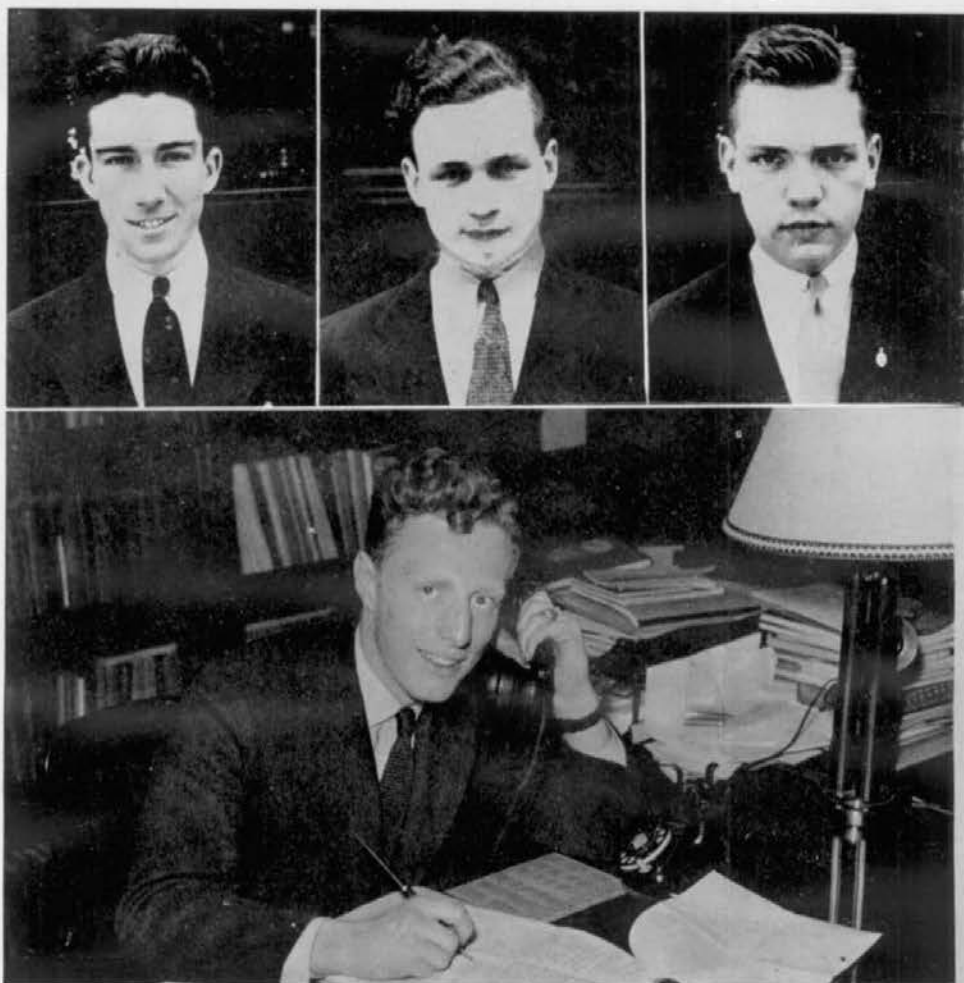

The Card Party and Social, under the able direction of Mr. John J. Reynolds, enjoyed a record attendance of fifteen hundred persons. Mr. Reynolds also directed the Loyalty Drive, the proceeds of which will be used for school improvements.

The Prep's most distinguished alumnus, the Most Rev. Raymond A. Kearney, D.D., auxiliary Bishop of Brooklyn, celebrated Mass and spoke to the assembled fathers and sons on the occasion of the annual Communion Breakfast. The speakers at the breakfast were the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph McClancy, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools, the Hon. Francis A. Madden and Mr. James Murphy. Illness prevented Rev. Fr. Rector from attending. This Communion Breakfast, under the capable guidance of Mr. Luke Hayden, was one of the most successful ever held.

Doctor Herbert Whalen served as chairman of the "Parents' Night" committee. This annual social event, inaugurated by the Rev. George E. Kelly, S.J., Rector, is held to especially honor the mothers of the students and the large attendance fittingly closed another successful year of Guild activities.

The officers for the year 1936-37 were Mr. Francis A. Fullam, President; Mr. Vincent Fiore, Vice-President; Mr. James J. FitzMaurice, Treasurer; and Mr. Lloyd A. Noble, Secretary. The Rev. John H. Klocke, S.J., was the faculty moderator. The newly elected officers for the year 1937-38 are Mr. Edward I. Cullen, President; Mr. James D. C. Murray, Vice-President; Mr. Leo Hart, Treasurer; and Mr. John Callahan, Secretary.

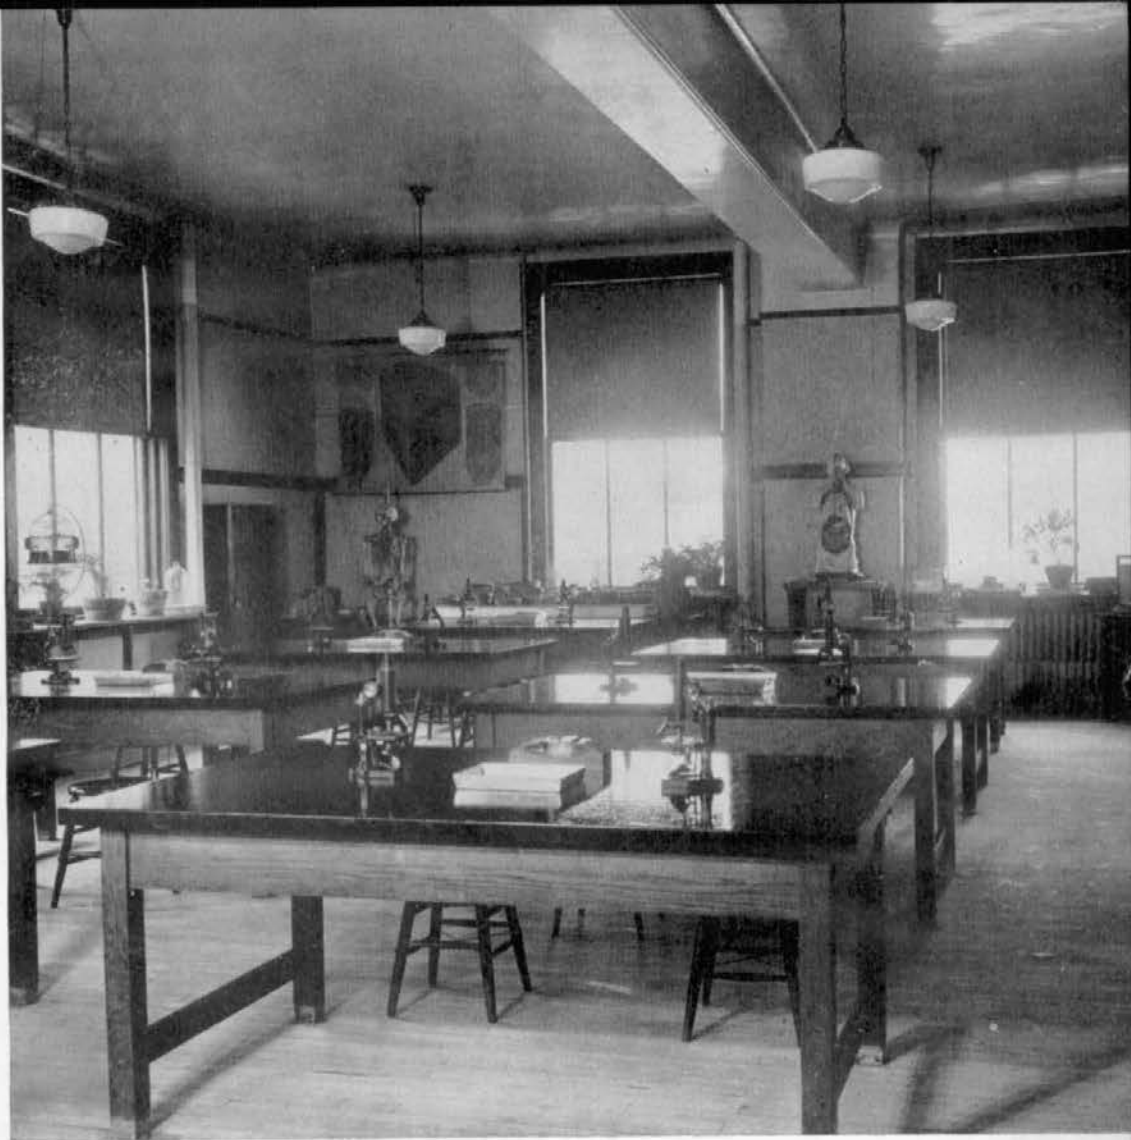

Upper Left: James T. Murphy, Postmaster of Brooklyn; Edward P. McNulty, Justice of the Supreme Court; Vincent J. Carberry, License Commissioner. Below: William J. Richardson, Boro President.

BORO OFFICERS

Giving to Brooklyn Prep its third Boy Borough President in the last four years, William J. Richardson, President of the Prep Student Council, was elected by an overwhelming majority of students representing the public and private schools of the Borough to the honorary office. This was the feature of the annual observance of Boy's and Girl's week which was held this year from April 24 to May 1. The Prep also captured three other positions in the city government when Edward McNulty was chosen to be the Supreme Court Justice of the County of Kings, Vincent Carberry was chosen Commissioner of Licenses and James Murphy was chosen Postmaster General. The officials "took office" on Thursday, April 29.

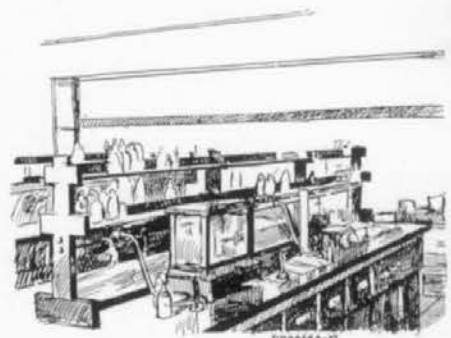

"Boys' and Girl's week" has become an annual celebration whose purpose is to bring to the attention of the adults their duty to the younger generation and also to impress upon the boy and girl their responsibility in the management of civic affairs. As such, the young leaders were feted at several luncheons, were guests of honor at the High School Auditorium Night where William Richardson presided as honorary chairman.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

This club has been organized for the enjoyment and benefit of the German Students. By means of games and talks the students are acquainted with the language and customs of the Germans. The regular membership is about fifteen.

September.—At the first meeting of the year under the direction of the Moderator, Mr. Anthony Fitzgerald the officers were elected. Charles Reilly, President; John Esswein, Vice-President.

October.—Annual outing, to the German Section of New York. After going to see Max Schmeling in one of his pictures, "Knock Out" the members went to a Ratskeller to get something to eat.

December.—"Die Loveler", a German play was presented in the German room.

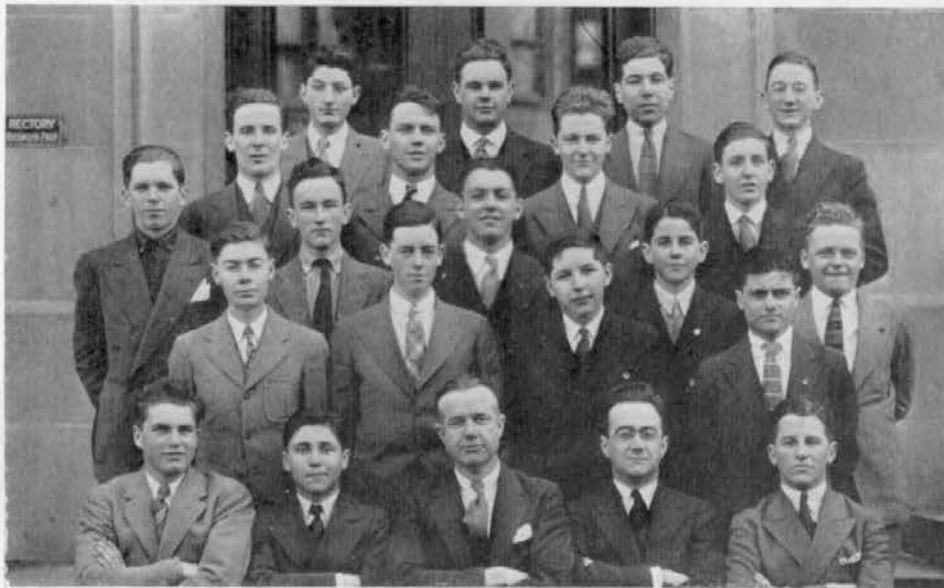

January and February.—The activities were practically at a standstill because of exams and tutoring.

March.—Annual Spring outing to Yorkville. The picture was "Standschitze Bruggler" a story of the war in the Dolomite Alps.

April.—A German play was produced by the members under the direction of Mr. Anthony Fitzgerald.

May.—Ordinary activities are continued with games and talks in the German room.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club has completed one of its most successful years, aided by its new distinguished French member, Monsieur Vander Linden. Vincent Santare, the President, has proved himself worthy of the position since he has served two terms.

This year the meetings were the most interesting of any year since the new French student and secretary of the club Monsieur Vander Linden answers the questions asked by the members and informative talks on sports, movies and literature are urged by our two worthy and distinguished moderators, Messieurs Flynn and O'Rourke.

For the past three years the French Club has been aiding it's members to learn how to speak and understand French better and to produce finished linguists. The club has an outing to some French points of interest in New York. The French Club is a new organization in the Prep and we urge the new French students to join because it is a great help to them in class.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club of Brooklyn Prep has just completed its second season. The very capable moderator and linguistical expert who has made it a greater pleasure to attend the meetings of this club is Mr. Anthony Fitzgerald.

As officers we have Richard Clare, '38, as president and William Shannon, '38, as Vice-President and Secretary.

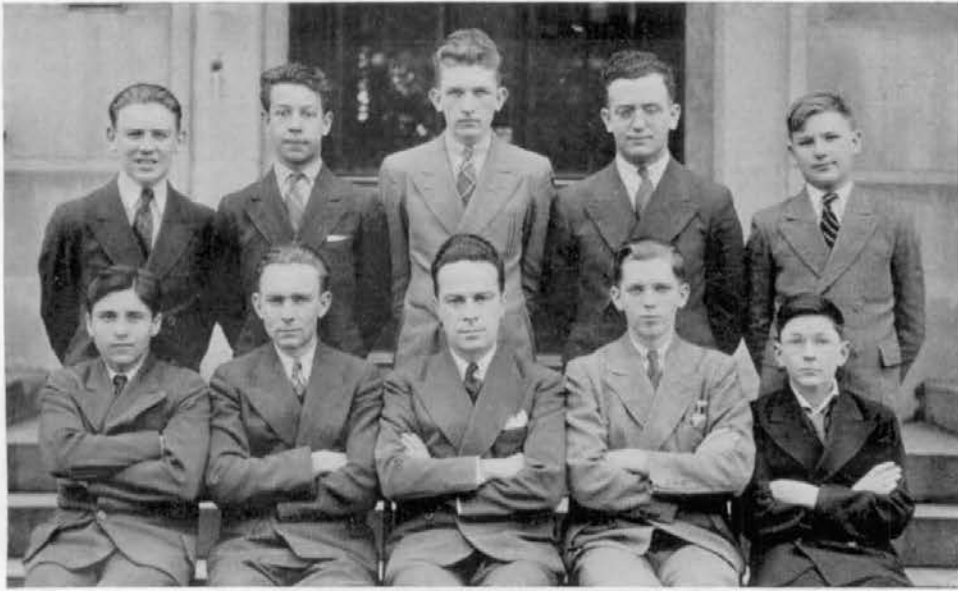

It is with pleasure that we reflect over the various events that stand out and find that the outings to the "Teatro Cervanes", in the heart of the Spanish section are paramount amongst them.

After viewing the movie it is our usual custom to visit a Spanish restaurant in the neighborhood and there in the midst of such colorful surroundings to enjoy a real native meal. This is very welcome since it adds a touch of gastronomical satisfaction to the already pleasant evening.

Another event that is a highlight in our club is the play, which has become an annual affair. This is not only a recreation for the members but also an aid in the procurement of a better Spanish grammar knowledge.

And now in parting we bid you until next year, "vaya con Dios".

CHESS CLUB

Check mate! . . . and so another game of chess has ended, another game of King and Pawn, of wit versus wit.

Last September when the Chess Club held its first meeting an interesting year was planned for the players of the royal game of chess. Mr. J. E. Devlin, the moderator, decided that it would be best to elect officers immediately. William Steele was elected the president and Sylvester Russo the secretary. Following this a tournament determined the chess team. As number one man and Captain Bill Steele leads the team composed of Hume, Russo and Schultz.

In their first match, they drew with Trinity. Although this is their only match so far, future matches are planned with McBurney, Franklin, Regis and Columbia Grammar. As chess is such an interesting pastime the club urges other students to join its numbers and enjoy the so called game of kings. . . .

THE EQUITES

The riding club celebrates its fifth anniversary this year—completing a most enjoyable season. The fellows of the 1933 class introduced a new organization to the Prep. There were about six members then. The students were so attracted by the novelty of this club that the attendance gradually increased to the present number of twenty-five.

The participants of this pastime pleasure unanimously elected Ken McGinn, president, and Bob Oliver, vice-president. Father Higgins was faculty moderator during the first term. His duties as student counsellor made it necessary for him to relinquish the office and he was succeeded by Mr. Perry, S.J. Ken McGinn in an informal talk at the outset of the year urged the eager members of expected participation in indoor and outdoor horse sports.

Let's hope for increasing popularity among the students and a most successful year next term.

CHEER LEADERS

Theirs is a most thankless task whose value is scarcely appreciated as it should be, by any student. The work of the cheer leader is real, it is difficult, and in addition it represents a loyalty and spirit that shows a desire to aid their school's teams where assistance is most needed. These fellows lead the Prep "rooters" through the traditional cheers and songs at all the athletic contests and do their best to produce results which would increase the "fight" and spirit of the team on the field.

Headed by their captain—Dick Howley, the cheer leaders by their con- efforts were a prominent force in Prep victories. Howley and his three John Albertine, Bob Barrett and Harold Sammon were over on the the rooters from their lethargy when the going "got tough" for the boys on the field.

They deserve more than their letter, they deserve the profoundest appreciation of the varsity teams and the student body.

BROOKLYN PREP 14

XAVIER 0

Brooklyn Prep's gridiron warriors trotted out on the greensward of Boys' High Field on the morning of Saturday, October 3, to inaugurate the most successful football season in many years at the Prep. An auspicious opening was provided by a sparkling 14-0 victory over an invading Xavier eleven.

Coach Shanahan's charges displayed a hard blocking, hard tackling line plus a backfield with more than its share of deception. Functioning smoothly throughout the game, the Prep opened hostilities in the first quarter. After being thwarted in their initial threat, the Prep gained possession of the ball on the Cadet's 40 yard marker, and began a touchdown drive. Tommy Miles reeled off three straight first downs, and then culminated the march with a pass over the goal to Captain Stone. Ed McNulty crashed through center for the extra point.

After a scoreless second period, the Prepsters swung into action again in the third chukker. Starting on Xavier's 21 yard stripe, the Prep drove to its second touchdown. Miles dazzled the spectators with fine runs, placing the leather in position for McNulty to plunge over for the six points. Frank Stone kicked a placement through the uprights for the extra point.

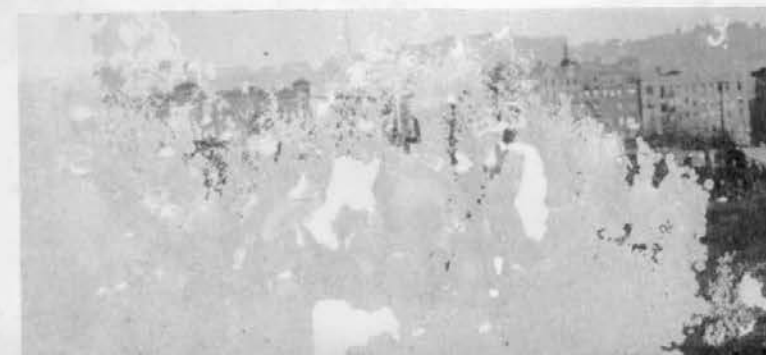

Xavier never did reach scoring distance as its attack was completely thwarted by the fast charging Prep line. Carl Jousley, powerful fullback, bore the brunt of the Cadet's play but, alone, he could not stave off the Crown Heighters. Hopes brightened for a successful season after this wonderful exhibition.

One—Dawson. St. Paul's. around end.

Two—Penalty for off-sides.

Three—Tommy skirts St. John's end.

Four—Asip. St. John's, punting.

 Four—Prismac, John Adams, through center for short gain.

A scrappy, light football team can battle a heavy powerful eleven on even terms for the greater part of a game, but inevitably weight and manpower tells and all one can say is, "They had too much power for us." This is precisely what happened when the Prep fought it out with a strong John Adams' team from Queens. For three hotly-contested periods the fighting Prep team staved off numerous assaults on its goal line, but finally weakened in the last frame to suffer defeat.

The pay-off touchdown came at the start of the final period when Jimmy Wilson, Captain and right half-back of the victors, sliced through right tackle on a tricky reverse play and galloped eighteen yards for the score. Al Tillman booted a perfect placement to make it 7-0. The Ozone Park outfit gained consistently around midfield as Armand Prusmack, scrappy field general, threw many successful passes to his ends, Danny Tallon and Tom Carbone. But when the Presidents hit pay dirt, the Prep line rose to the heights and hurled back the opponent's rushes.

It was mostly a game of defense for the Prep, and the forward wall certainly performed herculean tasks, stopping the Adams' attacks. Frank Stone's excellent punting and the splendid work of Tommy Miles, midget quarterback, featured the weak Prep offensive. This triumph afforded the Queens aggregation sweet revenge for the defeat, which the Blue and White inflicted on them last year.

BROOKLYN PREP 20

FORDHAM PREP 0

The Prep eleven returned to its winning ways when it soundly drubbed a heavier Fordham Prep team, 20-0. The Prep attack, which looked so weak in the Adams' fracas, functioned in high gear as Miles and his backfield associates ripped the Ram's line to shreds.

Again it was Tommy Miles who led the way, streaking across the final stripe for three touchdowns. Taking advantage of the breaks provided by the line, the backs smashed through the loser's defense almost at will. In the second period, Bill Dimucci, Ram halfback, fumbled on his own 20 yard stripe where Jack Hartz fell on the ball, recovering for the Blue and White. On the very first play, Miles, behind perfect blocking by Cavagnaro and McNulty, tore 18 yards before being downed. He then plowed through tackle for the score.

Later in the same period, Wally Coleman, left half of Fordham, dropped the leather after experiencing a severe jolt when he was tackled by Vic Matthews. McNulty recovered on the Maroon 28 yard marker and set the Prep off on another scoring march. On a surprise play, Ed snapped the ball back to Miles, who outraced the bewildered Fordham secondary to cross standing up.

After Stone's beautiful punt which angled out of bounds 2 yards from the goal, Frank Brickfield broke through to block the return kick. The ball caromed off his chest through the end zone for a safety. The last touchdown came as Miles completed a pass to McNulty for a long gain and then shot through tackle to score.

Two—McNulty making first down against Fordham.

Four—Buck "off guard" against John Adams.

A jack rabbit backfield from Maine, operating behind a huge line, sprinted up and down the gridiron on October 23 to give St. Paul's School of Garden City its first victory over the Prep in seven years. This powerful Long Island football machine held complete control of the struggle throughout and only desperate resistance by a courageous Prep team kept the score from rising higher.

The first score came with startling suddenness. Three plays after the second half opened found St. Paul's in possession of the ball on the Blue and White's 35 yard line. The invaders shifted to the right and sent Everett Dawson around that end behind beautiful interference. Dawson wheeled wide and sprinted down the sidelines, crossing the goal without a hand being laid on him.

In the same period with the ball at midfield, Felix Willete, on the identical play, flew along the sidelines, looking like a Caucasian Jesse Owens, for the second score. He followed this up with a placement kick to add another point to the winner's total. After a sustained and brilliant drive in the last period, Stark Shorey plunged across for the third touchdown. The final whistle cut short another dangerous scoring threat by the victors.

The only Prep scoring opportunity came early in the game when Dave O'Connor broke through to block a punt on the visitor's 25 yard stripe. The sphere bounded to the 2 yard line where Jack Hartz pounced on it but the Prep could not push it over the last chalk-mark.

BROOKLYN PREP 6

POLY PREP 0

For the third time since the rivalry began in 1909, Brooklyn Prep defeated Poly Prep in the traditional battle. On the defensive most of the game, the Preppers took advantage of a break late in the final period to trip up the heavier Dyker Heights team.

Poly, with Fauser and Steyman leading, organized a powerful drive in the second period and marched from its own 47 to the Prep's 6 yard line but the end of the first half prevented a score. Again in the third frame, Poly smashed down the field on long drives only to have pass interceptions stop the threats. The spark that set off Prep's slumbering attack was provided by Captain Stone, hero of last year's game, who leaped high in the air to intercept a Poly pass on the Prep's 35 yard stripe. Miles ripped off two 15 yard gains to advance into enemy territory. Then Steinburg, of the Blue and Gray, seized a Prep aerial, seemingly shutting the lid on the scoring threat.

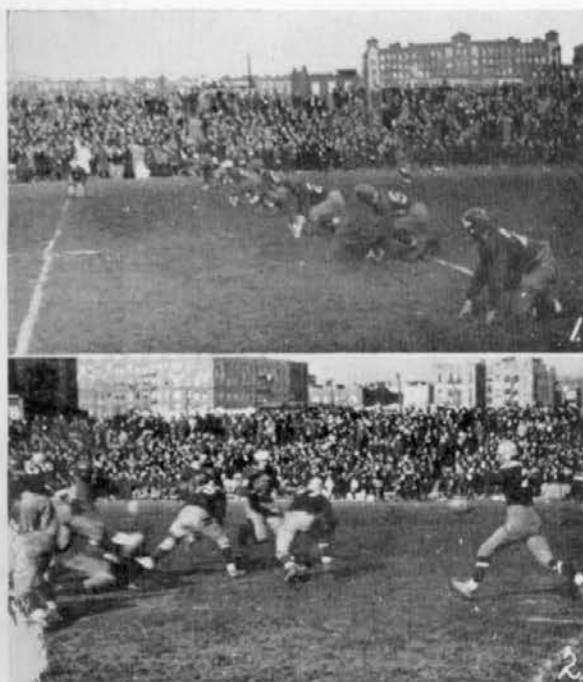

But an attempted reverse on second down misfired and Steyman fumbled. Jack Regan, a bulwark on the Prep's forward wall, pounced on the rolling ball on the loser's 25 yard line. Then Tommy Miles whipped a bullet pass to Nick Cavagnaro, gaining 9 yards. Stopped on a line buck, Tommy wiggled through tackle down to the 5 yard marker. A line smash netted 2 yards and, amidst the crowd's roar, a crack off right tackle by Tommy gave victory to the Prep forces. The remaining minutes were not sufficient for further developments and a wild Prep snake-dance was in order.

One—Asip of St. John's set to kick off.

Two—Frank Stone punting against St. John's.

Three—Dawson, St. Paul's, stopped on reverse.

Four—Fordham Prep recovering fumble.

One—Start of play in St. Paul's game.

Two—Miles off on long run against Fordham.

Three—St. Paul's off on short gain against Prep.

Four—Offside in Prep-Fordham game.

"Anything can happen in football." This popular saying was fully substantiated by the Prep's football season. After losing to St. Paul's, the Blue and White tied an Adelphi eleven which had previously defeated the Garden City team. The Adelphi struggle rates as a moral victory, since the Prep fought a highly-favored team to a well-deserved deadlock.

Although there was no scoring, the battle was an extremely keen one. In the second quarter an Adelphi forward pass sent Guidet over the goal but a clipping penalty nullified the score. Later Adelphi's right tackle, May, attempted a field goal from the 20 yard line, but Ed McNulty crashed through to block the try.

The second half produced most of the fireworks, starting with a Prep offensive, which carried to the opponent's 5 yard line. An untimely fumble frittered away this scoring opportunity. Adelphi staged the greatest offensive of the game with a 73 yard march gained 8 yards and a score seemed imminent. But and Gold's star back, Griffen, did the most ball-carrying. He ripped off two successive first downs lugging the leather to the Prep's 9 yard line. Two plunges down the field. After crossing midfield, the Brown Tony Parmeggiani and his mates in the line became the "Seven Blocks of Granite" for two plays and hurled back Griffen's bull-like rushes, regaining the ball still the yard short of the goal. A latent Prep drive, with Miles twisting and squirming through for good gains, fell short of its objective and the struggle ended in the fairest decision possible—a scoreless tie.

ST. JOHN'S 0

Thanksgiving Day ushered in the climax of the gridiron season and what a fitting climax it was. Not only did the Prep defeat their arch-rival, St. John Prep, but the victory marked the first time in the history of the Prep that both Poly and St. John's were beaten in the same year. A last minute touchdown won the day for the Blue and White to cap a most successful season.

Prep crossed the goal line in the last two minutes of the game when the battle appeared to be headed for a scoreless deadlock. With the St. John's in possession of the ball on her own 24 yard line, Asip, Redmen quarterback, elected to gamble on a victory or nothing. On his second aerial Frank Brickfield snatched the leather in the midst of four red-clad warriors, giving the Prep a chance to tally which it did not pass up. Starting on the 27 yard stripe, Tommy Miles weaved and snake-hipped his way to the 7 yard line before being downed. On third down Tommy faded back and flipped a short pass to Frank Stone who gathered it in his arms on the 4 yard marker and fought his way over the last white line, carrying half the St. John's team on his back.

The Redmen had two good opportunities to score but could not capitalize on either one. Once Asip broke away for a 47 yard gallop but he was caught from behind before he could tally. Late in the second period, the same player attempted a field goal from the 15 yard line after three plays had failed to gain against the Prep forward wall, but the ball sailed wide of the bar.

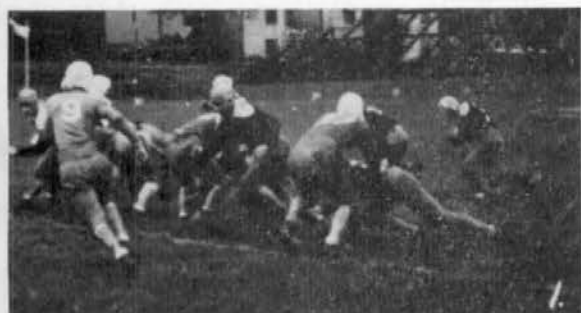

Thus closes perhaps not the finest season but certainly a successful one for the Prep and the whole team must be congratulated on its splendid spirit and determination to succeed.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Under the capable guidance of George Hambrecht, freshman football coach, the youngest gridders of the Prep, went forth in cleats and shoulder pads to become future stars.

The ranks were considerably bolstered by the presence of Jimmy Matthews, brother of "Slug", who played varsity, and George Titus, brother of a former Prep star. Both men played in the backfield. Big Larry Neusse formed a bulwark of defense. Gerry Enright threw many passes that decided our victories.

Against Poly, Titus ran eighty-five yards for our only touchdown. Enright dropped a pass in Fay's arms, giving us a seven point lead. In the third quarter Poly scored a touchdown, but failed to score on a line plunge. This ended scoring giving us a 7-6 victory.

The Tyros rolled up their greatest score against the Shamrocks, whom they trounced 26-0. Enright scored twice, Neusse and Matthews once. The first score came on a pass from Neusse to Enright, from the invaders 3 yard line.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Prep Cross-Country team again enjoyed a very successful season following in the footsteps of its predecessors. It completed the season undefeated in dual meets and finishing second twice and seventh another time in the championship meets.

As a fitting opener for the season, the Prep's defending champions got off to a flying start against Erasmus running up the perfect score of 15-40. The Prep had six harriers breast the tape before Erasmus was able to place.

Journeying to Van Cortlandt Park the Prep added to a long string of victories by conquering Horace Mann 20-35. Seven Prepsters finished in a tie for second place thus securing the victory. Shortly after on the scene of the Horace Mann victory, Poly Prep's hill and dalers bowed to the Prep team to the tune of 24-31.

Following these successful dual meets, the Prep team entered the Private school championships. Second place, garnered by the Prep, was secured only after a small point in the rules gave Loughlin first place instead of the Prep. In the Catholic High School championship on Saturday, Nov. 7 the Prep team again finished second to Loughlin but by the more decisive score of 28-70. To conclude the season the team journeyed to Oakdale for the city championships. Out of forty schools, Prep finished seventh.

BASKETBALL

The whistle blows! The game is on! The Prep is meeting dangerous rivals today but our team looks good on paper and our hopes are riding high. Here are the highlights of the game.

FIRST QUARTER (December)—Opponents drew first blood Freeport (27) catching the Blue and White (22) unawares with a tricky zone defense and break into the winning column. However the Prep (17) undaunted and with plenty of fighting spirit come back against St. Francis (13) and we (24) continue rolling up the points against a weak Trinity team (11) but now the Prepsters (17) are being checked by the league leading St. Augustine quintet (22). Here the quarter ends with the score in a 2-2 deadlock.

SECOND QUARTER (January)—The team goes into the second quarter with the score evened, and we are determined to break the deadlock, but St. John's (22) in 20 seconds after the whistle cuts the Prep defense (17). Determined to score the Blue and White sinks a pop shot, playing Cathedral, (26) and we (29) are evened again. Three seconds later we (23) sink another shot against Loughlin (19). Again we rush the basket and Prep (33) rings up a two-pointer against St. Michaels (15). Then a foul is called against the Blue and White (19) and Adelphi sinks the one point (20). After a time out Regis changes to a man-to-man defense and we discourage (31) their (17) new move. Once more we (30) follow up the shot with another against Poly (18). St. Peter's Tournament Play seems wraptly exciting. The Blue and White (44) scores against Loyola (18); again we (31) score on Regis (18). We (25) immediately top St. Peter's (12) before the whistle.

THIRD QUARTER (February)—At the beginning of the second half the Prep (38) continued its winning streak romping all over Trinity (11) but here the defense stiffened in the form of Cathedral (15) but not enough for the dead shot artists of Crown Heights (19) who continue in their scoring splurge until we (12) are momentarily stopped by the champion St. Augustine outfit (32). Wow! They don't stop us now. Our boys (27) crush St. John's (18) in a fast contest and score quickly over St. Paul's (21-24) and the highly touted

St. Joseph's club of West New York (23-21). Then coasting on our lead the Prep defense is shattered (12) by a fighting Loughlin five (20). In the closing moments of the quarter the Blue and White courtman (23) score easily over a small but scrappy St. Michael's team (16). Score at the end of the third quarter 17-16.

FOURTH QUARTER (March)—The last quarter was all Prep. We (33) score on McBurney second time (27). We sink two foul shots against St. Francis (21); and our (23) opponents are held scoreless. Just before the final whistle, play becomes furious (K. of C. Tournament) with the Prep scoring twice, once over Don Bosco (25-18) and over Regis (24-23) and St. Francis coming from behind to win a close victory (25-24) and with seconds left to play we (26) swish the net for the last time against St. Simon Stock (18). There goes the whistle. We've won! The score was 21-7 with Hartz (All-Scholastic) the high scorer with 140 points.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Mr. "Bingo" McMahon and George Hambrecht combined in the tutelage of the Frosh cagers, one of the most successful of Tyro rim-tossing teams in some years. The team, due to inexperience, dropped their first two games, although in the second contest, it was a Jay Vee team that conquered our Frosh.

The team opened on December 23 against Regis. They dropped the game 15-11. Then the cagers met McBurney Jay Vee and experience proved too much and we came out on the short side of 27-12. On January 15 we again met the Regis Wrens and won 23-22. We topped, in our next game, the St. Thomas grammar school 28-7. The cubs in an overtime period conquered a stubborn Brooklyn Tech quintet 23-21. However, the winning streak was snapped by the St. Augustine's Frosh to the tune of 13-11. We met our arch rivals in the St. John's Cubs and won 12-6. The Prep, after a week lay-off beat the "Imps", downing them 14-8. Adelphi next invaded the tyro lair and were thoroughly drubbed 30-2. St. Michael's were then set into the Prep's winning column by an easy 35-18 score.

The record speaks for itself. Many future stars are included on such a team.

PING PONG

Each year there is an increased interest in the game here at the Prep. After being confined to inter-class efforts, we learned that the Private Schools A. A. had sanctioned a table tennis league and a tournament was to be conducted in January and February of this year.

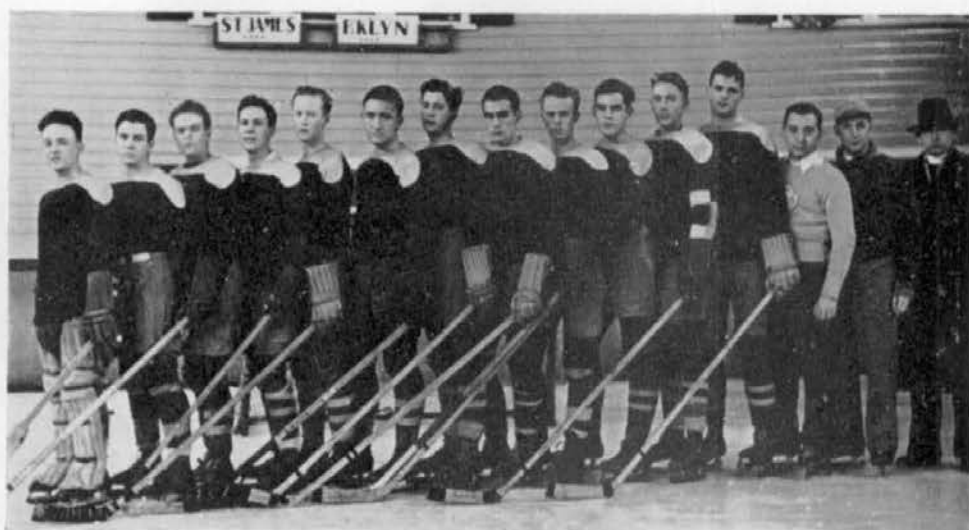

The major school tournament of the year was held during the winter to select a team. William Brennan won the individual title by defeating John Zoller in the finals after a stiff battle. Thomas Patterson and Ralph Gerra were the other semi-finalists.

The team was chosen from the quarter-finalists in the tournament and besides the above mentioned, three others were selected, Charles Boyd, Bob Garside and Thomas Dineen.

In the spring an intra-mural contest between classes is to be held in which 4B-1 will defend the title which it won so easily last year.

Ping Pong though only in its third year at the Prep has already been received with amazing enthusiasm and, competitively speaking, attracts more adherents than any other sport in the school.

HOCKEY

The 1937 season was the most successful for the Prep varsity. They not only won the Metropolitan Private School title but ended the season undefeated and were tied only by two strong out of town outfits.

Coach Wally Murray's call for candidates was answered by an entirely veteran combine with the Deegan brothers, Bill and Chub, flanking Johnny Smith on the forward line and Vin Finnely and Ed. McLaughlin, defense men, backed by the sterling goal play of Tommy Miles.

Opening with a 3-1 league victory over St. John's, the team marched through the league schedule without suffering a loss or a tie. They reached their peak when they turned back the challenge of the second place St. Francis team by the one sided score of 5-1 to clinch the title.

Twice, the team was invited to play games away from New York, first meeting Loyola of Baltimore and playing a 1-1 tie and then traveling to Westchester to play a scoreless deadlock with A. B. Davis.

Many of the team's members have played their last game, including Smith, the two Deegans, Miles, McLaughlin and Bannin. Coach Murray will face the task of building a team around his one veteran regular, Vin Fennelly and some of this year's reserves, who are Isaacson, Fellingham, Whelan, Baxter, Keyes, Moran, Toner and Larkin.

PREP IN THE CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT

SWIMMING

The '36-'37 swimming team, hard hit by graduation, had difficulty in starting, but hit its stride as the season progressed and finally gained third place in the league, only two full games behind Loughlin, the Champions. The Prep natators sunk St. Augustine, St. John's and St. Michael's in interscholastic meets.

In non-league competition the Brooklyn mermen managed to keep their heads above the water. The Prepsters lost to Poly and dropped a close 31-33 decision to Columbia Grammar but came back against Marquand, splashing through to a 40-33 victory and in the last meet of the season Prep garnered fifth place out of a group of ten teams, in the Catholic School Swim at Villanova with only two men, namely Bob Bannin and Bill Madden. The medley team composed of Coneys, O'Neil, Murphy and Madden did justice to itself and to the entire team throughout the year.

Under the direction of Coach Mullins and Mr. King, S. J. were developed such capable stars as Co-Captain Bob Bannin, diver; voted on the all-Catholic team; Co-Captain Bill Harvey, outstanding back stroke artist; Frank Deegan, diver and free styler of the first order and Bill Madden, promising newcomer who should prove invaluable next year.

First Row: Ingham, Timmes, Hayden, Maher; Second Row: Callery, Reilly.

INDOOR TRACK

Scoring seventeen points in the O. L. P. H. meet, we finished second to Loughlin, the defending champions. In the Millrose meet, the mile relay, composed of Hayden, Timmes, Ingham and Callery, finished third in their heat, running the extremely good time of 3:34. In the Catholics, fight brought places to Luke Hayden and Tom Courtney in the mile, to Callery in the half-mile and to Reilly in the "100.". In the nationals the mile relay with Reilly running for Ingham, climbed back to success. Although the baton passers finished fourth, they also broke the record, a wonderful performance.

Highlights:—Finley's mile in the O. L. P. H. meet; Callery's 1:21-600 yard run and Reilly's novice victory at Jersey; Timmes' 52.2 quarter in the Millrose; Luke Hayden's mile in the Catholics; Dick Hayden's leg on the mile relay in the Nationals; Ingha. . . 20 on the medley in the Stuyvesant Meet; the fine races by the Freshman relay team of McElduff, Pollack, Titus and La Borne.

BASEBALL

Although graduation has taken many good players, the Prep varsity is looking forward to a successful season. From the team, which in '36 was runner-up for the Catholic League crown, the squad retains such veterans as John Hartz, Ray Smith, Bill Schwitter, Tommy Miles, Frank Brickfield, Ed Hogan, Vic Matthews and John Hedderson. To these will be added some of last year's J. V. stars, who will be called on to fill the vacant varsity berths. The foremost of these are "Chub" Deegan, Tom Brownworth, Jerry Jones, Bill Bowne, Jack O'Connell, Jim Clark and the season's "find", Emmett Greeley.

Last year's playing was featured by the steady pitching of Hartz and Smith, the heady catching of Schwitter and the team's all around consistent hitting especially by Brickfield, Miles and Schwitter.

This year's lineup is well balanced both as regards fielding ability and hitting power, "Chub" Deegan being at first, John Hedderson at second, Emmett Greeley at shortstop, Tom Miles at third.

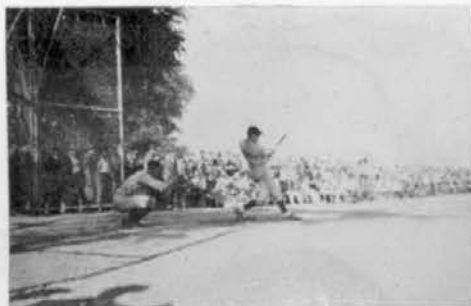

J. V. BASEBALL

First Row: Maher, McManus, Ahrens, O'Hara, Kennedy; Second Row: Lewnes, Fay, Gehrhardt, Firth, Harris, Travers; Back Row: Garvey, Pumo, Bachman.

The outfield has plenty of hitting strength with the consistent batting trio of Frank Brickfield, Tom Brownworth and Ed Hogan with Vic Matthews as substitute. Brickfield has already proved his ability as a steady hitter while Brownworth and Hogan have not yet had the equal of his competitive experience.

For the hurling staff there are John Hartz and Ray Smith, who have had previous varsity experience and both contributed much toward the team's success. Also for further duty there is Bill Bowne and Jerry Jones. With such a staff the team will rank high in league as regards to pitching ability.

That's about all that can be summed up concerning the 1937 squad and it leaves us with great hopes for success. Let's hope that we will once more bring the Catholic School pennant back to the Prep.

TENNIS

At the time of this writing, the tennis season has just opened. Every afternoon the "twang" of ball against racquet can be heard as the young hopefuls anxiously polish up their court tactics under the observant eye of Mr. Charles Goode, tennis coach.

At Mr. Goode's first call a group of some fifty odd candidates reported for practice. From these aspirants the coach must select a group of about ten to form the nucleus of his varsity squad. The standout candidates at present are John Redmond, hard hitting Captain, Bob Bannin, Vin Carberry, Ralph Gerra, Tom Fogarty and Bob Rothlein.

With these experienced men and with the addition of a few of the more promising recruits, the Prep tennis team has high hopes of enjoying a very successful season. This year, with the inauguration of the Catholic High School Tennis League, the team will meet the best in Metropolitan tennis circles opening with Regis and closing with the strong St. Peter's squad. The rest of the opposition includes Dwight, St. Michael's, Iona, St. Francis, St. Paul's of Garden City, Mount St. Michael's, McBurney, St. John's, Fordham and Adelphi.

OUTDOOR TRACK

The outdoor season started with a promise of more success than any Prep team has enjoyed in recent years. Coach Giegengack sent a small squad up to N. Y. U. on April 17th to engage in the first meet. Giving a creditable showing here they indicated that they were in good condition for the Penn Relays the next week.

A seven man team went down to Penn on Friday, April 23rd. Competing the same afternoon the mile relay team, composed of Maher, Hayden, Callery and Timmes triumphed by forty yards. This made the third consecutive year a Prep team has been victorious in this event.

The next day, Saturday, Coach Giegengack sent a two-mile relay into the Championship of America event. Callery, Timmes and Maher led for the first three legs but Tom Courtney could not quite match the finishing drive of the Drake Prep anchor man and the team was forced to be content with second. These performances however, contributed the best running ever done by a Prep team at Penn.

A dual meet with Poly is next in line and victory is expected since the team is running well. Following this is the Private School Championships in which the Blue and White should make a creditable showing in the Senior Division and possibly win the Junior-Midget Division.

During the season they will engage in the Catholic Championship, Catholic Novice Championships, the National Invitation Championships and the La Salle Invitation meet. The Prep should place well among the leaders in all of them.

APPRECIATIONS

WE, the staff of the 1937 "Blue Book," wish to extend our sincere appreciation to all those who have cooperated in any way to make this, the latest edition of the "Blue Book," successful. But most of all we are indebted to:

Reverend John H. Klocke, S.J., for his ever available and willing help in every phase of the work;

Mr. Edward W. McCawley, S.J., our Moderator, for his encouraging counsel of our own work;

Mr. Francis J. Diamond, S.J., for his able direction of business affairs.

The members of the faculty for their gracious assistance rendered in many ways;

The Neumann Brothers, Woodhaven Press, for their painstaking labor over this book.

The Chemical Photo Engraving Company, for their anxiety to please, and their representative, Mr. John J. Keneally, for his courteous care and advice;

The Champlain Studios, for their invaluable service, and Miss Joan Mosler of the firm, for her careful compliance with our desires;

The Advertisers in the "Blue Book" for their loyalty and good will, and in addition, those who worked to secure advertisements.
