Foreword

Counsel

Knowledge

Fortitude

Understanding

"And because you are sons, God has sent the spirit of His son into your hearts . . ." (Gal. IV, 6)

Our years at the Prep are channels through which the Divine Spirit sends His Seven Gifts that we may grow "unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the age of the fullness of Christ."

(Eph. IV, 13)

Piety

Wisdom

Fear of God

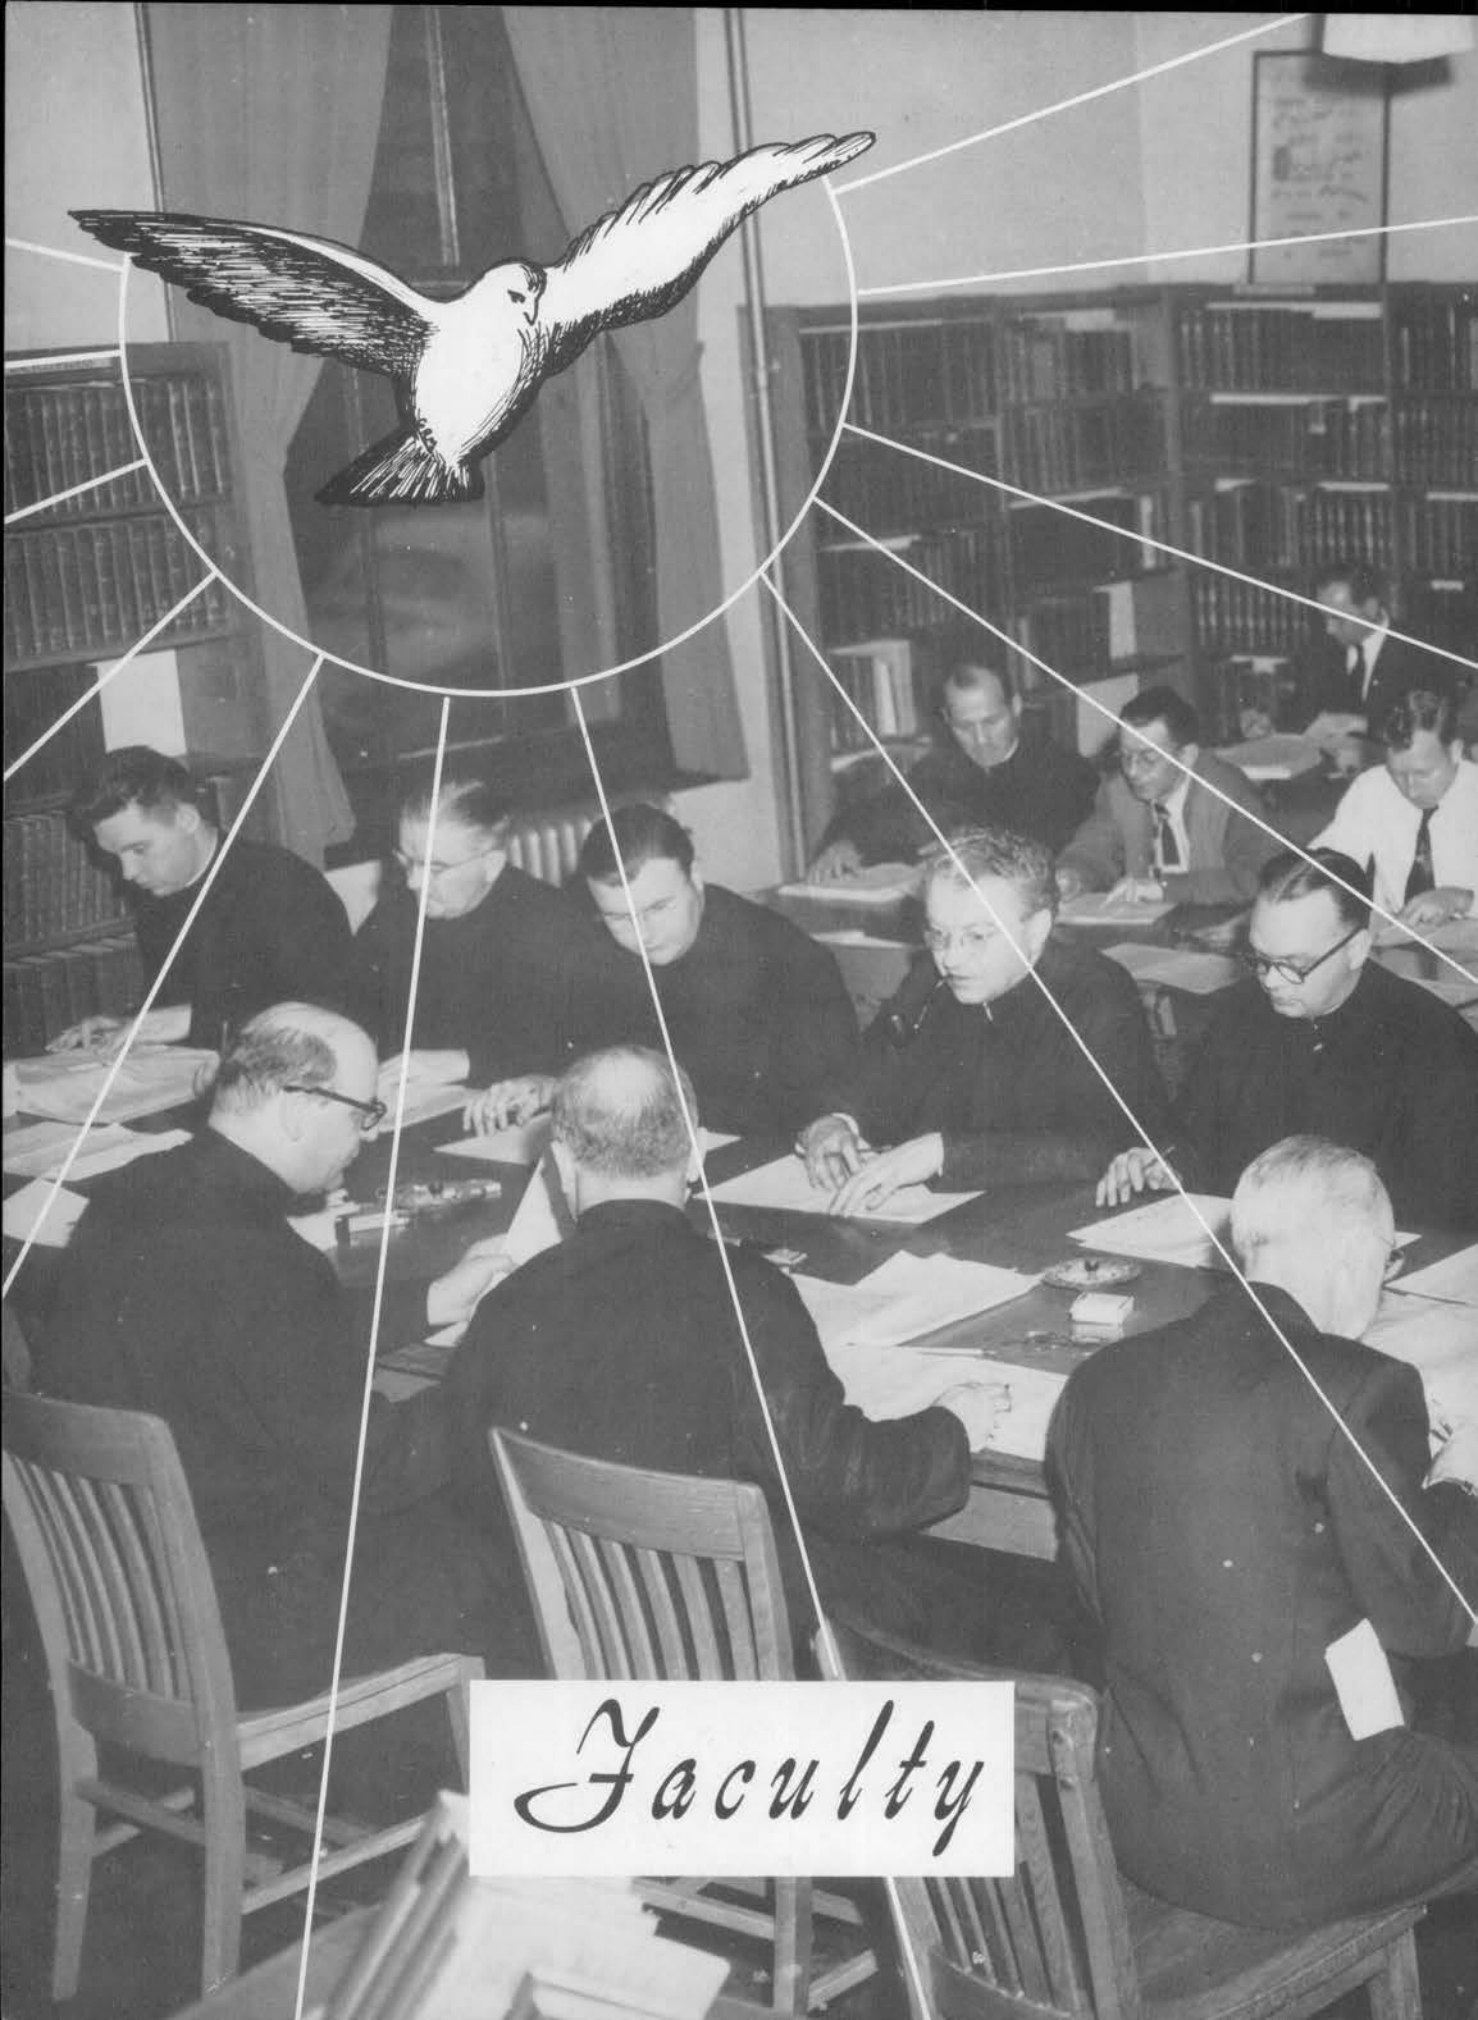

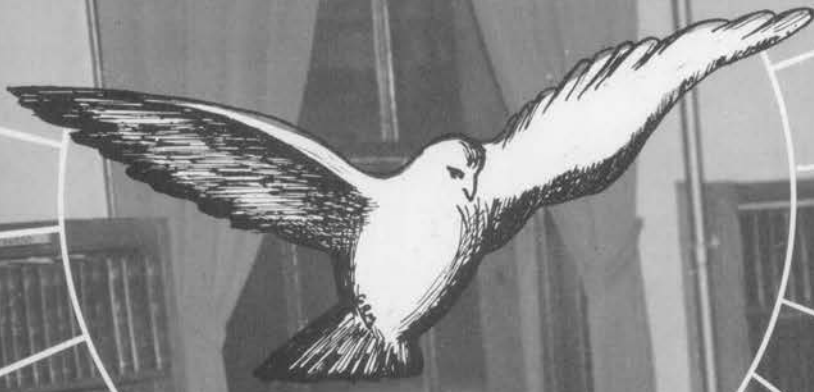

Dedication

It is not merely because Father Kleber has been the principal instrument of the Divine Spirit in helping us grow to Christ-like maturity that we, the Seniors, dedicate our yearbook to him. We have, besides, found him a personal friend, one dedicated to our moral and intellectual welfare, a friend whose dedication has been well proven by his understanding guidance and untiring labor for us on every possible occasion. May the Divine Spirit reward his unselfishness by increasing in him His Sevenfold Gift.

Reverend Jerome J. Kleber, S. J.

Faculty

Counsel

From our first day at Prep the words and example of our teachers have been used by the Holy Spirit to foster within us the Gift of Counsel, the light to say and do the right thing in every circumstance in which we find ourselves.

Knowledge

Knowledge — a supernatural grasping of the truths of faith and facts of creation is the reward of our efforts at study each day of each year in our career at Prep.

Our very human words cannot supplement the soul-touching grief which seized upon us when we learned of Neil's death. We were glad he had chosen to come to Prep, because, in his quiet way, he added so much to our happiness. His own cheerfulness, his wide interests, the seriousness of purpose that made him an honor student—all leave us with a warm glow when we think of Neil and are an assurance that we have a devoted new patron in the Kingdom of Our Father.

Spiritual Activities

Piety and Fear of God

Only that school can lead a boy to perfect manhood which fosters in him reverence for God and filial loyalty to Him. Through the spiritual activities at Prep the Holy Spirit channels these gifts of Fear of the Lord and Piety.

At Mount Manresa the seniors make the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Fr. John Magan, S.J., with retreat captains Bob Hanna and Mike McAdam.

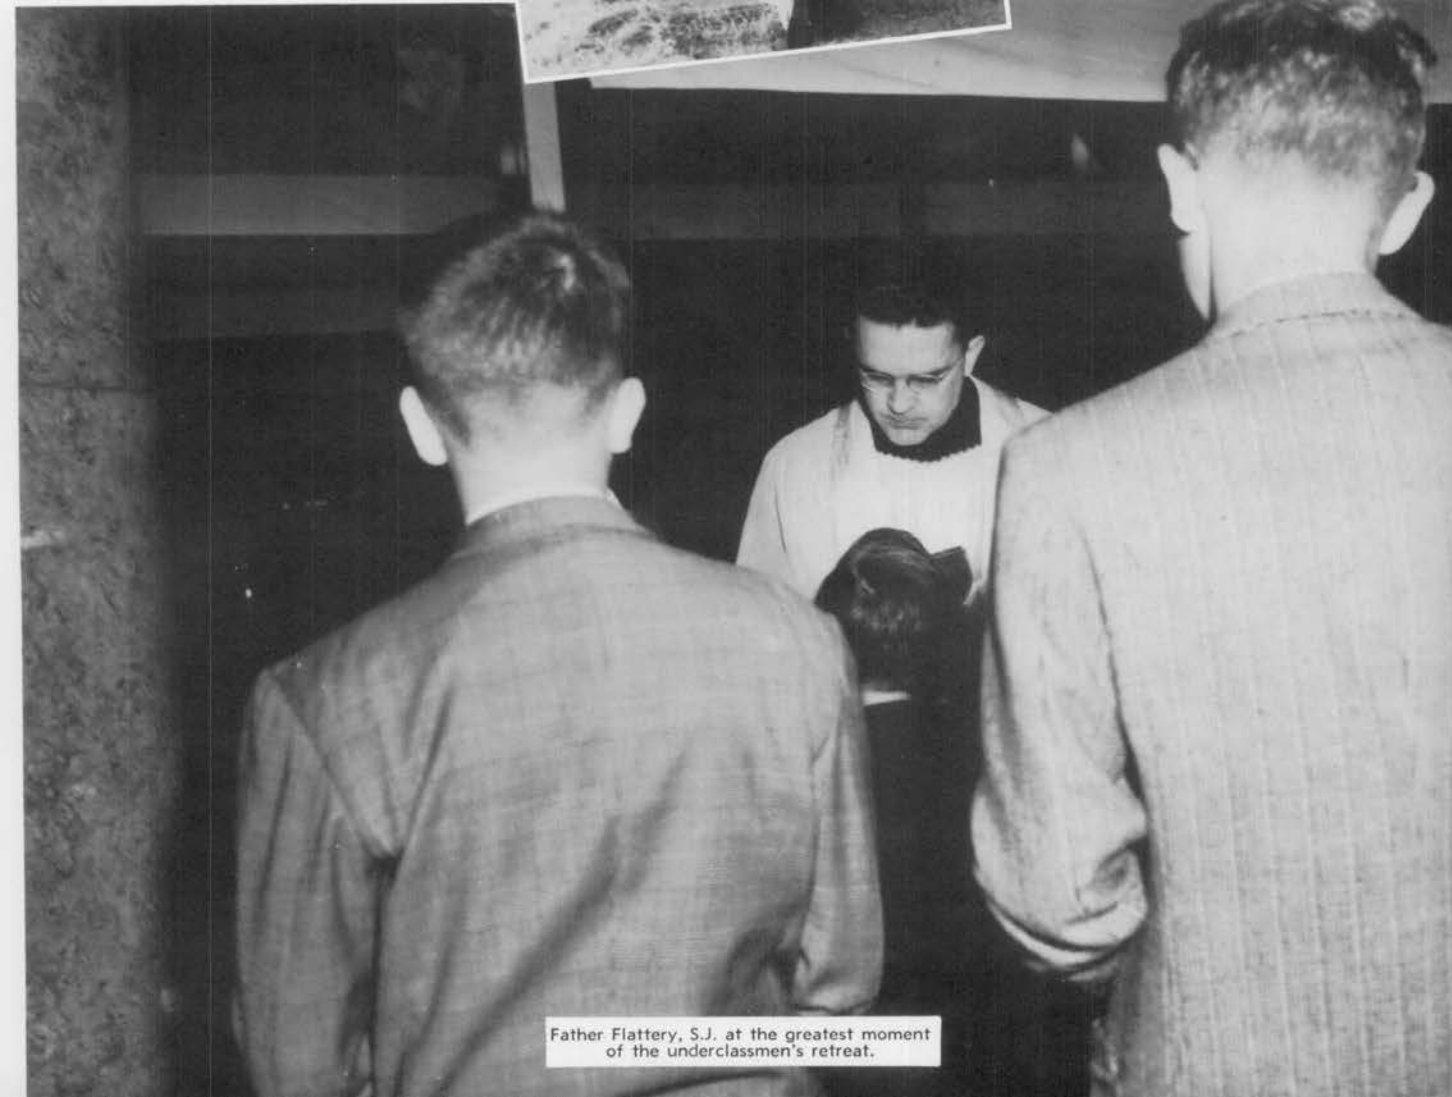

Fr. Justin McCarthy, S.J., with retreat captains Ray DiNapoli and Jim Golden.

Retreats

"Will there be baseball in heaven?" "What's wrong with mixed marriages?"—Such is the range of topics at the retreat question box.

Wisdom

As we reach the crossroads of our youth we need the maturity of the mind of Christ; that is, to see all things in God as their first cause and last end. May the Holy Spirit accomplish this in us by the greatest of His Gifts, Wisdom.

"Father, I will that where I am, they also whom Thou hast given Me may be with Me . . . (John, 17, 24.)

Damian L. Carrubba

Died February 28, 1951

One could always be assured of a hearty greeting and a winning smile when he met Damian Carrubba. He made everyone feel that life, despite its trials, is an adventure worth living. "Damy", full of energy and universal in his friendliness, possessed not a single quality which could make one dislike him. It was a very tragic moment for everyone at Brooklyn Prep when we learned of his untimely death. Still sad at the memory of it, but happy to say we were his friends, we earnestly pray that his ever joyous spirit rests in eternal joy with our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

O Divine Spirit, Third Person of the Holy Trinity, our hearts are warm with gratitude to You as we come to the end of our high-school years. In 1947, when You brought us to Brooklyn Prep, we were only boys, but our minds and hearts were fully opened to the flow of Your Gifts so that as we advanced in age, by Your help we might also advance in wisdom and grace. Our families and teachers and friends have been Your wonderful instruments in bestowing Your Gifts on us. Our prayer, our classes and our activities have been broad channels from which we could be flooded with as much of Your graces as we were willing to accept. And so now we thank You for Your immense goodness to us and we reverently congratulate You for the work You have wrought within us, making us grow closer to Your sublime goal—that we be other Christs. Help us to prove our gratitude by confidently aspiring to see so glorious a task fulfilled in us—the fullness of the manhood of Christ.
