Fifty Second Anniversary Reunion Dinner

Altman Building
135 West 18th Street
New York City

Thursday, May 2, 2013

Dr. Thomas I. Hayes

Dr. Thomas I. Hayes is an international public health specialist and lives in St. Petersburg, Florida. He is a graduate of Brooklyn Prep, Class of 1960, and Fordham University. He completed an internship and residency in clinical pharmacy and was licensed as a Doctor of Pharmacy in Tennessee. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine (UK) and a member of the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene. He attended graduate school in Public Health at UCLA and has managed major hospitals including the American Hospital of Paris and the Cromwell Hospital in London. Dr. Hayes served as Director of Professional Relations for Hospital Affiliates International and founded several health management and consulting companies in Europe and America. He is currently CEO of International Healthcare Consultants, Inc.

His international activities encompass more than 30 years. He has been an advisor to the Ministers of Health of Egypt, Tanzania and Swaziland; managed medical volunteers during the Ethiopian famine in the 80's; administered medical services for refugees during the 1999 Kosovo crisis; led a UN program for repatriation of Iraqi refugees in 2003; and established an African Development Rural Health Initiative in Tanzania in 2006. He has also worked in Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Zimbabwe, South Africa, Francophone West Africa, Gulf States, France, and the UK (where he raised his children). Most recently he was the Public Health Specialist for a European Commission program assessing malaria vaccines to lessen infant mortality in sub-Saharan Africa. Dr. Hayes is married to Marjorie Hansen, a senior consultant in human resources. Their son, Thomas, lives in Atlanta with his wife and two children; and his daughter, Hilary, lives in Squaw Valley with her husband and daughter. The Hayes have no doubt that their son, Sean, who died at the age of eight from cystic fibrosis is proudly watching today.

Dr. Thomas J. Hayes

*A Doctor of Pharmacology of international stature
A friend of refugees and victims of disease who has dedicated his life to bring healing and health to thousands in need across the globe.*

A true son of Ignatius who, at the cost of physical danger and personal gain, has spent himself in seeking the greater glory of God and the most universal good of his neighbor

Presented this second day of May, 2013

Rev. James F. Keenan, S.J.

A native New Yorker, Fr. Jim Keenan attended Blessed Sacrament Grammar School, Jackson Heights. Father then won an academic scholarship to Bishop Loughlin Memorial HS. In 1956 a vocation to the Jesuits called and young Jim entered the novitiate at St. Andrew-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. Even though the young novice had not attended a Jesuit high school, his future work as a Jesuit was to center on Jesuit secondary education. His first assignment as a regent was to teach English and American History at Xavier HS.

After ordination to the priesthood in 1969 and special studies at Teachers College, Columbia University, Father Jim was sent back to Xavier. He was assigned to teach, but he also began his introduction to school administration. Fr. Jim was lucky enough at that time to have as his mentor, Rev. William T. Wood, S.J., a man of great administrative experience. The Jesuits quickly recognized Fr. Jim's ability as an administrator. In the following years he became the Assistant Headmaster, then Headmaster, and finally President of the school.

The NY Province then called on Fr. Keenan's ability and generosity. From 1981 through 2006 he was asked to be the President of a succession of Jesuit high schools: McQuaid Jesuit HS in Rochester, NY, then Canisius HS, Buffalo, NY, and finally St. Peter's Prep, Jersey City. Over the years the Brooklyn Prep Endowment Fund has supported all these schools. Fr. Keenan is presently the Director for Advancement for the New York Province.

Bestowing on Fr. James F. Keenan, SJ the Honorary Alumnus of the Year allows the BP Alumni who have been devoted to supporting Jesuit secondary education to thank Fr. Keenan for his great contribution to the growth and development of secondary education in the New York Province. He has made himself available for all these difficult assignments with grace and generosity. Availability and generosity are the hallmarks of what it means to be a Jesuit. It is with gratitude that BPAA bestows on Rev. James Francis Keenan, S.J. the title of Honorary Alumnus of Brooklyn Prep.

As members of the Brooklyn Prep Alumni we are grateful to Xavier High School for permanently displaying this tribute to our school and our alumni both living and deceased in its hallowed halls.

This plaque is erected in honor of the alumni of Brooklyn Preparatory School, the Jesuit high school founded in 1908 in Crown Heights that served the sons and grandsons of immigrants with distinction for 64 years. The alumni of Brooklyn Prep include federal cabinet secretaries and university presidents; bishops, priests, provincials and members of religious congregations, admirals, authors, judges, firemen and policemen; husbands and fathers, men who have served the community, the Church and the nation with distinction.

Upon the closing of Brooklyn Prep in 1972, the alumni association reorganized to maintain the fraternal bonds of Brooklyn Prep and to provide financial support to the remaining Jesuit high schools of the New York Province. Since 1972, the Brooklyn Prep Alumni Association has donated millions of dollars to support the work of Xavier and the other high schools of the province.

This plaque is erected by Xavier High School on May 2 in the Year of Our Lord 2013, for the greater glory of God, on the occasion of the annual Brooklyn Prep Alumni Mass and Dinner; in gratitude for the ongoing generosity of the BP alumni, and in memory of the Brooklyn Prep alumni:
