

BLUE BOOK

1955

John P. Tutunjian
Brooklyn Prep Graduate

January 14, 2006

This 1955 Blue Book is being presented to the Brooklyn Prep Archive with my compliments.

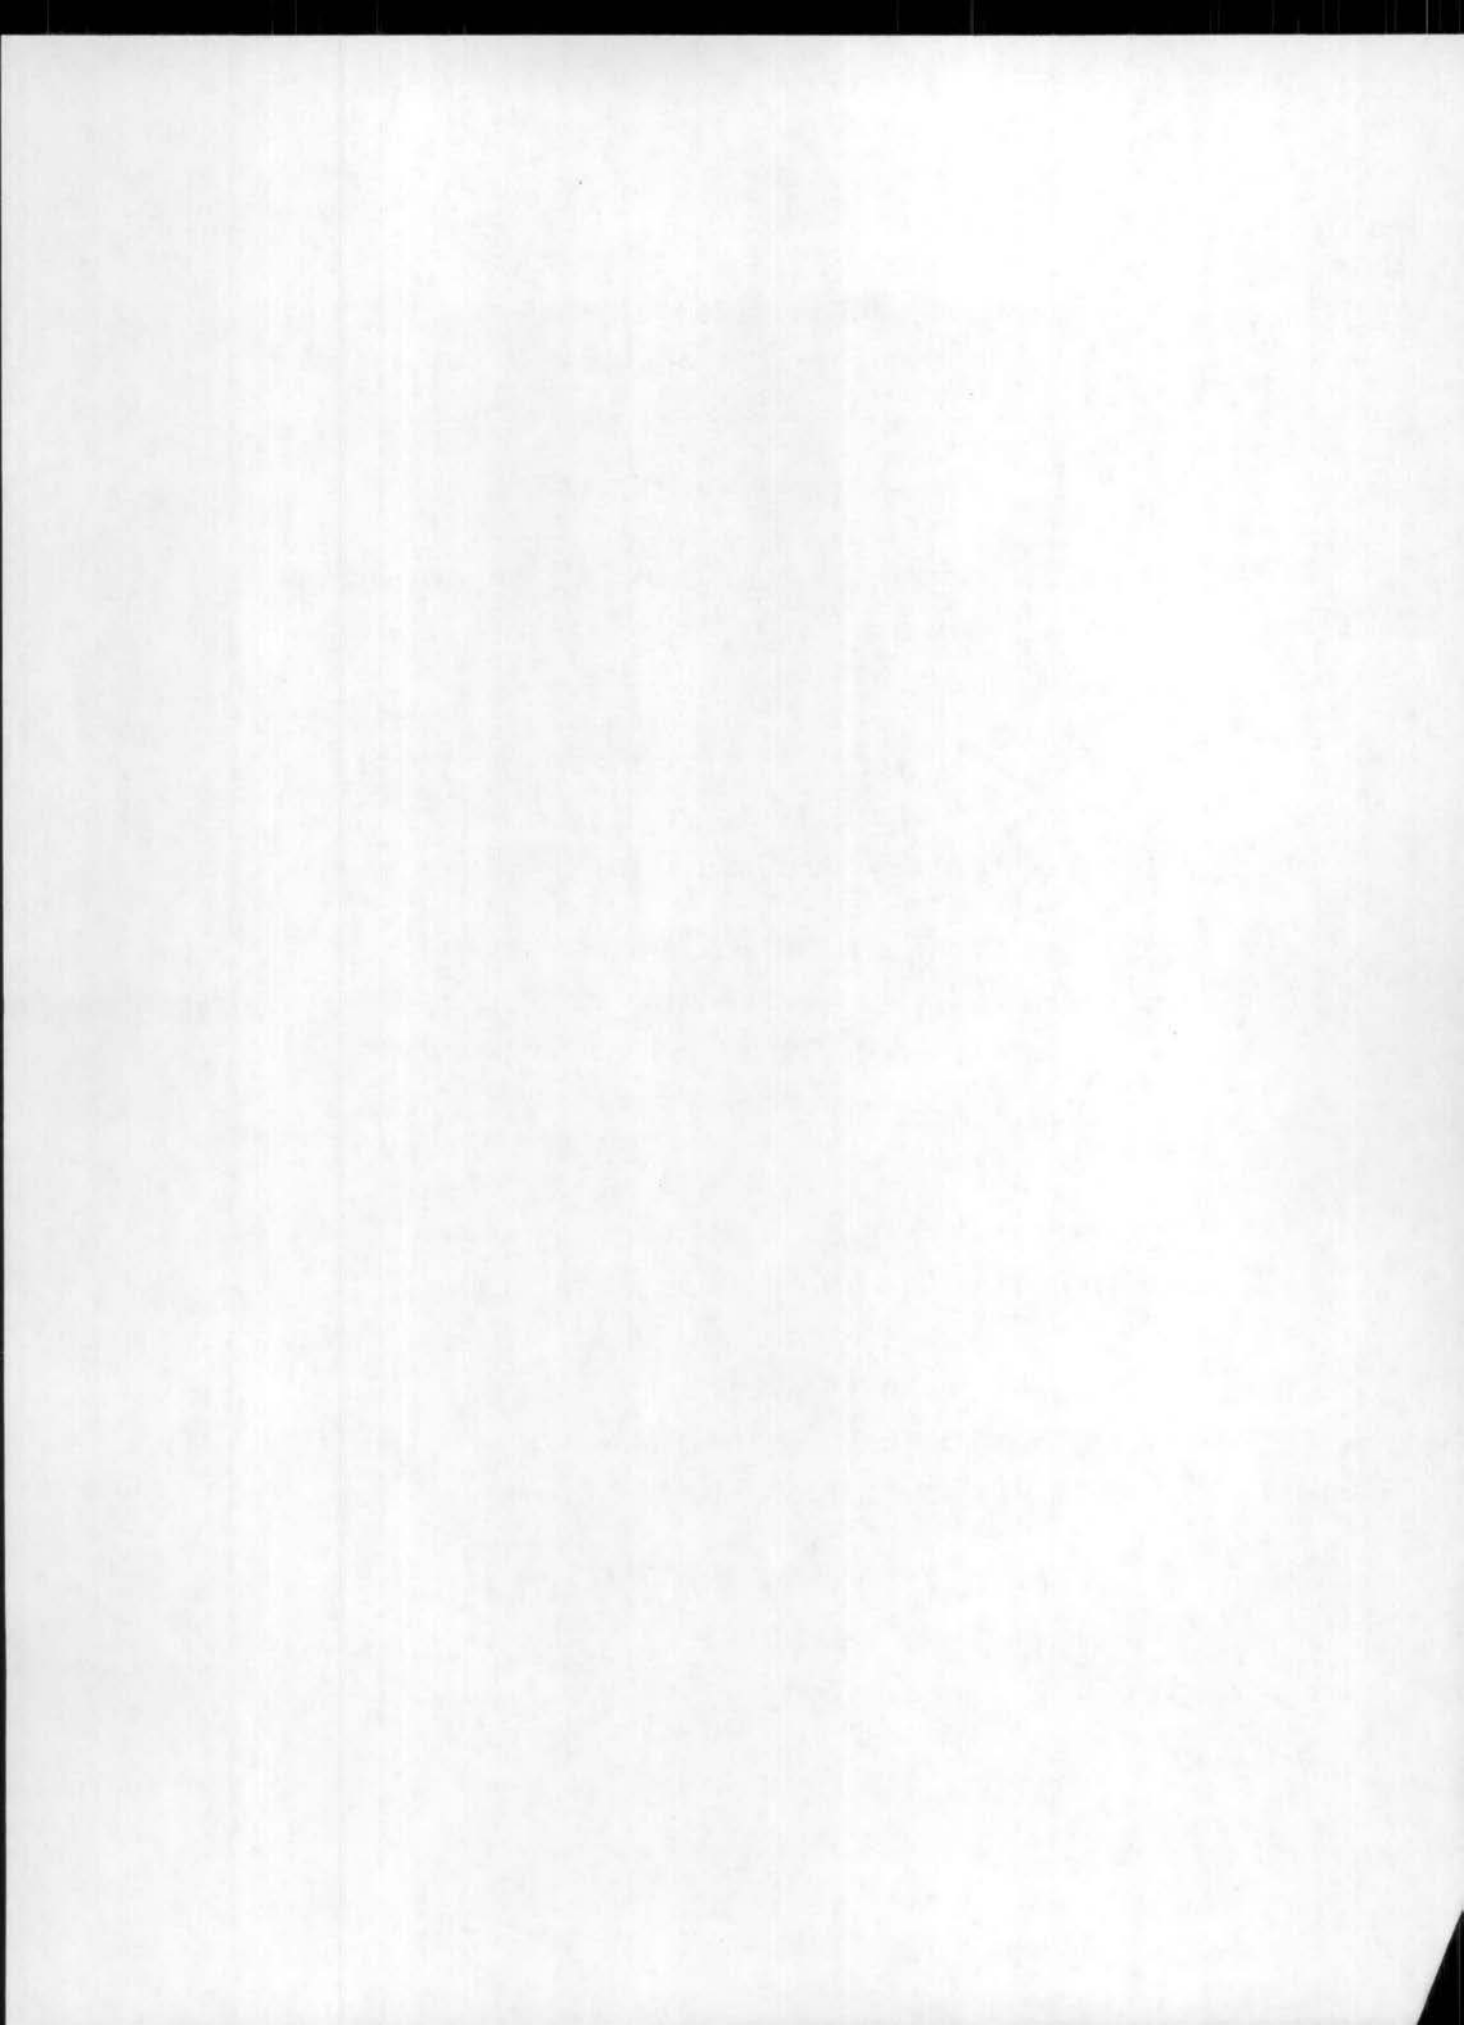

My four years at The Prep (1951-1955) shaped my mind, body, and soul, more than any other period in my life.

It is being presented with undying gratitude to the Jesuit, and lay, men who presided over my most formative years. They will forever be in my thoughts and in my prayers.

My only hope is that those of you who glance through these pages have likewise been touched by these selfless men who dedicated their lives to bringing us just a little bit closer to living our life as we were taught:

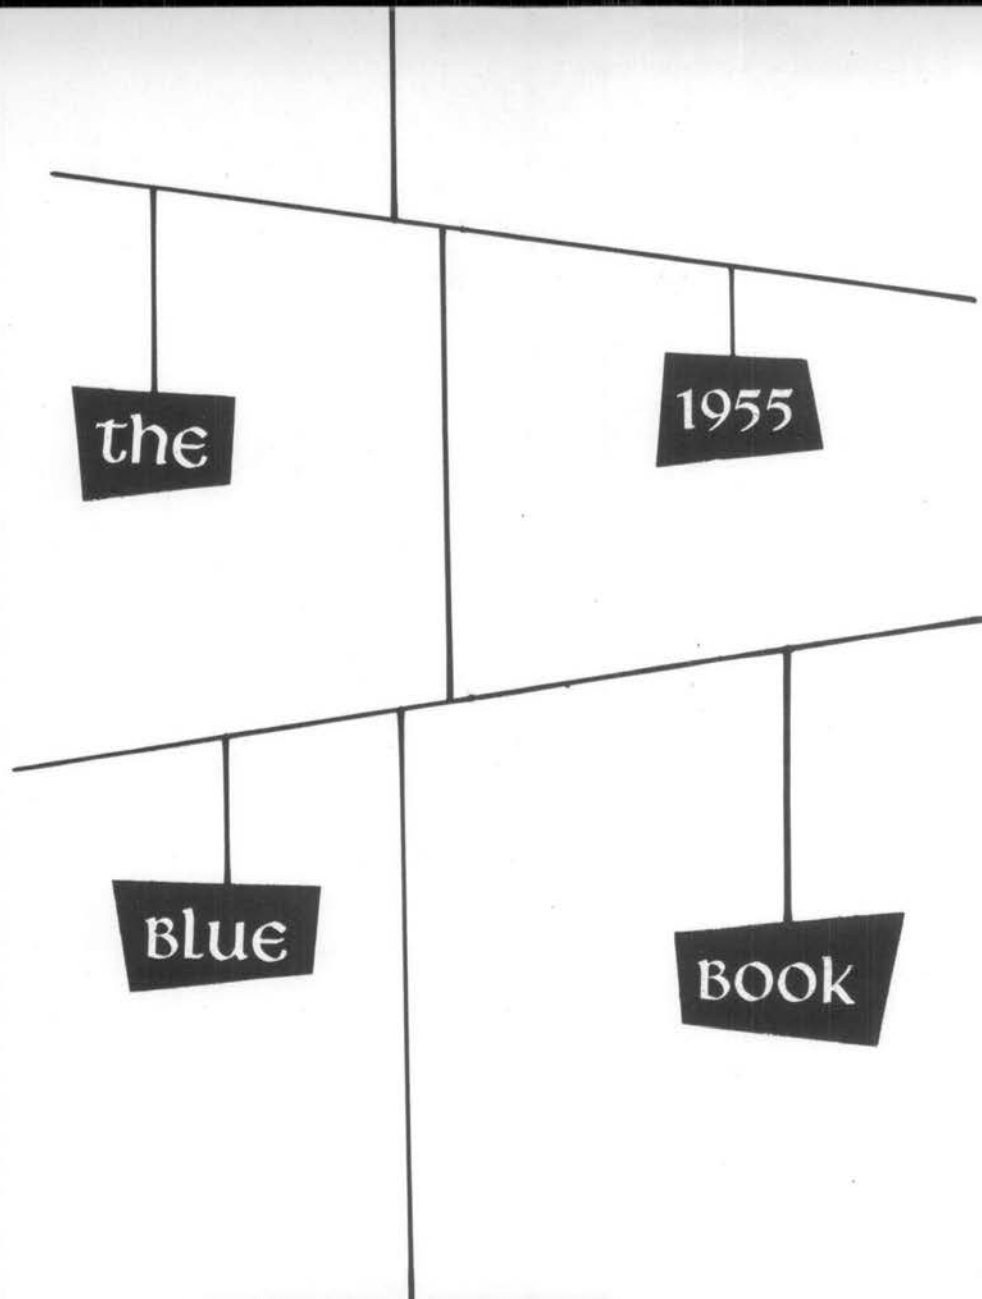

“Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam”

FOREWORD

St. Paul, "Apostle of the Gentiles" . . . Paul's zeal surpassed a roaring holocaust in its fervor. And so it is more than fitting that we have chosen him for the theme of our '55 Blue Book. Paul was one man in a thousand—a man whose passionate pursuit of his ideals stepped over anything in its path. Yet he passed rather than trampled, for Paul was a man of God.

Paul fired this zeal on three missionary journeys; and so too, Prepman have three definite journeys — three very portent paths — Sanitas, Scientia, Sanctitas. Whether a Prepman be on the gridiron, in the classroom, on the rostrum, or humbly kneeling in the chapel, he is forwarding the ideals which embody the principles of Jesuit education.

The same zeal that moulded the character of St. Paul is the goal of every prepman—a goal which is the mutual development of three principles — Sanitas, Scientia, Sanctitas — and the pages of this Blue Book are the product of that zeal.

DEDICATION

"For what thanks can we return to God for you, in all the joy wherewith we rejoice for you before God."

St. Paul; Thessalonians 3, 9

Jesus so loved His earthly parents, Mary and Joseph, that He lived with them, obeyed them, respected them, and loved them for thirty years of His human life. The all-powerful God Who had created these two mere humans honored His parents for three decades with the Divine gift of His presence.

We, the students of Brooklyn Prep, in imitation of Our Savior, wish to offer some token of our love, admiration, and gratitude to you, our parents, who have cared for us in body and soul for these many years since you brought us into the world. Our mouths are mute to utter our untold thanks for all that you have done for us. Though we are silent we do not let our food, clothing, education, and your sacrifices go unnoticed and without a deep inner feeling of gratitude.

Not only do we owe our physical lives to you but our spiritual lives as well. It is you who have given us our faith and, what is more important, you have taught us how to live in that faith.

Since our actions say what our lips cannot, we, the students, offer our mute tribute, our Blue Book, which has been dedicated to you, the parents of the students of Brooklyn Prep.

“Christ in you, your hope of glory! Him we preach, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Jesus Christ.”

St. Paul; Colossians 1, 28

Each of the forty-four faculty members of Brooklyn Prep is in every sense of the word a true Apostle of Christ. Not only do they form mature minds from adolescent through mental training and discipline, but, what is more important, they form the complete catholic man through their words and example. Whether it be a comment during class, or their presence at K.B.S., by their every action they display their desire to give the Prep student their good example. The men in the following pages are truly dedicated men, dedicated to the work of forming spiritual characters in their students.

SENIORS

“The night is far advanced; the day is at hand
Let us therefore lay aside the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light.”

St. Paul; I, Cor. 12, 11

These are the men of Brooklyn Prep. Men who have conquered the difficulties of four years trial. They were found with a decision—a decision similar to that which troubled St. Ignatius—the same decision found by every man in the world. And they have decided with the faith and zeal, that is the innate glory of their victory.

These men are great beyond the realms of temporal glory. They are destined leaders of tomorrow—not principally for natural talents, whether they be athletic, aesthetic, or spiritual but because they acquired the moral, and physical stability common to graduated students of Brooklyn Prep. They have achieved more than marks or medals, more than just schoolboy satisfaction, they have found their manhood, here, at Brooklyn Prep.

We can only be grateful and moreover proud that we have had a hand, a large hand, in forming their characters. These are the students of Brooklyn Prep, these are leaders tomorrow will be proud of—these are Catholic gentlemen.

“Fight the good fight of faith:
lay hold on eternal life whereunto thou art called . . .”

I Timothy 6-12

We may only offer our heart-felt consolation to the family of this honored Prepman who has gone before us. Our hearts are but burdened with the regret that we must wait longer for the glory he has so truly earned. He was a true Prepman.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child
I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man,
I have put away the things of a child.

St. Paul; I Corinthians 13, 11

The first three years at Prep are probably the most memorable of a Prepman's entire. After his introduction to the Latin half-sheet and creased gym trunks in his first week, he gains new friends, memories, experiences, and problems with each successive period of each successive day.

While Freshmen Library Science, the mystery and mastery of parallel lines for the Sophomore, and Cicero's Orations, read by the Juniors, are important and memorable for themselves, they comprise only a part of Prep life. His outside experiences are also an integral part of Prep days. During this brief interlude of thirty-six months, the Prepman experiences the first formal, the first shave, the first cigarette, and the first steady. These are the Prepmen you will meet in the following pages, the underclassmen of Brooklyn Prep.

ACTIVITIES

"Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or do anything else;
do all for the glory of God."

St. Paul; 1 Cor. 10, 31

When a student graduates from Prep it is not enough that he know Latin and English, for this is only a part of his education. He must learn to make practical application of his new-found knowledge through the extra-curricular activities. Through the Sodality and Knights of the Blessed Sacrament he fulfills his obligation to God and thus applies the Sanctitas of the complete Catholic man.

The other activities help the student to arrive at "eloquentia perfecta", the major aim of the Jesuit educator. Whether it be in the speaking activities, literary journals, language clubs or mathematics groups, the student strives to complement his school work with the true education of experience.

A student who does not participate in the various activities at Prep fails to fulfill the purpose of a Jesuit high-school education. The student who does will become a Catholic man, in Sanitas, Scientia and Sanctitas.

RETREATS

The C. S. P. A. medalist was awarded the magazine for the third successive year. This gratifying recognition marked the close of a year which saw many changes and improvements in the appearance of the magazine and the style of its material. A new series was needed to increase general appeal. It was then that the Brooklyn Industrial Series was born. Aside from the features, there were other changes. The fiction staff wanted more sports stories and the answer was the first annual Magazine Sport Short Story contest.

The staff continued its same hard work, originality, and initiative for the three issues. There were award winners to be chosen, pictures to be taken, and articles to be written. The Art Staff blossomed out in a crop of illustration by Walt Marwitz and Jerry McSweeney. The junior editors were chosen. When the ink had dried on the last copy sheet, the work was by no means finished. Plans were being laid for the last social event of the term, the annual Magazine Awards Dance. It was not until the last tired couple left the gymnasium on that evening, that the curtain was drawn on a busy but successful year for the magazine.

A school paper is not a newspaper! A daily or even weekly publication might startle its readers with the novelty and freshness of the events it records. The Blue Jug presents the news in review. It is one way of recognizing the achievements of Prepmen. It is a record and commentary on doings at Prep. It is one way of preserving the life, memories and interest of a time of life which comes once and does not come again.

This is the Blue Jug staff. Their heads and hands are behind each issue.

Writers Tutunjian and Gilheany get the inside dope from Coach Walter Doolan.

Staff members Amorosi, P. McDonough and Giordano post news bulletins on the Blue Jug board which fills in the news gaps between issues.

Correspondent Tom Grace finds out that some people are serious about deadlines.

Dave Leahy

Who earned the most money during 1955? For the sum total of three months preparation and 132 minutes of actual speaking, Dave Leahy won $5,000 by placing 2nd in the annual National American Legion Oratorical contest. Because of his myriad trophies stretching back into the dim mists of second year, his debating average of over .750, his innumeral extemp. contest and oratorical victories, opposing schools have accused Dave of attending Prep on the six year plan. The Blue Book salutes you David Leahy—a fine Catholic gentleman and one of the best all round speakers in Prep's history.

BAND

At halftime, when the "big B-r's had died down to a slight roar, the long blue line of the Prep Marching Band stole the spotlight from the football team. With trumpets glistening in the white October sun and the drums piercing the crisp dry air, the strains of "The Iron Men" stirred the heart of every Prepman. You could see the players raise their heads and fight just a little harder and with renewed vigor as the triumphant music drifted down from the stands.

The cheers from the first game of the season had scarcely faded away when the Band received an invitation to march in the Holy Name rally at Jersey City. Its customary excellence took Jersey City by storm and clarinet as it walked away with a commendation.

In the light of their triumphs at the football games, Jersey City and Parents night, the seniors formed their own Dance Band. Since then they have gained a fine reputation for good music and the Glenn Millers of Prep have performed at the Smoker, Parents night, and their biggest success, the Prep basketball games.

Not satisfied with an already fine list of accomplishments, the Prep Band qualified in the Preliminaries of the Catholic Music Festival and have gained the chance to appear at Town Hall. In that same competition three Band members qualified in the individual contests—Robert Smolarz, Joseph Zito, and Andrew Loughlin, won first place as a trombone trio.

After gaining the reputation as the best sounding band in the city, at last the Prep Band will have the reputation as the best dressed band. The new blue blazers and grey pants are as handsome as any found in the Ivy colleges.

The numerous awards of the past year would not have been possible were it not for the untiring and unselfish efforts of the officers. The Band wants to extend special thanks to Mr. Lavin, S.J., their Moderator, Mr. Thorne, their conductor, and the student president, John Garafolo.

"I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the course . . .

St. Paul; 2 Timothy 4, 7

"Certainly the most important influence has been Almighty God to whom I am grateful not alone for any athletic success I may enjoy but for the wonderful opportunity I have as a student at Brooklyn Prep. Everyone has the chance to try out for any team of his choice. When he makes the team he can feel proud even though he does not gain fame—even though he sits on the bench for most of the season,—so long as he can truthfully say: "I have done my best." The spirit of cooperation and teamwork which he develops is wonderful. He gets the needed relaxation from his schedule of studies. And, most important, the athlete learns how to live with his fellow man by learning how to take the victories and the defeats on the playing field, and applying this knowledge to the business and social aspects of his life. These are the benefits an athlete derives from his game."

G. Salvatore, '55

FOOTBALL

September 1, a hot, dry day marked the beginning of the 1954 football season for Brooklyn Prep. From those early days of September till Thanksgiving Day, the football squad was constantly engaged in tackling, blocking, running and passing. All those laborious days of practice were to have their payoff on game day.

The squad, though undermanned, sported a three and four record. This year's team will be remembered for its fighting spirit. The squad never said die against an overwhelming Xavier eleven. And in the most remembered game of the season it was the Prep's unconquerable spirit which carried her over the goal line twice to a 12-7 victory against a heavily favored Saint Francis. The Blue and White will be noted for its victorious journey to the wilds of Long Island. But most important, their fighting spirit displayed itself in all its splendor when, after being behind by two touchdowns at the end of the half, the team bounced back to score two touchdowns. However as in previous games, the Redmen had crossed the goal line once more than Prep.

You parents, especially those of the players, know as well as your sons the toil and trouble that makes up a football team. For you have suffered when the team lost, you have leapt with joy when the team won. We know that you look with pride upon this year's football team.

He isn't going anywhere.

Basketball

It looked as if Trinity had the game wrapped up but Prep made one of its thrilling comebacks to overcome a twelve point deficit at half time. Adelphi and Cathedral then were easy wins. The Power game was a heartbreaker as Prep lost by one point in overtime. The fabulous fast break went on to defeat Rice, St. Augustine, St. Agnes, St. Peter's (S.I.), and Fordham. Prep defeated Xavier by two points in another comeback beauty in the Jesuit Tournament. St. Peter's Prep was favored to win the finals by twenty points and it looked like the papers were going to be right but the Prep club staged the quickest comeback in its history. At the half St. Peter's was up by fourteen but Prep tied it in two minutes. The game went into overtime but Prep fell just two short of the championship.

The next three wins were all squeakers: Prep beat St. Mary's by eight. Regis blew a seventeen point lead and lost to the speedy Prep five. The second Xavier game was nip and tuck but Prep won by four points. In the Knights of Columbus Tourney, Prep reached the quarter finals by beating St. James and St. Nicholas but lost again to Power Memorial (also in overtime).

The season record was fifteen-seven (ten-one at home) the record for the most wins in one season at Brooklyn Prep. The team averaged close to 75 points a game.

Bob "Luke" Latkany broke the Brooklyn Prep scoring record by hitting 410 points. Hank "Eagle" Eagan scored over 350 points and John Daly hit for 300. The other two starters, Mike "Hawk" Sullivan and John McAuliffe split 250 points. Don Urgo has the highest foul shooting percentage on the team.

The cinders at the Van Cortlandt Park track turn white hot under the heels of the Prep's cross country harriers. Out of eighty schools Prep finished fifth in the N.Y.U. meet and then moved on to conquer new foes at Yale where they defeated the Yale freshmen for the third straight year.

Then the early season hopes of a successful season were thought shattered when team captain, Jerry Salvatore, was taken out of the lineup with a broken arm. But the rest of the team rallied in Jerry's absence to take fifth place in the C.H.S.A.A. meet. Joe Carney, Richie Kraus, and John Dwyer then combined to run away, literally, with the Jesuit Championships. Frank Connor and Mike Apicella were nosed out of a Jay Vee victory by a strong Fordham team.

After a highly successful outdoor season the team moved indoors and took up where they left off. Fresh from a victory over highly-touted St. Michael's, they lost to Fordham Prep by one point. During this meet Richie Kraus set a high school mile record for the Fordham track. Jerry Salvatore returned to his winning form copping the half-mile and anchoring the mile relay.

The Cardinal Hayes Meet was a true challenge to the high-spirited harriers and they proved themselves equal to the task as Joe Carney placed high in the 1000 yard run and Pete Baer leaped into the winner's circle with a victory in the high jump.

Two weeks later Jerry Salvatore, as is his custom, came close to tying his record in the C.H.S.A.A. mile. Dick Messina took fifth place in the fifty and Mel Brown set a school record of :05.7 seconds in the same event. Of the fourteen Prep speed-merchants entered in this meet six scored points. Despite its small numbers the team finished fifth, only five points out of third place. Bert Bergan finished third in the Junior high jump and Eddie Kent set a school record for the broad jump in the private school meet this year. John MacMurray and Larry Jacas also contributed valuable victories.

Of course no mention of the track team can be made without a note of deep appreciation and gratitude to the coach, Mister Murtha Lawrence, who was always the inspiration behind a winning team.

SWIMMING

The swimming team again brought home laurels for Prep this year. While the veterans began hot, the team started slow, dropping the first meet against Loughlin 34-41 and the contest with St. Francis' stokers 28-27. Although they lost to the swimming Terriers, our medley team of Hayman, Sweeney, and Brennan broke the 120 yard high school medley record. The Prep mermen started burning up the water by drenching Cardinal Hayes' contenders with a 52-23 score, and turned the Redmen's faces red when they trounced St. John's with a winning performance of 41-34. In the Trinity massacre, Prep sank their splashers with a decisive 58-17 score, the highest of the season. Tom Sweeney, Jim Beattie, and Don Satriana turned in outstanding performances in this meet. The Cardinal Stepinac victory leaves nothing to be said except that all turned in the usual exemplary day's work in beating them 45-30. At Fordham, while the basketball team romped the Rams on the court, the swimmers ruined all Fordham hope of victory by drowning them 41-34 after a tough start. We finished the dual-meet season with the team's victory over Xavier's Cadets. Drill is a commodity of which we have a good supply. We dunked the soldiers to the tune of 46-29.

The Prep poolmen competed in the Nationals at Villanova and earned a hard won fourth place, which was greatly contributed to by Captain Hayman's first place in the 100-yard backstroke and Drury Gallagher's second in the individual medley, a meet in itself. The same two men turned in the same positions in the Private Schools Meet and the freestyle medley combination of Beattie, Gallagher, Hayman and Brennan copped a first. The team placed third against tough competition. Medals were taken by Beattie and Satriana in the Novice meet and in Catholic Schools competition, Hayman turned in his first in the backstroke event, while Gallagher took two seconds in the 100-yard and 200-yard freestyle events. In the Jesuit High School meet, the swimmers thrashed all comers and took the meet. The individual stokers excelled in every event.

The school may well be proud of another fighting unit in the swimmers.

The curtain goes up on 4B-1. Stan Niedzwiecki, Class President . . . Dave Murphy, Veep . . . Bob Gulotty and Mike Sullivan, treasurer and secretary . . . Bob Bosshardt was our very competent beadle.

We were represented on just about every Prep team. The football team showed Dave Murphy, Walt Klingman, and Phil Pierz. We contributed two of the starting five to Prep's most successful basketball team in years—Hank Egan and Mike Sullivan . . . the team manager was also from 4B-1—Herb Cox. Carl Marwitz and Tom Duggan represented us in baseball. Vinnie Rippa was our man in track . . . Dick McGovern bowled the strikes to lead the Bowling League. Rick Conti was as tough a lineman as they come for our intramural football team. "Fitz" and Toddy Parrott sparked our intramural basketball five and Toddy was elected to the All-Star team.

But sports wasn't our only field of endeavor. Bob Sulzbach and Jim Amadei were only two of our Sodalists . . . Bill Farrugia was Photography Editor of both the Magazine and the Blue Book. Tom Duggan was Art Editor of the Blue Book and George Hughes was Circulation Manager. Denny Cahill worked long and hard hours on the Blue Book . . . Paul Christopher represented us in Macbeth. Mike Moher, Steve McCabe and Tom Murphy were among those who earned their spending money after 2:25.

We'll remember . . . Danny Gallagher and Joe Thompson as they raced through the door at one minute to nine . . . the sound of shoe leather hitting metal as Vinnie Langton tried to open his locker . . . Bill Hedley and his conservative ties . . . Wally Sands' crack that the first five years are the hardest . . . Tom Crown's rapid five Latin recitations . . . that far away look in their eyes as Bill Rickard and Danny O'Neil swapped tales of the Promised Land (Long Island) . . . Gerry McKenzie coming to school in style until that day when—the day we averaged 90% in a Physics Blue Book . . . the way we felt on Monday mornings . . . the way we feel to have been part of Prep for four very short and very happy years . . .

These past four years at Prep have been crowded with memories of the men who helped B. P. reach the top in all fields. In scholastic and in extra-curricular fields we have watched Prep soar ahead of all competition. Class 4B2 is proud to have been a part of this fine Prep tradition.

In the field of journalism our class has contributed many members to the school publications. While Bob Constantino does the layout work for the Magazine, John Fallon, Philip Mauer, and John Sullivan are on the Business Staff. Ray Robinson's fine feature article on Skin diving was surely a contributing factor to the Medalist Award.

The presence of our class was also felt on the Blue Book. Mike Frahlich and John Burns are on the Business Staff and along with the rest of the staff members have always managed to pay the bills. (Editors Note . . . Oh yeah!)

John Greco has spread the fame of 4B2 in debating tournaments, with his fine record of victories. His talents are not confined to speaking, for he has gained the position of soloist at all the Prep concerts. Our other John Philip Sousa's from 4B2 include Joseph Zito, Robert Smolartz, and Jim McGowen.

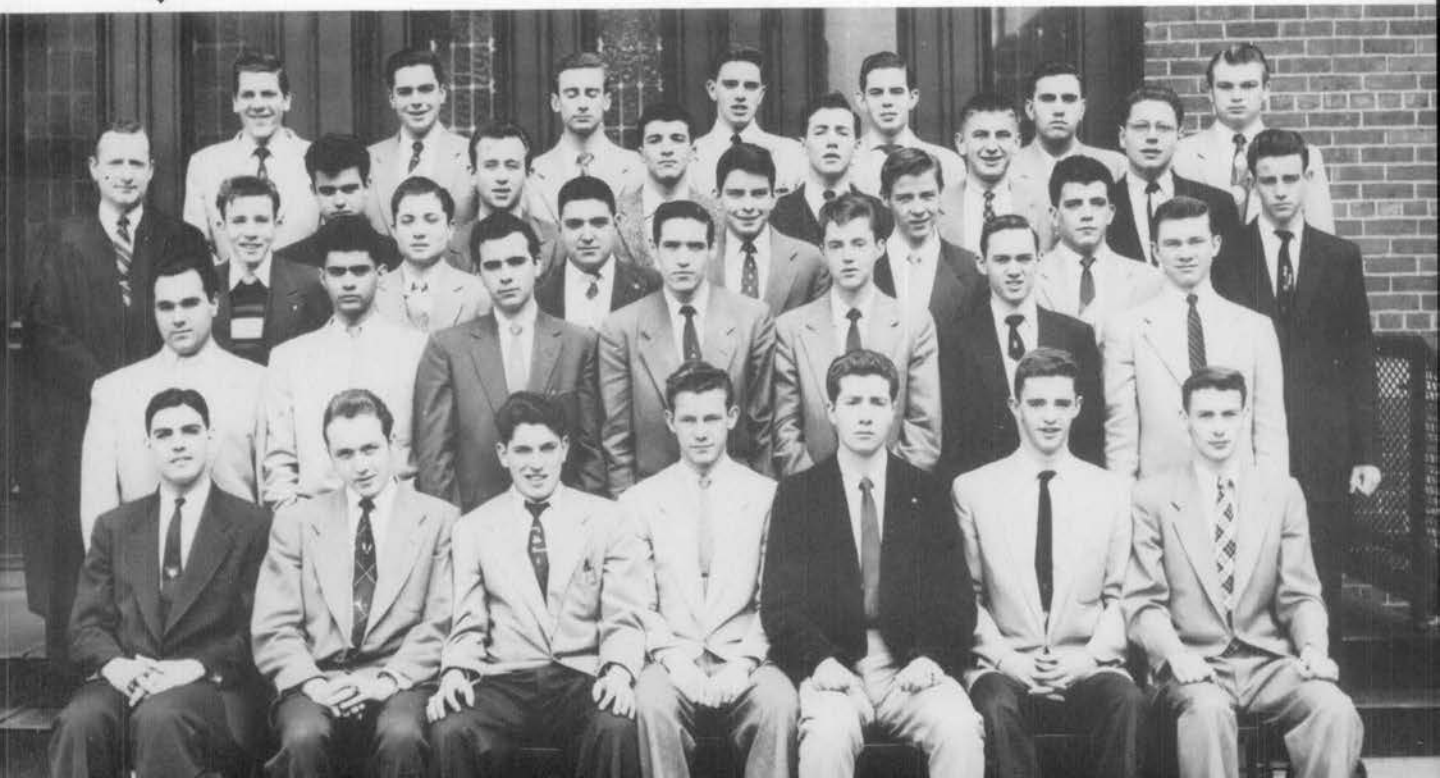

On the Latin Sight Team we were represented by Vincent Panettiere, who doubled on the stage crew. Joe Hughs, and Joe Fallon, two of the murderers in Macbeth, were among our best bowlers.

Our sodality members include John Berte, Jim Quinn, and Ronald Habecker, who may frequently be seen at K. B. S.

When it comes to athletics our class is always in the forefront. On the track Bert Bergan, Richard Scuderi, Chris Sarlo, and Bob Foley can be seen doing their laps every afternoon. Ed. DelGiorno, Bill Enright, Don Esposito, Ray Givers, and Russ Sasso are a few of the fellows who helped to give 4B2 successful intramural teams.

The Executive Department of our Class was made up of Bill Moriarity, Ed Mastoloni, and Jack Hayman. President Moriarity is one of the few three letter men in the School and our capable leader. Bill was captain of the baseball team, quarterback of the football team, and in the winter he made the basketball team. As vice president Ed Mastoloni will always be remembered for his off-hand remarks and pranks. Aside from varsity jug Ed made varsity baseball and football. Rounding out this terrific trio is Jack Hayman, about whom little additional may be said. He has won every back stroke championship conceivable, including the National Catholic Championship at Villanova.

Our four years at Prep are now completed but we shall always remember our training and remember that we are still Prepmen.

4B3 may not be the best, but we have the reputation of being the fastest class ever to be assembled. Our Speedway, at eleven-thirty Carroll Street, has never and will never play host to a faster group of seniors.

At the glorious chiming of the 2:25 bell, the phenomenal speed of our class was turned to extra-curricular activities, where our class always won the race.

Prep will never forget the athletic feats of our class members. At every basketball game we could expect to see John Daly, the jumping bean in human form, steal the ball and race down court to sink two more for Prep. Jack Murphy ran a close second to Jumpin' John as head basketballer of 4B3. Having Bob Hurley around didn't hurt either.

When the speed of our class was put in the water, in the person of John Brennen, we got a big splash and then a victory. By the way, John was our waterlogged president in senior year. They tried to prove we weren't so fast at Prospect Park and Madison Square garden but Dick Kraus proved the truth again with victory after victory.

Whenever we saw a blue and white streak on a gridiron we never bothered to check our scorecards, we knew it had to be Mel Brown, alias Cinderella, the third string halfback who turned out to be this season's hero. A long pass downfield at a crucial moment always meant another reception by "Ichabod" Sherry.

On the diamond, the customary 4B3 speed, was shown by fireballing pitchers Bob De Mayo and Johnnie Rochford. When the cry went out for a Varsity Golf team Al Capparelli and Rudy Angeli were among the first to join the sand trap patrol. By the way Al's 4B3 speed didn't work in the band because he always finished ahead of everybody else.

But not only on the athletic field was the presence of the speed demons felt. When it came to meeting a deadline, Frank Bruton was always the first to have his column in. Pete House, ace photog of the Blue Jug, used to race from one place to another, snapping and developing, to make sure that the B. J. had good pictures. Dick Stuchinski, the business manager of the Blue Book, could outrun everyone and force them to buy a booster ad. Our other deadline beaters include Ken Arnold, Dick Bugge, Jim Caputo, Lou Einstman, and John Hannigan.

As the doors of 1150 close behind us we shall breathe a deep sigh of relief and murmur a humble prayer of thanksgiving.

400 . . . 401 . . . ah 402—"Deez muzz bee dee plaz! "The door Charon (Loftus)!" Ah it's you Abbé Pierre," replies Father Berrigan, priest, architect, philosopher, lay apostle, French translator, poet, critic, and 4B4's nomination for the first of the Latter Day Saints. "Oh, Abbé, Abbé, and these are my little lay apostles." "Chi é questo Padre?", reply De Santis and Amorosi in perfect Italian . . . Voilà B.P.'s Prez Ed Kent . . . Lo and behold Big Jim Trim . . . it's heads—it's tails—no! it's treasurer Albano counting dues . . . Werner and Reynolds the Eli twins singing BOOLA-BOOLA . . . Brother Tague, "The Hound of Heaven" . . . DUCK! there's Urgo and Babinski in another eraser war . . . G. S. Big Boy Smith . . . Joe "the Barber" Werres . . . "Legs" Baer grappling Loughlin . . . Don't step on Mousie Matuella . . . All-American Di Meo and De Laura . . . Watch it! Here comes Gifford, Jacas and Apicella practicing their 60 yard dashes 'round the class again . . . And waiting at the finish line is Joe McCooey with his trusty camera . . . "Tennis anyone?", queries Billy Mahon . . . Larry "Who's Who in the Book Review" Reid . . . Nicoletto serenading Chuck "Let's See" Westmiller . . . The Erin Trio, O'Brien, Mullen, and McQueeney singing Danny Boy, i. e. Danny "Spaniel" Stig . . . OU-LA-LA there's Herbie and Maggie's boys, Carmody and Chave . . . Anchises Kohler, Sibyl Braccia, and Aeneas Pooley have to cross the River Styx to get to the "never-never" region of Ozone Park . . . and our own crew cut Romeo, Myles Walsh.

But seriously, we want to thank all who helped make the past four years memorable ones for all of us, especially the Senior year. To Father Paone, who always symbolized Christ in the truest sense, and to Father Frohnhoeffer, a milestone in the Jesuits, to venerable "Doc" Quinn, tireless and always young at heart, and finally . . . words could not express our love and admiration for Father Berrigan . . . Father, may your inward desires (you know what we mean, Father) be fulfilled. God, watch over and protect them.

Room 311 houses one of the finest classes in the senior year of '55. Soaking up culture on the hardwoods are a group of Prepmen who have contributed more than their share to their alma mater.

Ken O'Brien and Jack Flynn sparkled on the football field, adding their brain and brawn to the Prep line. The former captained the Blue and White gridders.

Luke Latkany, Al Keating and Charlie Boyle made the Prep gym a nice place to watch a basketball game. The "Smilin' Syrian" burned up the courts all season captaining the hoopers to one of their finest years, while Al contributed part of the reserve strength a first-rate team needs.

Jerry Salvatore's name is synonomous with excellence on the cinders. The Cashman Award winner has strung up an impressive number of victories and earned a place in Prep's athletic Hall of Fame.

4B-5 boasted of Dave Traynor and Al Keating on the B. P. baseball squad. Both add speed and power to the Prep lineup.

4B-5 copped the intramural basketball title, placing Jack Flynn, Tom Powers, Dave Traynor and Moose MacMurray on the All-Star team.

Frogman "Wally" Walsh contributed to the Blue and White swimming team's success.

Our class not only shines in athletics but also in the various other activities that make life worth living here at Prep.

Bill Randolph prefects the Sodality, heading an impressive list of classmates under the banner of Our Lady.

Dave Leahy, national finalist in the American Legion Oratory Tournament, gained a national reputation with that deep voice of his. We're all proud to have him aboard the 4B-5 bandwagon.

Banging the typwriters for the Blue Jug, Charlie Madden represents the class in Mr. Culin's salt mine.

Dan Sweeney and John Flynn help Mr. O'Brien turn out the yearbook.

In the play Tom Powers and Charlie Madden made "Old Will" turn over in his grave.

Tom McCarthy helps keep the magazine at the top of the list with his facile pen, and Julius Cuputo's fine art adds flash to each copy.

Hughie Gallagher and Willie Reich add the "Joe College" touch to the class with their flashy vests and white bucks.

Ed Kupfer and John Allen shine in all class discussions with their sage comments. Gerry Massaro keeps us in the groove with his rock 'n roll. Dick Cassano, Charlie Quinn, Pete Fauci, and Jim Daly belong to the Morning After Club, sporting blood-shot eyes and drooping chins after a hard week-end on the run.

If you're a first-rate orator, or a second-rate oboe player, a hard-hitting outfielder or a swift miler, drop by and flip, flop and fly with 4B-5.

From the mist and gloom of the Senior Smoking Room, we, (the men of 4B-6), who are about to die, (from a rapidly-spreading epidemic of Smog-poisoning), salute you. Though our little Stalig 212 might look like London in February when we saints come marching in every morning, the fog is soon dispelled by frequent blasts of hot air from the cream of B. P.'s Speech and Dramatic Societies, many of whom reside here under Finnerty's Rainbow.

First we have Jim Harrington and Joe Kett, who will tell you, at the drop of a hat, why they DEFINITELY should have won that last debate on Saturday . . . and three more men who have shoveled their way to the top in the ranks of debating and oratory: Howie (What-Kind-Of-An-Ablative-Is-It) Kelting; Kenny DeLuca, A VEEP (for the Student Council) and a VIP (for B. P. in general); and, finally, his inseparable (or is it insufferable?) debate partner, "Schnitzel" Smith. And then we hear the dulcet tones of John Battles, who, together with "Lady" John Tutunjian and "Macbeth" Gilheany (4B-6's answer to Dorothy and Dick) give you three living proofs that all hams are not to be found in butcher shops . . . We in 4B-6 are masters of the written as well as the spoken word. Down in O'Brien's Old Office, we find the Editor of this little opus, Johnny Ormond, who still wants to know, "How ya doin'?" Around the corner, in Ryan's Rumpus Room, we find our pipe-puffing Class VEEP and mag editor, Dick (Hi Guy) Dilworth, our master of belles-lettres, Vocabularyrian John Collins, and that intrepid member of the "Jean", Joe (Brioschi) Fratantoni. Meanwhile, back at Culkins Cozy Corner, Frantic Frank Luongo, boy editor, is busy organizing the B. P. news sheet, even though he can't seem to organize himself in French class . . . and how about The Mad Genius, Joe Malone? Our lexiconsious linguist speaks about six languages fluently, but is least intelligible when speaking English . . . There wasn't much of 4B-6 on the Varsity Football Squad this year, but what there was in the person of Rocky Joe Phillip really did a job of work on the faces of opposing linemen . . . and . . . Well, there goes the 2:25 bell and pretty soon every weed fiend in fourth year will descend on Old 212. to wrap it once again in a Marlboro Mist.

And so, with these words of wisdom we leave you, and as we walk down Carroll St. for the last time, you can hear us uttering ecstatic cries of joy at being able, as it says in the Vicks ads, to bre-e-e-athe again!

Brooklyn Prep, like Brooklyn itself, continues to grow.

Construction on Prep's long-awaited new wing will begin this August. By next December, the blueprints on this page will fast become a reality. Four new classrooms and an activities building will stand where the quadrangle now holds sway. The Activities building will hold Prep's own swimming pool, where our future championship teams will train.

Eventide

When city lights twinkle a friendly 'good night' and a slowly darkening skyline marks the end of another busy day — one marvels at the routine coordination so essential to the success of a great metropolis.

Significant, and above all other human attributes, is — friendliness, that very fair and honest regard for the other fellow.

Proof, that ENGRAVATONE practices this golden rule, is a growing list of satisfied friends — and it is not surprising that singularly better and economical college and school annuals are consistently produced under our banner of good fellowship and cooperation.
